Warning to Public

Beware of the agent selling an instrument to be used as extra or extension telephone. He will tell you that it will save you money. Our charges for extension telephones are based upon the additional service we give, and not merely on the extra instrument attached. A reasonable charge is made for all extension telephones, is based upon the additional service we give, and not merely on the extra instrument attached. A reasonable charge is made for all extension telephones, and we will not furnish service where station equipment is not installed under our supervision.

Agents are peddling various other devices which they claim will improve your service. They may tell you they represent the telephone company. We have no traveling representatives selling equipment.

All these special devices are unnecessary; many of them get the lines and instruments into trouble, and the company, to protect its service, is obliged to remove them.

In the interest of good service subscribers are requested to make no attachments of any kind to telephone instruments supplied by the company. We are prepared to furnish standard apparatus to take care of any unusual conditions.

Consult our contract department before purchasing apparatus. PIONEER TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY. 6-10-21
