PLAYER-MANAGER OF BROOKLYN FED CLUB

Lee Magee, Youngest Leader in Major Leagues.

Lee Magee, whose proper name is Leopold Rosenbaum, manager of the Brooklyn Federals, is the youngest team leader in the major leagues. He was born in Cincinnati, O., June 4, 1888.

Magee began his professional career in 1908, when he played for two weeks with the Meridian (Miss.) team of the Cotton States league as third baseman. In 1907, Magee played with Springfield, Ill.; Burlington, Ia.; and Waterloo, Ia.

BASEBALL NOTES

Manager Birmingham of the Cleveland Indians may find a good outfielder in Walter Barbara.

Leslie Mann has invented a new gun which will enable him to look up through the glasses and down without them.

Pitcher "Duck" O'Brien, recently released by the Memphis club of the Southern league, is negotiating with the Providence club.

Outfielder Harry Wolter, after holding out on Los Angeles until the season was ready to start, finally signed at the figures offered him.

Ivy Wingo is making a fine showing in the outfield with the Cincinnati Reds, and it appears as if Herzog may give him a permanent berth there.

Manager Bill Carrigan of the Red Sox announces that he will carry eight pitchers this season, including his two lame ducks, Joe Wood and Vean Gregg.

The Memphis club has given George Merrit, last year's all-around performer, his unconditional release as a result of the failure to either trade or sell him to some other club.

Pitcher Ralph Cutting of the Milwaukee Brewers has notified the club management that he has quit baseball and will devote his time to running a dairy farm in New Hampshire.

Manager McGraw, it is said, would much have preferred to keep Catcher Bobby Marshall instead of Larry McLean, but you know about those iron-clad contracts, and Larry had one of them.

It was a wonderful coup on the part of Schuyler Britton of St. Louis when, after much perseverance and unceasing appeal, he was able to persuade Bob Bescher to accept $8,000 a year from him.

Almost all the Phils are camera fiends and never go to the St. Petersburg training park without black boxes and films. Eddie Burns and Joe Geesinger got good results from vest-pocket kodaks.

The Chicago White Sox will have about six regulars hitting right-handed, while it is the other way with the Chicago Cubs, as Bresnahan has five, and possibly six, classed as regulars who are left-handed hitters.

Pitcher George Boehler will remain with the Tigers all season, so Manager Jennings says. Hughey has made up his mind to find out whether the Lawrenceburg barber really is a major league pitcher or a false alarm.

Frank Huelman, the minor league Lajoie, has signed to play with Omaha. Frank has been hitting 400 or better most of his career and is the style of hitter who should make every other sweat a home run in the Western league.

MANAGERS' WAYS ARE QUEER

Leader of Cincinnati Reds Was Quick to Grab Up Tommy Leach, Released by Chicago Cubs.

The ways of baseball managers, at times, are strange, strange ways. The case of Roger Bresnahan, who manages the Cubs, is a fair example.

Roger, who owned a ball player named Tommy Leach, discovered a short time ago that he would have no need for the veteran's services during 1915. At the same time Charles Herzog, who manages the Cincinnati Reds, discovered that he needed a veteran ball player, and he decided that Tommy Leach was the very ball player that he wanted to get.

"I'd like to get Leach from the Cubs and if some deal can be made Leach will wear a Cincinnati uniform in 1915," said Herzog.

Did Bresnahan immediately arrange a trade with Herzog for Leach? Did

He sell Leach to Herzog and add a few thousand shikels to the bank account of the Cubs? No, Bresnahan didn't. He just released Leach outright, whereupon Herzog signed him up.

In other words, Herzog got Leach for nothing, although he had publicly announced that he was willing to give cash or promising players to the Cubs for Leach.

"Doc" Cook's Ambition. One athlete who will be sorely disappointed if his 1915 batting mark falls below the 300 mark is "Doc" Cook. "Doc" got away to the poorest kind of a start last season and the season was two months old before he had shaken the malaria out of his system. Even under this handicap he was knocking at the door of 300 when the season ended.

Pi-Pie-Pipp Combination. The combination of New York names—Pis Schwert, Cy Pieh and Walter Pipp—gives promise of some rare outbursts in the listing of double plays.

One possibility is Pi to Pieh to Pipp. Another one is Peck to Pieh to Pipp, as Professor Peckinpaugh is familiarly known as Peck and often is so entered in the score.

Tommy Leach.

He sell Leach to Herzog and add a few thousand shikels to the bank account of the Cubs? No, Bresnahan didn't. He just released Leach outright, whereupon Herzog signed him up.

Table showing TODAY'S ODDDEST STORY. By United Press. Denver, Colo., May 15.—If you want to know what happens in a woman suffrage state when a man and wife—both voters—want to talk at a public political meeting at the same time, read the following true story:

Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson is a state senator from Denver. Her husband is known as Mr. Helen Ring Robinson. At a meeting in the Woman's club both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson arose at the same time to address the chairman of the meeting.

"Mr. Chairman!" they both cried simultaneously. They stood side by side, Mr. Robinson much the taller and bigger.

Mrs. Robinson looked at the person who challenged her right to the floor and without waiting for the chairman to recognize her, she pushed Mr. Robinson back into his seat and proceeded to deliver a few remarks.

LOCAL FANS CHAMPING AT THE BITS

(By "Oscar.")

The rush toward the organization of teams for the city league surpasses so far any exhibition of baseball enthusiasm yet displayed in the city, and from a slant at the situation now one of the biggest meetings in the history of the game, locally, will result on next Wednesday evening when the bugs will convene in the city hall to discuss the situation.

Probably the oil mill men are the first to come right out in meetin' and declare themselves. The cotton men are designated as their particular prey at this time and a clash between the two teams is imminent. It may be staged as a practice game on Wednesday afternoon. As it may be postponed until Saturday afternoon, and yet again, it is barely possible that the oil millers can be induced to wait until the league is formed.

From the camp of the Rock Island class no great amount of chin music is heard, but it is understood that that organization will be in the running with bells on, to take all comers. The Barbers and Tailors are still as anxious for the word "go" as ever, while only this morning it was announced that the clothing clerks would cast their lid in the ring and issue a ringing defy. Even the humbled Typos are talking the proposition over with a view to representation in the league.

Brannon of the P. O.'s has declared that he will play ball, even though his organization is inclined to sit back and bask in the balmy breeze of a single victory.

The danger, as the situation sizes up now, is keeping the league down to a minimum number of teams. It is inevitable that the league would flunk if six or eight teams were allowed to enter the race. In that event some of them would be so weak that they would never finish the season, while some other outfit would grab the flag and run away with it. It's up to the "National Commission" to get 'em balanced and keep 'em that way.

With the bug having gotten a good start in the systems of so many players at the same time, it is expected that on tomorrow University park will present a picture on the order of a spring training camp for a couple of league teams. Already intentions of journeying to the park for a workout has been expressed by several and it is believed that the enclosure will be filled with a mixture of veterans and recruits tomorrow afternoon.
