Complimentary to Miss Dwyer.

Quite the prettiest and largest of the social functions of the summer season was the party given last night by Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Linton, complimentary to Marjorie Dwyer, one of Chickasha's brilliant young musicians. The spacious verandas of the beautiful Linton home were most attractively arranged with rugs, settees and pillows for the comfort of the guests. Electric lights were shaded with Japanese lanterns and numerous electric fans aided the Oklahoma zephyrs in cooling the guests.

The interior of the home was a bowler of floral beauty. Gladiolas and roses carried out a color scheme of pink in the living room while golden glow harmonized with a yellow design in the library. In the dining room lavender and white predominated, purple and white asters combined with ferns in hanging baskets being most effective. The central decoration on the exquisitely adorned table, a huge black lacquered bowl filled with the white and lavender blossoms, was indeed beautiful.

Stationed at the door to greet the guests was Mrs. J. T. Aust, who introduced them to the receiving line. In line with Mr. and Mrs. Linton were Mrs. Linton's sisters, Mrs. Sullivan of Kansas City and Miss Nina Tully, and Miss Dwyer.

The pleasing entertainment for the evening was rendered by Miss Dwyer, assisted by Miss Mary Agnes O'Neil and Mrs. Harry Scott. Miss Dwyer's selections were "A Prelude" by Rachmaninoff, "Lieberstrum" by Liszt, "Waltz in A Flat" by Chopin and an encore, "Clair de Lune" by Debussy. The hearty applause showed the guests' full appreciation of the entertainers' accomplishments.

Miss O'Neil who recently graduated from the Morse school of expression in St. Louis, gave as her numbers, "The Witching Hour," "Jim, what Drive Maud," and Kipling's "If," all of which were delightfully rendered and warmly received.

Mrs. Scott sang "Love Has Eyes," and "The Greatest Wish in the World" in her usually charming manner.

Perfecting the color scheme employed in the dining room the delicious refreshments carried out the dainty lavender and white motif. Assisting the hostess in the dining room were Misses Leta Major, Marjorie Cochran and Alberta Smith.

Mrs. Linton presented Miss Marjorie with some beautiful stationery and the popular honoree was showered with compliments and congratulations on her musical ability.

The invitation list included over a hundred names.

Fan Tan Party.

The home of Miss Leta Major, decorated in Japanese parasols and thronged with guests in gorgeous kimonos, represented a scene from the "land of cherry blossoms" Thursday morning when Miss Leta was hostess at a Fan Tan party. Misses Lucy and Katherine Manton of Ryan were the honored guests.

Pictures of Japs riding in jinrikishas decorated the attractive tables and the guests were seated on the floor for the interesting game of Fan Tan. For making the best score Miss Lucile Dashner was presented with a blue leather Japanese card case, and a small Japanese parasol was the consolation afforded Miss Mary Blanche Harness. A pretty Japanese bon bon dish went to Miss LeVeta Jones in an all around cut. Ice tea was served during the morning and lovely refreshments were enjoyed at noon. The Oriental idea was noticeable in the refreshments, the ice cream being moulded into the figure of a Jap.

The guests were Misses Lucy and Katherine Manton, Alberta Smith, Lois Smith, Mabel Coyle, Marjorie

Dwyer, Katherine Huskey, Inez Lester, Hazel Owsley, LaRue Marrs, Helen Fox, Mabel Hill, LaVeta Jones, Carol Rice, Eliza and Melville Rice, Irene Ambrister, Thelma Rose, Joy Ringer, Faye Hollingsworth, Mary Ellen Haynes, Lois Horn, Marjorie Cochran, Frances Riddle, Bess Coyle, Katherine Duffy, Lucile Dashner, Susie King, Lavonia Neal, Rosa Chastain, Cora Anderson, Mildred Bullard, Mary Blanche Harness, Jenabel Base, Dorothy Gorman and Claudia Fay White, Mrs. Harry Hammyer and Mrs. John Major.

Mrs. Ambrister Hostess.

Prominent among the social affairs enjoyed by Chickasha's younger set this week was the morning party given yesterday by Mrs. J. C. Ambrister at the home of Mrs. F. M. Frey for the pleasure of Miss Irene Ambrister of Norman. Blind bridge was played at six tables and the first prize, a set of handkerchiefs, was won by Mrs. Lloyd Doughty. In an all round cut, Miss Genelle Halle of Oklahoma City was successful and received a pair of earrings, another pair being presented to the honoree. Mrs. Frey, who had graciously opened her home for the occasion, was the recipient of a pair of silk hose. Refreshments followed the last game.

Indebted to Mrs. Ambrister for this pleasant party are Misses Leta Majors, Lucy Manton, Mabel Coyle, Joy Ringer, Nell and Lucile Dashner, Dorothy Gorman, Frances Riddle, Marjorie Cochran, Alberta Smith, Marjorie Dwyer, Susie King, Claudia Fay White, Lois Horn, Fay Hollingsworth, Rosa Chastain, Inez Lester, Hazel Owsley, Mildred Bullard, Mozetta Larson, Lida Richards, Dorothy and Florence Stone, Olive Smith, Genelle Halle and Lois Smith and Mrs. Doughty.

Lawn Picnic Enjoyed.

A picnic on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson's beautiful new home Thursday evening was an occasion of much pleasure for a number of the young friends of their daughters, Josephine and Mary Lee. Each girl brought a picnic supper and after these were enjoyed dancing and games occupied the remainder of the evening.

Miss Josephine, who celebrated her birthday on that day, received a number of dainty gifts.

The party of picnickers included Elizabeth Johnson, Rebecca Williams, Katherine and Caro Bond, Frances Dashner, Phoebe Heffner, Jessie Stone, Imogene Merrill, Reford Bond, Egbert and Ellis Horn, George Dashner, William Griffin, Mike Slusher, James and Jack Cranwell, Shelby Ishler and William Bullard.

Miss Coyle Gives Line Party.

Miss Mabel Coyle was the hostess at a line party to "Peg o' the Ring" Thursday evening, the affair being given as a courtesy to Miss Irene Ambrister of Norman and Lucy Manton of Ryan. After the show the guests returned with their hostess to her home where refreshments were served.

Participating with Miss Coyle in the pleasures of the evening were Misses Lois Smith, Leta Majors, Melville Rice, Inez Lester and the honoree and Messrs. Joe Hart, George Dulin, Paul Hallam, Hubert Bryant, Cecil Courtney, Lucien Erwin and Henry Wootton.

The girls of the party remained for a night of frolic, and were served a lovely breakfast the following morning.

Mrs. Rose Surprised.

Fifteen members of the Presbyterian Guild surprised Mrs. Charles Rose very delightfully on Thursday evening of this week, the occasion being Mrs. Rose's birthday. The ladies met at the home of Mrs. Howard Miller, proceeding in a body to the residence of Mrs. Rose, where they spent a happy evening. The Guild presented Mrs. Rose with a set of ice tea glasses and glass coasters, and she also received a number of other pretty gifts. Ice cream and cake were served late in the evening.

For Mr. and Mrs. Talbot.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Platt invited a few friends and neighbors to their home on Friday evening of last week to meet Mr. and Mrs. George Talbot, who have recently moved to this city. The evening was spent quite informally on the lawn, a delightful treat being given the guests when Miss Elaine Decker rendered several vocal selections. Watermelons and an ice course refreshed the guests before their departure.

Screen Matinee Enjoyed.

A screen matinee at the Sugg was enjoyed Wednesday afternoon by a number of girls whom Mrs. J. C. Ambrister entertained in honor of Miss Irene Ambrister of Norman. Refreshments were served after the entertainment.
