

EASTERN AND SOUTHERN UTAH

CASTLE DALE

CASTLE DALE, Sept. 11.—Funeral services were held Thursday at Dringville over the remains of Mrs. Thos. Jewkes who died at Rexburg, Ida., last Saturday of leakage of the heart, preceded by the birth of a son a short time before, her system being so weakened that she finally succumbed. Everything was done that could be done to save her to her sorrowing family, but it was not to be. She asked, just before her death, that she might be brought back to her old home for interment.

Lillard Tucker, the films merchant, brought his goods over and unloaded the same at the Miller store last Tuesday on orders from Sheriff Siderick, some of Tucker's wholesale creditors becoming impatient and forcing him into this action. The goods, which are of excellent assortment, apparently, will be sold by the sheriff next Thursday.

Alger Bros., the new proprietors of the Midland garage, report the inauguration of a daily automobile service to Price aiming to make connection with the 10:20 westbound train, making it possible to reach Salt Lake City the same day.

Kenneth Kahre and Miss Zina A. Woolf, teachers at the Emery State academy last winter, are occupying positions on the teaching staffs of Spanish Fork and Granite high schools for the winter.

Mrs. Ida Pizer of Mt. Pleasant is visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Day, and family.

Ranger Hans Wickman moved his family down from their summer home in Joe's Valley last Saturday.

Rex Barber made a sensational finish in the annual Rocky Mountain News Apache handicap road race at Denver last week, and although the first riders had ten minutes handicap over him, Barber lowered the world's record by forty-eight seconds. He tangled with a pair of riders and sustained a bad fall, losing about ten seconds, and a woman got in the way and delayed him once, but he crossed the tape riding fifty miles an hour.

Max Taylor of Moab brought over a party in his automobile Saturday consisting of his mother, Mrs. Lydia Taylor, Miss Babe Taylor, Clara and Dolly Davis, all of whom had a fine time visiting friends here and taking in the amusements Saturday evening. They returned Sunday evening.

Miss Olive Wilcox, sister of Carlos Wilcox, Geneva and Ione Shafer, Maud Miller and Grace Dunn all came over from Moab Saturday, riding in an automobile to Thomomson, where they caught the train for this place.

W. B. McCue, the grocerman, has one of the neatest and prettiest homes in this city, his latest improvement being to extend his lawn, parking beneath the nice shade trees outside the sidewalk. The new grass seems to be getting a good start.

Local express shipments are very heavy every day, but Monday evening was the record breaker for the week. In the neighborhood of nine thousand pounds of express being sent out, Eastern Utah towns are now enjoying the fruits of Green River Valley industry.

The fruitgrowers' association loaded out probably its last car of peaches this season yesterday, making four in all that have been shipped. R. W. Dufford supplied the bigger part of the shipments, most of his fruit being fancy and much of it but forty-eight seconds to the box. He had few small peaches. O. M. Connor also helped load out two cars from his orchard. J. W. Drake hauled load three cars and Edward Murphy two. John Hoar contributed a lot also toward the last car sent out, which went to Pueblo.

I. P. Bodier sold a lot of baled alfalfa to Jones & Cromer, who shipped it to Naden the fore part of the week. This is the dried car of hay that has been shipped out of the valley by this firm this season. It has only been a few years since nearly all the alfalfa here was shipped into the valley but now there is enough to supply the local demand and the coal camp as well.

Another very pleasant business of the past week was Miss Bernice Steele, who entertained Saturday from 2 to 5 o'clock. The occasion was in honor of that young lady's birthday.

Rex Barber returned Saturday from a long trip around the circle having taken a party of government men in his Chandler six to Moab, Monticello and thence across into Colorado on a distance. The trip was one of the most successful he has ever undertaken since embarking in the river business and it amply demonstrated the merits of his new car.

Several cars of Green River wheat, molasses will be shipped to Carbon county towns of late.

George C. O'Keefe and wife left Sunday night for their home in Kansas City, Mo., after spending the past month as guests of E. H. Olson and family of Price.

Mrs. J. M. French was hostess to about fifteen of the most notable ladies last Thursday from 5 to 8 p. m. on the Spanish damoise in Orchard Home. Reception was the occasion of the afternoon and social intercourse, several other pleasant occasions. A delicious dinner, French was served of excellence and well appreciated. Mrs. A. M. Wade and Mrs. G. A. Robinson were also present.

Mrs. Christine Taylor and two small boys spent Monday morning from 10:30 to 12:30 and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Miller until Wednesday morning when they went on to Oakland. One whom they will visit is Rex Barber's mother.

Miss Hilda Thompson returned Sunday night from Pueblo and Grand Junction, Colo. where she has been studying and lecturing some dental work. Miss Hilda Thompson who returned last week from there.

Ernest J. Peterson and family returned Monday night and spent the night at the residence of the mother and sister. They are all well and hope to be home in a few days.

