FEATURE HOUSE TONIGHT

"MARSE COVINGTON" Metro-Wonder play with Edward Connelly, the estimable character actor, in George Ade's picturesque romance of the Southland. Five acts, 297 scenes. Covington Halliday, a true southern gentleman, is possessed of one vice—gambling. At the age of thirty, Covington goes to war, followed by his faithful boy companion and servant, Dan, a black boy of his own age. When he returns home his father and mother are dead and he is the owner of Halliday House. Dan stays with him after his marriage, indignantly refusing to be set free. About twenty years later Covington, with his passion for cards and the race-track, is swindled by two adventurers. The rest of this is told in five big reels.

SATURDAY—"Honor's Altar," featuring Bessie Barriscale, the fascinating star, with all-star support. Thomas H. Luce production.

"Auto Humiliation" Keystone comedy. All-star Keystone comedy, with the famous Keystone cast.

MONDAY—Will have a Paramount feature Monday and Thursday will be Paramount days. My next Paramount will be Carmen. I will have a good feature every day next week. The very best. Matinee open 2 to 5 p. m.

"CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS HAVE DONE WONDERS FOR ME

"I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble for a number of years, and although I have used a great number of remedies recommended for this complaint, Chamberlain's Tablets is the first medicine that has given me positive and lasting relief," writes Mrs. Anna Kadin, Spencerport, N. Y. "Chamberlain's Tablets have done wonders for me and I value them very highly." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w

Sign of Convalescence. "You have a splendidly equipped hospital and a very efficient and charming corps of nurses. What I do not understand, however, is how you can always tell when a patient is well enough to be taken home from the hospital." "As soon as he is able to sit up and try to kiss his nurse he is strong enough to be sent home."

Again we must remind our friends that we positively will not accept "want," "rent" and "sale" ads by phone. Do not embarrass us by asking us to do so. DAILY EXPRESS.

The Quality Play House FIRST RUN UNIVERSAL PICTURES TONIGHT

VAUDEVILLE "Gilbert, The World's Greatest Hypnotist." Don't fail to see this great act. Now if you don't want to laugh, better stay away. The people liked Mr. Gilbert so well I decided to keep him over two days more. Tomorrow he will have one of our local boys out in the lobby riding a bicycle for a couple of hours.

"A HUNTRESS OF MEN" A Red Feather feature production in five reels, by Lucius Henderson, from a magazine story by Mrs. G. Vere Tyler, the noted author and authority on marriage and divorce problems. Mary Fuller, "The Idol of Millions," is supported by Joe Girard and Sydney Bracy. Miss Fuller has outdone herself in the dressing of this part. She wears a series of gowns which every woman will enjoy seeing.

SATURDAY—"A Fight For Love." Bison drama. G. Raymond Nye and Roberta Wilson in the leads.

To the Children. Remember tonight will be doll night. Everybody come. Will give five away. Save your coupons. You might be the lucky one. Have a good program also for you.

Matinee open 1:30 to 5 p. m.; vaudeville comes on at 3 o'clock. We give four full shows a day.

Nero and His Temperament. "It is said that Nero fiddled while Rome burned," Greensboro Watchman. That's the least harmful thing old rip-snorting Nero ever did. Outside of murdering several people, among them his mother, the worst practice he had, was to write poetry and make his helpless subjects applaud its reading. Petronius got along better with Nero than some others because he was tactful enough to appreciate the king's verse. However, after Nero turned on Petronius and decided to have him sliced up, Pete, after slatching his veins while in the bathtub, sent a cruel message to the king. He said he was dying, but for that he was compensated in the knowledge that he would not have to listen to any more of the emperor's bum poetry.—Montgomery Advertiser.

WARNING

We are informed that parties claiming to be painters are securing work from citizens of Chickasha by representing themselves as union men. Some show an old out of date book or card. Hence we request parties desiring to employ union painters and secure honest work to require that a card or book paid to the current month be shown.

AVOID SPRING COLDS

Sudden changes, high winds, shifting seasons cause colds and grippe, and these spring colds are annoying and dangerous, and are likely to turn into a chronic summer cough. In such cases take a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, a pleasant Laxative Tar Syrup. It soothes the cough, checks the cold and helps break up an attack of grippe. Its already prepared, no mixing or fusing. Just ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Tested and tried for over 40 years.—Adv d-w
