

TO BE STRONG
TO BE LIBERAL
TO BE PROMPT

To serve its depositors well and truly, holding their interests identical with its own; to grant as generous terms as are consistent with good banking; to welcome the small account as cordially as the large one; to be satisfied with small margins of profit in its business transactions, and to give its customers a fair measure of its success, is the policy of

"Is My Bank Courteous?"

One of the greatest factors in the banking world is courtesy. All of the officers and employes of this bank endeavor to treat you with the utmost courtesy. We always have time to be polite. We extend a courteous welcome to you to become one of its many depositors.

The young man with the small amount of money receives from us the same courteous consideration as the man with a large sum of money. A courteous bank for people who appreciate courtesy.

SOCIAL WORLD

Japanese Dance.

Miss Marjorie Dwyer was the popular honoree at the delightful Japanese dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Smith at the Country club Friday evening. The automobile drive-way and veranda were lighted with Japanese lanterns and many open umbrellas were used in the ball room. On the mantel were large Japanese vases filled with cherry blossoms and in the doors and windows welcome chimes and bells were hung, following out the old Japanese custom. The programs were very artistic, the men's being attached to artificial cigars and when opened were pretty fans. The girls' programs were suspended from small Japanese fans. The first extra was a "firefly" dance, the lights being turned off and the girls wearing lighted joss sticks in their hair.

In the receiving line with the host and hostess were Miss Marjorie Dwyer, Mr. Charles Hill Johns and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Dwyer.

The Japanese idea was carried out in the refreshments.

Coleman-Hampton Parties.

Perhaps the most interesting social affairs of the week were the bridge and forty-two parties at which Mrs. Ben Hampton and Miss Margaret Coleman were hostesses, at their home on Chickasha avenue, last Saturday. Bridge was the popular game for the morning entertainment, while forty-two afforded pleasure in the afternoon. Mrs. Harry Hammerly and Mrs. Bertram Harris received silk hose for making high scores at bridge, and Mrs. J. H. Griffin was winner in the all-around cut receiving a box of stationery.

At the forty-two party Misses Laftue Marra and Helen Fox were also presented with silk hose for making high scores, while Mrs. Helen Cassell won the box of stationery in the all-around cut.

The house was tastefully decorated in "Black-eyed Susans" and the color scheme of black and gold was carried out in the ice courses. About eighty guests were present at each party.

Jones-Albert.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized last Sunday morning by Rev. L. L. Cohen, when Miss Regina Dorinne Jones, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, was married to Mr. H. R. Albert of Carney. The music room, where the ceremony was performed, was decorated in palms and cut flowers, and the bride looked very pretty in a brown traveling suit and accessories to match. Only members of the immediate family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Albert will make their home in Carney, where Mr. Albert is superintendent of the public schools and editor of the Carney Enterprise.

Auxiliary Meeting.

The G. L. A. to the B. of L. E. held a meeting of unusual interest Thursday afternoon in the K. of P. hall, making preparations for their school of instruction. After the business meeting refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. S. Blackmon and daughter Frances have returned from Colorado where they have spent the summer.

Dance for Guests.

A very enjoyable entertainment for the younger set was the dance given by Mrs. J. C. Terrell at the Odd Fellows hall Wednesday evening. The guests of honor were the members of Miss Margaret Terrell's house party, Misses Mary Olive Eskridge, Billie Quigley, Gladys Vincent, Ada Sweeney and Marie Freeman. Additional guests were Misses Frances Frey, Rebecca Williams, Ruth and Lola Burton, Phoebe Heffner, Katherine and Carol Bond, Isabel Erlich and Alma Lucile Cohen of Nashville. Messrs. Paul Hallum, Ellis and Egbert Horne, Cecil Courtney, Jack and William Griffin, Sam Gribb, Roy Norton, Hewitt and Thurmond Williams, Hubert Bryant, Reford Bond, Reuben Cochran, Lamar Mosley, George Dasher, Charles Hill Johns, Shelby Ishler, Wayne Hollingsworth and Ted Schlottbeck.

Entertains for Visitors.