AROUND GREEN RIVER

GREEN RIVER, Sept. 11.—The Green River Valley Fruitgrowers' association has been handling quite a nice bunch of local express shipments, but the officials complain of the unfair competition of individual shippers, who they claim are cutting prices shamefully and ruining what would otherwise be a good market for most all kinds of local products this season. The association is unable to swing but one car lot this week, owing to the rain and shortage of pickers.

Dr. A. H. Kaskowitz has gone to the Nine Mile country to receive some stock he bought recently.

W. E. Tomlinson and J. E. Warner came in from looking after the stock down near the mouth of the San Rafael and left again Monday as soon as it began to look cloudy.

Quite a fine rain fell Friday, which was badly needed. There has been only one little shower since May 15th. The river has been dry over three weeks.

The school teachers arrived Friday and Saturday, and the young ladies have gone to housekeeping in the A. G. Wimmer property, which they rented furnished. Wimmer and family will reside at the Roberts ranch.

Rex Barber made a sensational finish in the annual Rocky Mountain News Apache handicap road race at Denver last week, and although the first riders had ten minutes handicap over him, Barber lowered the world's record by forty-eight seconds. He tangled with a pair of riders and sustained a bad fall, losing about ten seconds, and a woman got in the way and delayed him once, but he crossed the tape riding fifty miles an hour.

Max Taylor of Moab brought over a party in his automobile Saturday consisting of his mother, Mrs. Lydia Taylor, Miss Babe Taylor, Clara and Dolly Davis, all of whom had a fine time visiting friends here and taking in the amusements Saturday evening. They returned Sunday evening.

Miss Olive Wilcox, sister of Carlos Wilcox, Geneva and Ione Shafer, Maud Miller and Grace Dunn all came over from Moab Saturday, riding in an automobile to Thomomson, where they caught the train for this place.

W. B. McCue, the grocerman, has one of the neatest and prettiest homes in this city, his latest improvement being to extend his lawn, parking beneath the nice shade trees outside the sidewalk. The new grass seems to be getting a good start.

Local express shipments are very heavy every day, but Monday evening was the record breaker for the week. In the neighborhood of nine thousand pounds of express being sent out, Eastern Utah towns are now enjoying the fruits of Green River Valley industry.

The fruitgrowers' association loaded out probably its last car of peaches this season yesterday, making four in all that have been shipped. R. W. Dufford supplied the bigger part of the shipments, most of his fruit being fancy and much of it but forty-eight seconds to the box. He had few small peaches. O. M. Connor also helped load out two cars from his orchard. J. W. Drake hauled load three cars and Edward Murphy two. John Hoar contributed a lot also toward the last car sent out, which went to Pueblo.

I. P. Bodier sold a lot of baled alfalfa to Jones & Cromer, who shipped it to Naden the fore part of the week. This is the dried car of hay that has been shipped out of the valley by this firm this season. It has only been a few years since nearly all the alfalfa here was shipped into the valley but now there is enough to supply the local demand and the coal camp as well.

Another very pleasant business of the past week was Miss Bernice Steele, who entertained Saturday from 2 to 5 o'clock. The occasion was in honor of that young lady's birthday.

Rex Barber returned Saturday from a long trip around the circle having taken a party of government men in his Chandler six to Moab, Monticello and thence across into Colorado on a distance. The trip was one of the most successful he has ever undertaken since embarking in the river business and it amply demonstrated the merits of his new car.

Several cars of Green River wheat, molasses will be shipped to Carbon county towns of late.

George C. O'Keefe and wife left Sunday night for their home in Kansas City, Mo., after spending the past month as guests of E. H. Olson and family of Price.

Mrs. J. M. French was hostess to about fifteen of the most notable ladies last Thursday from 5 to 8 p. m. on the Spanish damoise in Orchard Home. Reception was the occasion of the afternoon and social intercourse, several other pleasant occasions. A delicious dinner, French was served of excellence and well appreciated. Mrs. A. M. Wade and Mrs. G. A. Robinson were also present.

Mrs. Christine Taylor and two small boys spent Monday morning from 10:30 to 12:30 and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Miller until Wednesday morning when they went on to Oakland. One whom they will visit is Rex Barber's mother.

Miss Hilda Thompson returned Sunday night from Pueblo and Grand Junction, Colo. where she has been studying and lecturing some dental work. Miss Hilda Thompson who returned last week from there.

Ernest J. Peterson and family returned Monday night and spent the night at the residence of the mother and sister. They are all well and hope to be home in a few days.

ing out a fine product and expect to greatly increase the size of their plant next year.

It looks mighty dark over around the railroad yards since the city lighting system was put in, reflection from the city's lights being the only illumination over there. Maybe the company will make enough out of handling our big fruit crop to enable them to afford putting in a few lights later on.

