The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Morny died Wednesday afternoon and was buried yesterday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the family home on west Chickasha avenue, Rev. E. D. Cameron officiating. The little one was the only child of loving parents, and the darling of his grandfather, Mr. Lyndsay. He was ill nearly two weeks with pneumonia and from the first, the disease assumed a severe and dangerous type. Everything was done for him that medical skill could do. The tenderest care and nursing from parents and friends, but death had set his seal upon the brow, and the little boy went to join the angels in his Father's home. Parents, the grandfather and other relatives mourning for the little life as soon closed, yet bow in submission to Divine will, and know that their loss in the eternal gain of their innocent little child.

Mrs. H. B. McGaughy received a message yesterday that her brother died yesterday morning at 5:15 o'clock, at his home in southern Texas. The intelligence to was a dreadful shock to Mrs. McGaughy. The young man was her only brother, and had always been in fine health, until two weeks ago, when attacked with typhoid pneumonia. His condition was not considered dangerous, until a short time previous to his death. Mrs. McGaughy is prostrated with grief, and in her delicate health, her husband and family are very anxious about her. She was unable to attend the funeral services, the long distance, and many delays in transit, making it impossible for her to make the journey. Mr. H. B. McGaughy is feeling the loss very deeply, having loved the young man as an own brother. He is spoken of as having been one of the noblest and best of men, possessing the love and respect of a large circle of friends and business associates. The Express extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McGaughy.
