DARIO RESTA'S RECORD A THRILLER
(By Hamilton, United Press Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Oct. 25.—Dario Resta, the ferocious, devil-may-care Italian driver who has hogged American auto track records and stuck his fingers into the prize money of every country where they tear around tracks in high-powered automobiles, is just taking a breathing spell.

Resta, says he is getting ashamed to take the money and has promised not to enter EVERETT event in the future. He's going to skip a few to give the other boys a chance.

Resta hurtled into the limelight back in 1915 when he hit the high spots in New York. Prior to that he had done a few fancy tricks for the natives in France, Italy and England, and when he hove in view of the Statue of Liberty he was well fortified with a bank roll even if he hadn't scattered records on this side.

From Italy Resta snorted his intrepid way into England and he immediately dare-deviled his way to victory in three of England's highest class events. That was in a Mercedes, but he forsook his colors to climb a Sunbeam. This had no effect on his neck-breaking speed, for he went right on smashing records and won the Grand Prix at Amiens, just before the present European war broke out.

In 1915 he again began to dream of American gold and hid himself back to the shores of the land of plenty, peace and gold. He was in New York just a week and then he beat it for San Francisco, where he proceeded to win two events right in succession, the Vanderbilt cup and the grand prize, something unheard of up to that time.

Then he went to Indianapolis and engaged in one of the fiercest automobile races ever run and forced De Palma, another Italian, to the very limit to win. At Chicago he won the 500-mile event and established a new record.

Then they pulled off a challenge race at Chicago and Resta again nailed his colors to the mast first.

This year has just been one victory after another, including the big events at Chicago and Indianapolis.
In a championship series of races at Chicago De Palma was beaten in every event by the speedy Italian.

Chicago Grain.
Chicago, Oct. 25.—Wheat rose excitedly today to a bushel but the greater part of the advance failed to hold. World shortage of supplies had been rendered more acute by increasing crop damage in Argentina. The close for the day was weak at $1.80 to $1.80 3-4 December and $1.80 1-8 to $1.80 1-2 May, with the market as a whole 7-8c to 2c above yesterday's finish.

New York Cotton.
New York, Oct. 25.—After making new high records at the opening today the market became almost demoralized this afternoon, with prices breaking more than 45 per cent from the best. January contracts, for instance, sold off from 19.80c, the early high level, to 18.70c, closed at 19.00c, with the general list closing irregular and unsettled at a net decline of 39 to 55 points for the day.

Your Grocer will deliver

Bevo
A BEVERAGE

You've enjoyed it at restaurants and other places—now you want your family and your guests to join you in the same pleasure.

That's one of the joys of serving Bevo—to hear your guests say how good it is—then to listen to their arguments as to just what it is. If they haven't seen the bottle they'll all agree that it is something else—if they have seen the bottle each will have a different explanation for its goodness.

Bevo is nutritive—pure through pasteurization and sterilization—non-intoxicating, wholesome and thoroughly refreshing.

Note—Bevo should be served cold.

Get Bevo at inns, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, baseball parks, soda fountains, dining cars, steamships, and other places where refreshing beverages are sold. Guard against substitutes—have the bottle opened in front of you.