Mrs. Thomas Ferguson and little daughter returned Sunday night to Helper, after spending several days here with her mother, Mrs. F. R. Riley.

Miss Loretta Waddell and a cousin of Mrs. McCarty came down from Price and have been visiting their relatives.

Miss Helen Spalding went to Salt Lake City Sunday and will spend the fall and winter attending college. She is staying with the Deans.

E. T. Merritt of Duluth, Minn., was a visitor from Sunday evening until Monday night, looking at the valley's big crops and looking under our electric lights. He is still as confident as ever of Green River's future and the Merritts still own extensive holdings here.

Mrs. Garn has been busy picking and marketing his big peach crop.

Dert Loper came up from the Colorado river after supplies, returning with a load yesterday morning. Dert has traded for other placer properties down there and has splendid prospects.

John F. Richardson and E. C. LaJone of the United States geological survey have returned from their trip down the river, having gone as far as Flagstaff, Ariz. Richardson went to Denver, Colo., and LaJone to Salt Lake City.

MANTI

MANTI, Sept. 11.—Superintendent Luke and General Roadmaster Fisher of the Denver and Rio Grande, went south over his branch Tuesday. They made the statement that the heavy rains would be laid between Manti and Maryvale by the 20th of this month. That should be the end of small engine troubles, which have been so prolific south of Manti, as heavier engines will doubtless be put on at once.

Mrs. Hayden and son, Blaine, visited in Mt. Pleasant during the week.

Lee Hall was a Salt Lake City business visitor the fore part of the week.

Darrell Hamussen came down from Fairview yesterday on a short visit.

Mrs. Ellen Cotton of San Pedro, Calif., is visiting at the W. W. Crawford home.

Mrs. L. P. Miller returned Saturday from a couple of months' stay in Fairview.

Miss Lila Harrison left Sunday for Highland, where she will teach the coming winter.

The out of town school teachers and students are coming in and add to the enjoyment of the town.

The ladies literary club held their last summer Kensington yesterday with Mrs. E. T. Hold as hostess.

W. M. Taylor was shaking hands with old friends in Manti a couple of days this week.

Miss Inez Clark came to Manti yesterday. She teaches in the Manti high school this year.

Miss Lillie Mellor leaves for Gunnison Sunday, where she teaches school this winter.

Mrs. Ernest Hardy, who has been visiting in this city, returned to her home in Salt Lake City Sunday.

The special number at the sacrament meeting in the south ward Sunday will be a solo by Melroy Kjar.

Miss Otelia Nielson left for Mapleton Sunday, where she will teach her second term of school this season.

Announcements are out for the marriage of Miss Zilda Cox and Mr. James Newby, a Salt Lake City attorney, next Wednesday, the 15th.

J. L. Bench, county surveyor, was down from Fairview in attendance at the meeting of the commissioners on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. A. H. Christenson came home from Salt Lake City yesterday. She had been attending her sister, Mrs. Ietta Neff, who was operated on recently.

Mrs. Emmaline Hanson and daughter, Miss Christie, of Salt Lake City went back home after a ten days' visit with relatives here, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma Johnson and children went to Salt Lake City Wednesday for a visit. Mrs. Johnson will continue on to Plymouth to visit her daughter, Kate, who they fear has typhoid.

The teachers of the South Sanpete district met in this city yesterday afternoon in an institute, which was continued over until today.

Judge A. H. Christenson and Reporter Frank M. Alder went to Richfield yesterday on court business. Judge Christenson takes Judge Erickson's place at Richfield while Judge Erickson sits on the Gunnison liquor question case here today.

Leliah Fjelstad and Misses Minerva Mace and Ione Jardsley of Gunnison came up to the teachers' institute which is being held in this city yesterday and today. Among others coming to the institute were the Misses Beola Gray and Virgie Winn of Lehi, and Florence Tuft of Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. A. C. Anderson and two little daughters returned from a trip of eleven weeks, visiting in LeGrande and Imbler, Ore., with a son and a daughter and other relatives.

J. D. Meyrick was down from Mt. Pleasant last week interviewing our sheep owners in the interest of fall dipping as required.

Mr. Gilbert Brox returned from Salt Lake City Wednesday where he has been receiving violin instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stringham and son Alton, Edgar Cox and Alice Peterson returned Monday from a two weeks' visit to Ferron. They went over through Manti Canyon, but owing to the heavy rains, returned via Helms Canyon, taking two days for the trip.

Mrs. Hannah Weaver, a sister of Mrs. (Dr.) Nelson, died in Salt Lake

MT. PLEASANT

MT. PLEASANT, Sept. 11.—D. T. Hanks and two daughters, Mildred and Wanda, of St. Angelo, Tex., stopped off at Salt Lake City en route from the fair and were met by John K. Madson and the party motored to Mt. Pleasant. While here Hanks purchased a cartload of fine eggs of Madson and they were shipped during the week to Texas.

