THE MARIE FOUNTAIN CO.

Last night's show was just as it was advertised, the funniest comedy drama ever written. It was played to a full house and was thoroughly enjoyed. Marie Fountain, the leading woman, is a good actress and she is well supported. The company has a good band and a good orchestra; the specialties are good.—Emporia (Kans.) Gazette.

Marie Fountain

The Marie Fountain Theatrical Co., will be here all next week. They carry their own band and orchestra and will give two big concerts daily on the streets. Popular prices at the Opera House.

THE MIDWAY OPENING.
The Splendid New Cafe Opened Today.

The first dinner was served at the Midway today, and it marked the opening of the most thoroughly up-to-date cafe in the Territory. Mr. and Mrs. McFarland have made every effort to get their beautiful place in readiness, and while all the fixtures have not been placed, the great room is ready for customers. They have purchased all the latest fashions in cafe furniture, the tables, counters, chairs and stands being of quartered oak. The cigar and confectionery cases are of oak with plate glass, and the soda fountain is a thing of beauty with its mirrors, carvings and fixtures. Mr. and Mrs. McFarland are experienced restaurant people and propose to cater to the tastes and fancies of the people of Chickasha in everything that will please the palate.
