

"So the People May Know."

At the request of several of its readers "the great moral and religious" republishes the platform of the progressive party of Carbon county, adopted in convention at Price, Tuesday, September 10, 1912, and which C. H. Stevenson, county chairman of that party, attempted to have the ADVOCATE SUPPRESS after the same was in type, and which the manager of The Advocate declined to do. Later, Stevenson withdrew his business from The Advocate, which, of course, is that gentleman's great American privilege, as it is ours to conduct this newspaper as we see fit. BUT WHY THE DESIRE TO SUPPRESS THIS PLATFORM, REGULARLY ADOPTED BY THE COUNTY CONVENTION OF THAT PARTY?

THE PLATFORM ADOPTED.

The progressive party of Carbon county, in convention assembled, concede to the democrats everything of accomplishment that makes up our nation's history from 1776 to 1860—a history that has discredited the farther spread of monarchy, and that has fostered the free republic in the unattendant continuities of this world.

We concede to the republicans everything of accomplishment in our nation's history that step by step has lifted us from the democratic simplicity of 1860 to our world's commercial sovereignty of 1912. The democratic party has given us a Washington and a Jefferson. The republican party has given us a Rockefeller and a Morgan. The people now demand that some part of the glory of the first and of the wealth of the second be more liberally shared with the one hundred million citizens who have made possible the existence of both.

In the call of the progressive party we see the promise of that demand. In its platform we recognize the means of its accomplishment, and we hail as their standard bearer, Theodore Roosevelt, out of whose battles for the "square deal" our cause is already nearly won.

We especially commend that plank in the progressive platform which promises us the industrial commission clothed with power to grip the middleman, who has the door of the manufacturer to the buyer of his wares. And we especially further commend that plank which declares that to dissolve the unholy alliance between corrupt business and corrupt politics is the first task of the statesmanship of today.

We believe that the railway pass and the corporation gift to a government official is the first step towards that unholy alliance, and we here and now pledge ourselves to nominate no candidate to office in Carbon county who will accept such railroad pass or such corporation gift.

With pride equal to that of a republican or a democrat we point to the great and small corporations of our county, and with equal hope we harken to the call with which our inexhaustible resources are beckoning to untold corporations yet to come, and we pronounce each corporation here and yet to come the equal good will of our party. If our present laws and rules are insufficient for the growth and fostering of our corporations, we promise them more and better rules and laws to that end.

We regard the property rights of our corporations as sacred as those of the people, and we will overlook no consideration for both that come within the law.

We claim that the people of Carbon county can look to the welfare of her corporations with more justice and disinterestedness than can the paid agents of those corporations, and we pledge ourselves so to do.

We accept in its entirety the platform of the progressive party of the United States, and we pledge the people a just and honest administration of its county affairs.
