

ATLANTIC FLEET ON THE WAY TO TAMPICO

Here are some of the mighty battleships of the Atlantic fleet steaming at full speed for Tampico. Rear Admiral Badger, the commander, has orders to bombard that port, seize it or take any other measures which he may deem necessary.

EIGHTH GRADE DAY

Public School Graduates From Every District Visit Price.

The following program was held on Eighth Grade Day at the high school in the forenoon:
Opening Song—America.
Invocation—Mr. Thomas.

It Is Nearly Time Now

When every mother is thinking about graduating dresses for their daughters and wish them to look their best. Come and see Madame Heinz and ask her suggestions.

MADAME HEINZ,

At 1:30 luncheon was served by the domestic science department of the high school.
At 2:30 baseball, field sports and track meets were held on the campus. The barrel and croquet race was probably the most interesting event of the day.
In the evening the eighth grades of the county were guests of the dance given under the auspices of Miss Hurst's gymnasium department. Refreshments consisting of punch and small portions of candy were served. The visitors expressed themselves as more than pleased with the hospitality shown them by the Price schools. Every visitor was taken care of without any expense to them.
The following schools were represented, with teachers and pupils:
Wellington: Hulon Johnson, Raymond Spillmore and Arnold Milner.
Storr: Prof. Stringham, Daniel

Henry, Brigham Livchby, Misses Gladys Robinson, Larson and Gibson.
Winter Quarters: Principal Woodward and wife, Helen Gilson, Louise Gilson, Clara Antzok, Ellen Hudvarsson, George Wallace, John Bradwell and Lucille Bowler.
Clear Creek: Principal Reynolds, Lola Gunderson, Van Gunderson, Isben Hill, William Hylta, Robt. Reynolds, Dewey Gilbert, Eulessa Sorenson, Clarence Lewis, Hayden Evans and O. Halberg.
Castle Gate: Prof. Sam Brown, Neils Christensen, David Evans, Lois Evans and Janet Crow.
Carthouville: Prof. Hill and Oliver Davis.
Helper: Professor Olsen, Kennedy Coe, Clifford Coe, Clifford Moore, Sara Reed, Olive Reed, Kenneth B. Wright, Nellie Warren, Louis Dork, William Flave, Veta Peery, Ruth Brown, Bertha Katom, Estella Hall, Lizzie Rejeris, Kate Curraera and Maude Crowley.

Do you know that the new anti-phlogistic liquid, A-theuca-line, is much easier to apply and remove than the clay poultice preparations and is quicker in relieving soreness and congestion in all inflammation conditions? As a surgical dressing it is both healing and antiseptic. It is sold by all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. When paying your subscription to our paper, ask for a $1.00 bottle free. We have it for you.—Advt.
