ANTS

Lets take a little lesson from the busy little ant. Lets linger a moment close, but not too close, to a family of 'em and watch their antics. May resemble a miniature Marathon, but there's real purpose in their running, they are demonstrating that there is a little bit of brains above their biter, for their hurry-up business means they realize that now's the time to store stuff for winter use, and they are doing it. Natural history lessons over. Did you get the point? Then profit by it. Store some of our QUALITY COAL now for next winter. IT PAYS.

Education

A great people, being actuated by ideals of one kind and another, taxed themselves to the verge of exhaustion in order to make whistles out of pigs' tails. A few pigs' tails actually became whistles of a sort. Quite a number remained, after all, pigs' tails. But the great majority ended with being neither one thing nor the other. The great people clung to their ideals, however. "There's nothing like education, and lots of it!" they insisted.—New York Evening Post.

Watch Your Children

If you sit in a cold draft when you are heated and get a stiff neck or lame back, you will be looking for something that will ease the pain. Fix your mind on Ballard's Snow Liniment and don't be talked out of it because it is the best pain-relieving liniment you can get anywhere. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Owl drug store.—Adv. d&w

Tear Down—Build Up.
The old gardener was on his knees on the lawn, digging up dandelions. As he drew each long, slender root from the soil, he dropped something into the hole which it had left. "What are you doing?" said I. "Droppin' in grass seed," he answered. "Wouldn't be a shame, wouldn't it," he added, holding up a brilliant yellow blossom. "to pull up such a purty thing as this if you didn't plant somethin' better in its place?" Here is a lesson for the mother. If she must refuse some darling wish, or take away some hurtful treasure, let her not leave the little heart of the child torn and empty, but rather fill the void with "something better."—Mother's Magazine.

When you yawn a good deal in the daytime, feel dull, achey and want to stretch frequently, it is an unmistakable symptom of malaria, and unless you do something at once you are booked for a spell of chills. Herbine is a chill medicine that will prevent or cure the disease. It drives out the impurities on which the malarial germ thrives, strengthens the liver and cleanses the bowels. Price 50c. Sold by Owl drug store.—Adv. d&w

Easier to Spell.
Young Arthur, the pride of the family, had been attending school all of six weeks, and his devoted parent thought it was high time he should find out how things were running. So he asked, one afternoon: "And what did my little son learn about this morning?" "Oh, a mouse, Miss Willcox told us all about mouses." "That's the boy. Now, how do you spell mouse?" It was then that Arthur gave promise of being an artful dodger. He paused meditatively for a moment, then said: "Father, I guess I was wrong. It wasn't a mouse teacher was telling us about. It was a rat."—Harper's Magazine.

Constipation is the starting point for many serious diseases. To be healthy, keep the bowels active and regular. Herbine will remove all accumulations in the bowels and put the system in prime condition. Price 50c. Sold by Owl drug store.—Adv. d&w
