

Try Our Jitney Plan

When we started our JITNEY PLAN we made a jump that carried us far beyond anything we expected. Thirty-four have cast their nickels at the plan and all think it the best thing that ever happened. And how much more they will like it at Christmas time, with $10.50 to their credit to spend for anything in the store, and such a stock as we will have. Already have ordered it and we assure you we will have the latest and best.

Keep coming, we have plenty of the cards that will keep tab on your weekly installments.

Elite Jewelry Store Price, Utah

PURELY PERSONAL

—A. J. Lee was a Provo visitor last Tuesday on business.

—Leo Kinney of Mohrland was a recent visitor in Price.

—Joseph T. Farrer of Provo is here this morning on business.

—Mrs. Charles Averill is visiting friends in Salt Lake City for a few days.

—George A. Nixon was in Salt Lake City Saturday on business, returning Monday.

—Judge F. E. Woods and A. J. Lee were in Castle Dale the latter part of last week.

—N. A. Williams came down from Salt Lake City Wednesday evening on business.

—D. E. E. McKee of Salt Lake City was registered at the Savoy during the week.

—James McInerney came down yesterday from his ranch above Hunayside on business.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Geene were arrivals in Price Wednesday evening from Salt Lake City.

—E. Santschi, Sr., of Hiawatha was in Price Tuesday attending the funeral of Mrs. Angham.

—Miss Thelma Sutton returned last Sunday from Denver, where she has been attending summer school.

—Mrs. Isabelle Murphy is down from Salt Lake City this week visiting at the home of her brother, Thomas Fitzgerald.

—Miss Ethel Augustine of Salt Lake City is here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Engler. Miss Augustine is a niece of Mr. Engler.

—Mrs. J. B. Pennington and children were up from Hunayside several days this week on a visit with Mrs. Pennington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cobb and other relatives.

—J. Rex Miller and Matt Gilmore got back Saturday from a trip to the reservation country. They put in the time fishing and attended the Ute dance at White Rock.

—Mrs. M. G. Kennedy and two sons departed Tuesday evening for their home at Hardin, Mo., after spending a week at the home of H. W. and J. A. Crockett in Price.

—Miss Mildred Hamilton, Miss Milvia Zuffelt, Albert Hordley and Lloyd Woods returned last week from a trip of several days at Salt Lake City, making the trip by automobile.

—Mrs. A. G. Guthrie and children, Frankie and Lewis, left yesterday for Panguitch for several days' visit, going by automobile. They made the trip safely through Price Canyon, Lewis driving.

—Mrs. A. B. Robinson and daughter, Miss Annie, are here this week on a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson. Mrs. Robinson and daughter are on their way to Ballida, Ohio, from Salt Lake City.

—W. W. Goodman, Frank Turkin, L. E. Hills and Frank Robinson composed a fishing party that pulled out at Price Saturday for the reservation country. They went by automobile and are prepared to stay several days.

—Andy Coffey and Andy McLeann, mining men at Salt Lake City, were at the Johnson Hotel Tuesday. They are interested in Gold Mountain mining properties, and were giving the district an investigation.—Richfield Hooper, 29th.

—Mrs. A. W. Horsley and daughter, Laura, are expected home this (Friday) evening from Salt Lake City, where the latter has been for several weeks at the Latter-day Saints Hospital. The young lady is reported much improved.

—State Treasurer Jesse D. Jewkes was in Price Monday on his way home to Salt Lake City from a business trip to Emery county of several days. Jewkes is a candidate for secretary of state and it was this with other matters that brought him here.

—Mrs. Eugene Santschi Sr., returned to Hiawatha last Friday from Salt Lake City, accompanied by her granddaughter, Helen Bassett, who will make a visit with her grandparents until the arrival of her mother, Mrs. Bassett, who is coming down soon for a visit.

—C. E. Groesbeck, general manager of Utah Power and Light company, was a visitor in Price a few days ago. He and those accompanying him are quite satisfied with the work being done from Springville to Carbon. And, from Panther Canyon by way of Spring Glen on to Huntington.

—Mrs. E. M. Brown and daughter, Miss Flo, returned Saturday from a trip of several weeks to points in California. They visited Los Angeles, San Diego and other places and report a most enjoyable outing. Mr. Brown, who is in New York buying goods for the Golden Rule store, is expected home in a few days.

—Miss Edna Richelman, daughter of Mrs. Harry World, left Wednesday evening for Kansas City, Mo., where she will be met by Clifford Duke, formerly of Price, but now residing at Springfield, Mo. Upon their arrival at Springfield Miss Richelman and Mr. Duke are to be married, and they will make their home in the Missouri town where the young man has resided since leaving Price about a year ago.