Miss Margaret Terrell entertained very informally Sunday evening when she invited six of her young men friends to meet her house-guests, Misses Mary Olive Eskridge and Billie Quigley of Weatherford, Gladys Vincent of Alex, Ada Sweeney of Marshall, Texas, and Marie Freeman. The visitors were Messrs. Ellis Horne, Paul Hallum, Wayne Hollingsworth, Cecil Courtney, Hewitt Williams and Reuben Cochran.

Mrs. Terrell entertained the same young people with a line party at the Sugg Monday night.

Musicals.

Numerous parties are being planned for Mrs. John Light, a former resident of this city, who arrived Friday morning and is now the guest of Mrs. F. E. Riddle. The 1967 Bridge club has issued invitations to a musicale in her honor at the Country club Tuesday afternoon.

C. W. B. M. to Install Officers.

The regular monthly meeting of the C. W. B. M. will be held next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Barry. The newly elected officers will be installed at this meeting, and delegates to the fourth district convention to be held in Apache will be chosen.

Middle Party.

The first social event of the college year was the "middle party" given by the girls of the Y. W. C. A. in honor of the new students, Tuesday night. The evening was spent very informally with games and dancing. "Soda pop" was served throughout the evening.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. J. C. Terrell entertained Miss Margaret Terrell's houseguests with a line party at the circus Monday afternoon.

A business meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church was held at the parsonage this week.

Mrs. Will Melton of Oklahoma City will be an out-of-town guest at the musicale by the 1967 Bridge club for Mrs. Light next Tuesday.

Mrs. C. L. White and daughters, Jane and Jennette of Oklahoma City, were over for the Coleman-Hampton parties last Saturday.

During the absence of Misses Mary Lee and Josephine Johnson, Miss Alma Lucile Cohen of Nashville is the guest of Mrs. Lee Olive.

Mrs. H. B. Johnson and children, who have been the guests of Mrs. A. B. Merchant for the past month, have returned to their home in Corpus Christi.

Prof. Wm. G. F. Schmidt of Norman, head of the voice department of the University of Oklahoma, arrived in Chickasha today from Norman and will be the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Trawick. Prof. Schmidt will sing Sunday evening at the First Baptist church.

Short Stories OF THE TOWN

Good Price for Hogs.

Thirty head of hogs brought in from Judge Williams' farm one mile west of the Woman's college by Williams and Caldwell, brought the sum of $750 here today.

Mrs. Armstrong Better.

Word has been received from L. B. Armstrong from Ft. Worth, where he was called by the illness of his wife, to the effect that she was much improved and that they would return home in a few days.

Bringing in Corn.

"Corn is now beginning to move," said Public Weigher Lee McReynolds as he handled the weights for a wagon load this morning. Several loads of corn have come intoday but it is as yet too green for shipment. It is bringing fifty to sixty cents a bushel.

Judges at Fair.

Among the judges at the Alex fair today was G. S. Ferguson, who with Mrs. Ferguson was in Chickasha this morning. He is the son of District Agent Ferguson who is on the judging committees at Tuttle and Pocosset today but whose headquarters are at Lawton.

War Tax on Wire Talk Abolished.

S. R. Carpenter, local Western Union manager, and E. Curtis, manager for the Postal, were advised that the one cent stamp on telegrams was abolished by the new revenue act which became effective at 12 o'clock last night. The tax on certain documents was also eliminated.

Funeral of Isaac Hehn.

The funeral of Isaac Hehn is being held at the Methodist church this afternoon. Rev. G. Does it Pay to be Good?

This will be the subject of Dr. Lawrence L. Cohen, jr.'s, sermon at the Epworth Methodist church Sunday night at 8 p. m. He says he will discuss the fundamental ground of moral conduct, reviewing the history of moral ethics, and the unfolding development of the human race. What is "Goodness' after all? How does a man know when he has done a good deed? Is the symposium of "Goodness" found in the church? Should a man do good in hope of being rewarded? Should a man refrain from doing evil for fear of being punished? Should the idea of "reward and punishment" control the moral conduct of any man? We see the wicked prosper and good men suffer--how are we to reconcile this with the goodness of God? Dr. Cohen urges everyone to hear this address as it will furnish a clear grasp of the problems that constantly vex men and women when they come to decide upon moral issues and the great principles of life.

Mrs. Emma Gibbons of Wichita Falls is the guest of Mrs. Gardner of the Eagle Mercantile company.
