Seaton Has Bad Day After Being Out of Box Three Weeks and Fielding of Oilers Off; Score 12 to 7

The Rock Island had beaten the Oilers before the game at University park yesterday, but they had never beaten them with Seaton in the box. Seaton had not played for three weeks when he entered the box yesterday, possibly that is the reason he struck out his first two men up, let the next one get to first from being hit, loosened up a little in the third and let the Machinists get two hits and as many runs to tie the score, let them have only one safety in the fourth, but put them just where Bobby Wier's men wanted them in the fifth, giving them five hits and one less score, then hitting one man and losing five safeties in the next that ran the Rock Island score up to twelve.

The fielding support Seaton usually gets from Bert Siddons' men also was lax in yesterday's game, the Oilers making eight errors, every one of which was costly. Add to this the fact that Riley pitched fast ball and the Machinists fielded in good shape and you have the reason for the score of 12-7.

Ogan and Horton, starting batteries for the Oilers, held the Rock Island in the first inning to no runs, then Siddons and Seaton took their places and duplicated the feat in short order in the second.

Siddons was the first up for the Oilers in the second. He walked, went to second on a wild pitch then came home when Burton singled to left field. Burton, in turn came home when Poillard dropped the ball in a close play.

Rock Island tied the score in the first half of the next inning when Wier hit safe to right field, Riley went out when Seaton caught his little pop-up, then F. Tyrrell hit and Wier came in on Goldsmith's error. A wild pitch and an error let Tyrrell in for the second run.

The Oilers just advanced two more in the last half of the third. With one man down, Young got a double, Ogan hit safe, but made the second man down on a fielder's choice when Goldsmith knocked a little grounder to second, then Young scored on the play and Goldsmith chalked up another run when Lindsay let Siddons' grounder go past him.

This left the Oilers two to the good but the Machinists simply sewed up the game in the next two innings when Riley and Ed Tyrrell hit twice each.

The league schedule was late, broken by the rainy weather and announcement of next week's games will come later.

The tabulated score follows.

CUB FIELDER IS FAST

Williams is Said to Be Speediest Runner in the Game.

Work of Graduate of Notre Dame University in the Outfield Has Been Spectacular—Makes Many Unexpected Catches.

A new star has shined forth the Chicago baseball horizon in the person of outfielder Fred "Cy" Williams. This young man is a graduate of Notre Dame university and is said by many competent judges to be the fastest runner in the national game. He could have gone to Stockholm, Sweden, and taken part in the Olympic game, when Jim Thorpe won so many honors, but declined on account of his studies. Williams holds the record for hurdling and if a contest is ever put on for circling the bases he will surely be hard to beat. The other day he scored from second base on the squeeze play.

Williams is not entirely a stranger to National League patrons, but it was not until 1915 that he was given a steady position on the Cubs and has been batting over the 300 mark, and some of his drives are the talk of the western half of the old circuit.

During the training trip he made eight home run drives, most of them over the outfield fences of the various parks in the South. Recently he made the longest drive in the history of the new ball park at Cincinnati at the expense of Leon Ames, and there were two men on base at the time. In playing the outfield the work of Williams has been unusually spectacular. People have sat in their seats and fairly gasped at some of his unexpected catches. He covers so much ground that nothing seems impossible for him to accomplish in the line of catching flies.

Boland Lauds Manager Fohl. Bernie Boland, Tiger pitcher, predicts that Leo Fohl will be a success as manager of the Cleveland Americans. "Fohl was manager of the Akron team when I broke into professional baseball," says Boland. "He is one wise fellow. I think he knows a ball player about as well as any manager in the business and, for one, I will be surprised if he doesn't make good right through the season."

BEAUTY SPOT OF BULGARIA

Region That Has Combination of Charms Probably Unequaled in the Whole World.

A wide stretch of Bulgaria south of the main Balkan range is a region from east to westward to the sea. On all sides it is practically bounded by mountains, hills, stupendous rocks, passes, ravines and precipices, with scattered forests of walnut and chestnut, and other trees. Altogether it offers a combination of charms the like of which is probably not to be found in Europe, if indeed in the world. Through it meanders the slow Tundja, a tributary of the Maritza, the river that flows past Adrianople. The Tundja has its source in a gorge of the Balkans and flows for more than 170 miles through an almost unbroken succession of defiles, valleys and plains. Roses are everywhere. They have bloomed there for centuries, but never so profusely as during the last two centuries. At certain seasons the air is almost oppressive with the scent of countless blossoms. Rose gardens, large and small, lie in all directions, in the plains and valleys and on the hillsides. They present a medley of whites, pinks, reds and yellows, imbedded in a mass of many shaded leaves.