—George Crosby, Jr., of St. Johns, Ariz., was in Price Wednesday on his way to Salt Lake City and the Dixie country on a visit, coming through by automobile. Crosby is judge of the superior court in his home county, having left Utah several years ago. While in Utah he was engaged in the newspaper business at Richfield, some eighteen years ago, having been connected with the Reeper of that city. While in Price he was the guest of his old time friend, H. G. Mathis. The Sun acknowledges a friendly call from the gentleman.

MAN HURT IN COAL MINE DIES IN PROVO HOSPITAL

PROVO, Aug. 1.—Funeral services for Domenico Calligari were conducted this afternoon here, the Rev. Father R. Kileen of the Catholic church officiating. Calligari was brought to the Provo general hospital yesterday from the Spring Canyon coal mine, where he received injuries by the explosion of a mine shot. He died last night. The deceased was 39 years of age. His parents are living in Italy.

THE BEST LAXATIVE

To keep the bowels regular the best laxative is outdoor exercise. Drink a full glass of water half an hour before breakfast and eat an abundance of fruit and vegetables, also establish a regular habit and be sure that your bowels move once a day. When a medicine is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are pleasant to take and mild and gentle in effect, obtainable everywhere.—Advt.

Run athletes bring results.

CONVENTION HELD AT CASTLE DALE

REPUBLICANS OF EMERY SELECT DELEGATES.

Although Not Instructed, It Is Generally Understood Majority Will Support William Spey For Governor—Pioneer Day Is Observed—Other News and Personals of Interest.

CASTLE DALE, July 28.—Delegates to the state convention from Emery county were named at the county republican convention held here today. The delegates are Archer Willey and E. B. Bennett of Castle Dale, Henry Thompson and Lewis Olson of Ferron, Alvaro Brinkshoff and Ham Jurett of Emery, M. L. Garves of Mohrland, Peter Nelson of Huntington, Frank Kilian of Orangeville and H. L. Cravat of Elmo. Although the delegates were not instructed, it is understood that the majority will work for the nomination of Governor Spey.

Castle Dale's Pioneer Day celebration was noted a big success by all those who attended—both the local people and those from out of town. Of the latter there were three big truck loads from the coal camps, principally Mohrland, and Emery's count seat presented quite a popular appearance with visitors and all. The morning's program was especially good, all the numbers being much enjoyed.

The bookkeepers of Emery county will take Ferron into themselves on Tuesday, the 1st day of August, when the "Honey Day" celebration known to have been held will be pulled off by the busy bee boosters of Eastern Utah—men who have placed Emery county permanently on the map in the matter of honey production of the highest grade.

Master Carlos Asay of Hiawatha, who is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Asay, is suffering a fractured arm, sustained the other day while riding horseback.

Quarterly conference of Emery stake will be held at Emery ward on Saturday and Sunday, August 11th and 12th, meetings at 10 and 7 o'clock.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bead of Orangeville, on the 23d inst., a fine baby girl. Also to Mr. and Mrs. David Jewkes—a bonny boy. David has been quite sick, but is improving now and all are doing well.

The Pioneer Day celebration at Orangeville was a complete success. A good crowd in attendance. The parade was just grand and the program all through the day was the same. To single out any one thing as being best could not be done, thanks to the hard work of the ladies of the primary and their assistants.

Jesse D. Jewkes, state treasurer, and daughter, Kathleen, came down to visit with local relatives and friends at Orangeville over the Twenty-Fourth.

Some of the Orangeville farmers who had hay yet in the field were looking down their noses after last Wednesday's rain.

The scarlet fever scare at Orangeville has just about subsided. Only one case is now reported and this one patient is convalescent.

Club Day at Ferron—an annual affair that is fast becoming very popular among the lovers of clean sports throughout the whole county—was held at that place last Tuesday, with a good crowd in attendance. The basketball game between Ferron and Standardville was won by the latter team, the score being five to six.

Mrs. Annie Nichols is making an extended visit with relatives and friends over the mountain.

Mrs. Mabel Peacock and family of Price are visiting with Mrs. Peacock's sister, Mrs. Orange Olson, and family.

Miss Hazel Acord is enjoying an auto trip upstate in the company of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Osterstrom of Cleveland.

Mrs. Larsen, an aged lady of Cleveland, died early Wednesday morning and was buried Thursday. She has no living relatives except one daughter at the mental hospital. H. P. Jensen, with whose family she had made her home for several years, came down from Bonanza to attend the funeral.

The Segs Lily swarm of Beethve girls met at the home of Miss Ramona Wall last Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served.

William J. Seely, deputy state auditor, spent the forepart of the week in Castle Dale going over the books of the officials of the county.

Joseph Stokes, who has spent the last eight months in a hospital receiving treatment for a crushed foot, returned home this week.

