M'GRAW WILL DEPEND ON HIS VETERANS

Great Things Expected of New York Giants' Pitchers.

John McGraw, Giant manager, says he has three pitchers on whom he can count for good work this season. Poor pitching put the Giants in the second division last season.

"Dope that Maltz is through and that some of the other pitchers who did not do well last season will not be good this year is not borne out by baseball experience," says McGraw.

"Rube Benton is one of the greatest left-handers in the business, and I expect good work from him. I also count on Perritt, Maltz, Tesreau, Schupp and Schauer."

WHERE BALL STARS SPARKLE

Scout Mike Kahoe Gravely Informs Umpire Evans Where He Had Seen Many Crack Players.

Late last summer Umpire Evans bumped into Mike Kahoe, scout for the Boston Braves, after he had returned from a scouting expedition that had covered a number of western minor leagues.

"Have you seen any stars this summer, Mike?" Evans asked.

"A lot of them," he answered. Evans' curiosity was aroused, for Kahoe, always successful in digging up young phenoms, evidently had picked up some new ones.

"In what league did you see them?" Evans queried.

"In the American and National," he answered without cracking a smile.

IS STRONG FOR DISCIPLINE

Percy Haughton, New Owner of Braves, Always an Advocate of Obedience to Training Rules.

Discipline is likely to be the watchword of the Boston National league baseball club under the direction of the new president, Percy D. Haughton, during the coming season. Haughton, as a Harvard baseball and football player, and later coach of the eleven, has always been a strong advocate of strict obedience to training rules, instructions and the playing code of whatever game he was interested in.

While it is not to be expected that Haughton will insist that the players of the Boston Braves will be held to the same degree of accountability that prevails in college football circles, it is certain that the new president of the club will insist upon an observance of all the rules recently laid down by former President Gaffney in his letter to the players, and may even go further. With Haughton as president and George Stallings as manager, it would appear as though the players of the Boston club will have to make baseball playing strictly a business proposition in 1916, or learn that a new regime prevails in the game.

NOTES OF SPORTDOM

"Home Run" Baker will receive $10,000 a year.

Spike Hennessey will open a baseball school in Salt Lake city.

The signing of Otto Merz gives Omaha six pitchers*it believes it can depend on.

The Denver club of the Western league has sold Pitcher Harry Gaskell to Sioux City.

Beals Becker, the outfielder, is trying to land a job with the Los Angeles team of the Pacific Coast league.

The New Yorks have drawn freely Connie Mack for players—Baker, Brown, Dalley, Walsh and Shawkey.

The Cincinnati Reds will play an exhibition game with the New York Americans, in some neutral city, on July 24.

With Meister and Meisner both on the South Bend Central league team, the scorers are in for a lot of trouble this season.

Manager Fohl of Cleveland declares that Fred Coumbe, the young southpaw, is one of the few players who work too hard.

The Binghamton (N. Y.) State league club announces the transfer of Outfielder Jack Blake to the Buffalo Internationals.

Pitcher Bert Larson, who was with St. Paul, Omaha and Kansas City last year, has been secured from the latter club by Topeka.

Arthur Irwin, veteran scout and famous player, has been appointed business manager of the Toronto International league team.

Columbia university will build a $20,000 floating clubhouse for its rowing candidates on the Edgewater side of the Hudson river.

The transfer of Charley Moll to Winnipeg has given "Shorty" Brautigam a chance to manage the Superior team of the Northern league.

The Cincinnati club has purchased from the Sinclair interests southpaw Helnie Schulz, who jumped from Frank Chance's 1914 New Yorks to the Burfeds.

Jim Thorpe, the famous Indian athlete, regarded as the best all-round athlete in the world, who is now a member of the New York National league club, has lately joined the ranks of the golfers.

The loss of Hellman, Corhan and Schmidt will leave a great gap in the San Francisco machine, but Owner Berry is optimistic and declares that the Seals will be even stronger than they were in 1915.

"Oh Look!

I can eat 'em all—they won't hurt me! That's because they're made with Calumet—and that's why they're pure, tempting, tasty, wholesome—that's why they won't hurt any kid."