The trees and bushes—many of them brought originally from various parts of the Old World, India and Persia having provided a goodly proportion of them—are thrown together in wild, though happy, confusion. Roses abound, too, in yards and back gardens, on the walls of cottages and outhouses and along paths and roads. In and around this huge rose garden flourish, in well-kept tropical luxuriance, yellow gentian, wild lilac of various tints and many other flowers. Among these is the scarlet geranium, the favorite of the Bulgarian peasants. And all this is amid a blueness of sky, a wealth of sunshine and a wonderful purity of atmosphere.

Bravery of Briton is Rewarded were required to handle a box bombs. However, these were not men, and the thought of their comrades in dire necessity ahead of them, fresh heart into them. They crawled on and on, until just before they reached the end of the trench, Lal Singh emerged wriggling past, along into the open where they were met with an increased blast of fire. "Miraculously surviving this, they crawled on, only to be confronted suddenly by a small stream, which was too deep to wade. Across it lay the direct line to safety. The ordinary man, under such circumstances, would have probably stopped, but these crawled on and on in full view of the enemy, now at close quarters, until they came to a point in the stream which was just fordable.

"Across this they struggled with their valuable burden and in a few yards they were amongst their friends in our trench, both untouched, although their clothes were perforated with bullet holes."

For this bravery Lieut. Smyth was awarded the Victoria Cross and each of the brave men with him the last Distinguished Service Medal. The men in the regiment believe that Lieut. Smyth bears a charmed life, for he has had his cap blown off by shells five times, has had bullets through his clothes, and lately while lighting a cigarette, the match was taken out of his fingers by a bullet.

STATE FAIR AMUSEMENT FEATURE.

Dallas: New, novel and up-to-date, with splendid attractions as features, describes the Amusement Park offerings at the 1915 State Fair of Texas, which begins in this city Saturday, October 16.

C. A. Worsham, who is at the head of this big carnival attraction, has achieved a national distinction for producing clean, entertaining and wholesome shows.

Among the prominent ones for the State Fair may be mentioned the society horse show, where no less than seven trained and educated horses are the participants in a monster program, headed by Miss Estle Fay and her equine paradox, "Arabia," the horse with a human brain. Then there is the Hippodrome, the Mecca for all those who enjoy circus and wild animal acts. Here Mlle. La Rose, the Interpitr trainer of seven lions, will show them off to a real advantage. Other features will prove entertaining in the extreme and well worth seeing, whilst, in addition, there will be an extensive menagerie filled with strange and curious animals, reptiles and birds from all parts of the globe.

The auto stadium is a place where thrills will be produced at the rate of one per second. Here four riders, one of them a woman, Mlle. Marie, late of the vivandiere of the Chasseurs D'Afrique of the French Army, will drive high power racing autos around a perfectly perpendicular wall, flitting with death at every performance. Mlle. Marie and three other riders attempt the globe of death at one and the same time and their performance is hair-raising to a degree.

The Miracle Girl with Miss Etta Louise Blake in the title role is an exceptionally good attraction, devoted to mystery, mirth and music. The poses will be found to be most artistic, the singing and other spectacles refulgent, and the spectacle, "Pharaoh's Daughter," exceptionally interesting and worth while.

Among the other features may be mentioned Zetta and her tango queens; "Neptune's Daughter," with Miss Lillian Cooley, famous swimmer, in the leading role; the Philippine Midwinters; Princess Carter, a diminutive entertainer; A Trip to Mars; Crystal Tangle and Crazy Musical. Mr. Wortham brings to the State Fair a high-class musical organization—he famous Jatonson Band of forty trained musicians and instrumental soloists.

In other words the carnival end of the State Fair this year will be what it ought to be—well produced, well fitted and well managed.

Cavalry, artillery, air scouts and polo teams from the United States Army will, it is believed, form a big excitement in the race track infield during the run of the State Fair. This will be a big feature with visitors, as a splendid army program will be assured. The program will be entirely different from that which created so much interest last year. Artillery drills, exhibitions by the aerial branch of the army, cavalry drills will make a realistic war presentation that will be both educational and thrilling.