Charles Asplund is home from the army service for a short vacation at his former home at Fairview. He has just recently returned from the Philippines, where he acted as quartermaster until he was promoted to first assistant paymaster.

Miss Nettie Beaumain entertained a number of girl friends at a dinner and theater party last Tuesday evening.

Miss Estella Olson entertained a number of her girl friends at a theater party to see Ibsen's "Ghosts." After the theater the girls were given an elaborate supper at the home of the hostess.

Miss Margaret Candland entertained a number of her girl friends last week at the home of her parents at a Kensington, dinner and theater party.

The Misses Florence Tuft and Neva Waldemar entertained at a lawn party at the Waldemar home Wednesday evening.

Leonard Everett of this city and Miss Millie Anderson of Merrill were married in the Manti temple Wednesday of last week. They were indulged a reception at the home of the bride's parents that evening.

Mrs. C. H. Clifford of Clovis, Calif., left Tuesday for her home on the coast after visiting with her brother, Charles Oldham, and mother in this city for nearly a month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brandt went to Salt Lake City Tuesday to accompany their daughter, Adeline, who is going to attend Westminster college this year. Miss Veneta Meyrick also went with Miss Brandt to Westminster.

John K. Madson has just recently returned from the East and Wilson, Ida., where he purchased a set of fine registered Rambouillet rams for flock headers for which he paid a fancy price.

Vance McIntosh came to Mt. Pleasant Tuesday with his little infant boy, Robert, who died Monday at their home in Payson. Funeral services were held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McIntosh Wednesday afternoon. President C. N. Lund and President Metz were the speakers. Members of the choir furnished sacred music.

Saturday night Miss Zilda Beaumain entertained a number of friends in honor of Leonard Olson of Merrill, who left this week for the University of Oregon at Corvallis.

John H. Bestly has been in Salt Lake City this week to attend a meeting of the state fair board.

Mrs. Roy Nelson returned to her home at Clear Creek Sunday afternoon.

Phyllis Hayden came home yesterday from Salt Lake City, where he has been engaged in music work during the summer.

H. L. Coates and family have moved from their summer home at Indianola to their home at Mt. Pleasant for the winter.

Vernon Clemenson and his sisters, Florence and Eleanor, have returned from the fair at San Francisco. They visited old Mexico while they were on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jensen have returned from San Francisco, where they were married a short time ago and spent a few weeks at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Mulling have just recently returned from the coast where they attended the fair and are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Anderson.

Mrs. Ernest Swalberg returned yesterday to her home at Gunnison after visiting with her mother in this city for a few days.

A. C. Candland and family moved yesterday from their summer home at Mt. Pleasant to their winter home at Provo.

Miss Ina Larsen has gone to Storr, where she is employed to teach school this year.

Otto Johansen of the Sanpete Co. Op and N. C. Johansen, one of our tradesmen, took a trip over the moun-

HANDSOME FOX SET.
From fox set consisting of muff and scarf is worn with heavy gabardine or plush gown and smart velvet turban.

WHY "THE SUN" GOES TO MANTI

The Sun's management desires, whatever, to be a newspaper upon anyone to whom it is being mailed at the place of the now defunct Utah Advocate want The Sun to do so. Just notify the manager. The Sun office by postal card or telephone or employ personally.

When The Sun was established it was a foregone conclusion that the Eastern Utah Advocate would soon be a thing of the past. Feeling that persons who paid their money for the Advocate are entitled to a newspaper, The Sun in many instances is sending them more than the Advocate for the time they have paid in advance for the Advocate.

In the litigation in connection with recovering the printing plant of the Advocate, the manager of The Sun was by Judge Christenson of the district court awarded the subscription list and mailing lists of the Advocate. The manager of The Sun is obligated, under those conditions, to see that former subscribers to the Advocate be taken care of.

Probably seven-tenths of the subscribers of the new Eastern Utah Advocate are friends and acquaintances of the editor and manager of The Sun. He anticipates that the greater portion of these will remain loyal to The Sun.

THE SUN'S ADVICE IS TO PAY NO MONEY ON SUBSCRIPTION ACCOUNT TO THE EASTERN UTAH ADVOCATE OR THE NEWS-ADVOCATE.

Walter Christensen
TRANSFER and DRAY.
Give us your work and we will receive prompt attention. No job too large or too small for us to handle. Freight is Given Our Special Attention. Phone 9592

The Sun

Leading Newspaper of Eastern Utah.

Publishes All the News of Price and Carbon County, the Best and Richest Territory in the State.

Send the Sun to your Eastern Friends. Let Them Learn About the Magnificent Resources and Rapid Development of This Great Empire of the West.

The Best Newspaper and Growing Better All The Time.

The Sun
PRICE, UTAH.
Everything In Office and School Supplies.