The children of Daniel Stokes of Cleveland were greatly shocked when word reached them on Wednesday of his death, as no word had been received since leaving here for the hospital. His son, W. D. Stokes, left at once for Salt Lake City, where he had the body prepared for shipment, and reaching here with the remains early Saturday morning. Funeral services were held Sunday with a very large crowd in attendance. Children surviving him are William D. Stokes, Mrs. Martha Alford and Mrs. Lucy Knight of Cleveland, and Joseph H. Stokes of Kureka. The latter also accompanied the remains home. Two brothers from Coalville and one from Ogden were also in attendance at the funeral.

Mrs. Cranor is around on crutches as a result of a sprained ankle received a few weeks ago at Cleveland.

William Eden of Cleveland expects to leave in the near future for a mission to the Western States.

Miss Emma Johnson is spending a few weeks with her parents before entering college.

Miss Winnie Lister of Cleveland is visiting in Helper with her sister, Mrs. Rose Hutchinson.

Charles Christensen and family of Castle Dale are visiting relatives and friends in Cleveland.

Thorothy Snow entertained a number of her little friends at a lawn party Wednesday afternoon in honor of her cousin, Masters' cousin and Leonard Pearson of New Mexico. The afternoon was spent in games and music.

Mrs. Harold G. Jensen entertained the members of the Bay View Reading club at her home Wednesday afternoon. The lesson on China was given by Mrs. Julia Baker. Those present were Mrs. J. M. Graham, Mrs. J. C. Baker, Mrs. Edmund Crawford, Mrs. H. W. Dalton, Mrs. David Williams, Miss Hazel Acord, Mrs. A. P. Snow, Jr., and Mrs. C. H. Pearson. Mrs. Jensen was assisted in entertaining by Miss Crystal Jensen of Mt. Pleasant.

Tuesday afternoon a number of ladies enjoyed a picnic party at the grove. The afternoon's program consisted of bathing, reading, singing and a number of interesting games. The ladies were Mrs. Stella Dalton, Mrs. Venetta Jensen, Hazel Acord, Alta Acord, Vera Acord, Crystal Jensen, Naomi Amy, Ella Asay, Jennie Seely,

New Fall Merchandise

Look for our new fall lines of up-to-the-minute merchandise. This Fall's purchases are the largest we have ever made and our lines are priced absolutely at rock bottom. Our customers from out of town are especially requested to make us an early visit. Customers are buying their entire line of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, etc., from us who live from ten to one hundred miles away. Our new Fall lines are arriving daily.

SHOES

We carry shoes for the whole family and without a doubt the largest and best line of shoes and other merchandise in the county.

Children's Vici Patent Tip Shoes with half double sole, low heel, good fitting last, sizes 5 to 8.
Golden Rule Price 98c

Ladies' Double Blucher Shoe with patent tip, single sole, built for service and yet a classy shoe.
Golden Rule Price $1.98

Men's good medium weight Dress Shoes, of gun metal calfskin. This is a special make shoe for satisfaction and style, in lace or button.
Our Price $2.98

Men's good heavy Work Shoes. These are absolutely all leather, triple stitched, black and tan, $3.50 values.
Our Price $2.49

Ladies' Silk Hose

Ladies' Pure Silk Hose in all colors, plain and fancy. They will cost you at least 75 cents a pair elsewhere.
Golden Rule Price 49c

MEN'S SUITS

Our new Fall line of Men's Suits are on the way and while this is going to press we expect them in, and you will be surprised at the low prices.
Only $9.90, $12.50 and $14.75

HOUSE DRESSES

Just received about three hundred new House Dresses, made of the best grade of Red Seal Gingham, light and dark colors, all sizes from 35 to 50.
Our Price 98c

Dress Gingham

A large shipment of New Fall Dress Gingham just arrived and now is the time to start on school dresses for children. Pick while picking is good. All the leading makes.
Our Price 10c

Lawn and Voile Waists

We have just received another assortment of Ladies' Lawn and Voile Waists, plain and fancy. The very latest, all sizes.
Our Price 98c

The J. C. Penney Co. Inc. The Golden Rule
125 BUSY STORES
PRICE, UTAH
Operating 125 Busy Stores

Hilly Day, Sara Hansen, Sarah Overton, Audrey Clawson, Naomi Kufford, Mrs. David Seely, Atlanta Berg, Ruth Lund, Fern Singleton and Norma Wood.

Several Castle Dale people went up to Ferron on Tuesday to spend club day at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dalton and Mr. and Mrs. David Williams motored to the mountains and enjoyed a few days of fishing and camp life.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Baker of Milwaukee, Wis., visited with Mr. Baker's brother, George A. Baker, in Castle Dale the middle of the week. They are making a tour of the Northwest.

Elias Erickson and family are at Cleveland visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Sadie Lamph and children and Mrs. Edna Snow and little son, all of Standard, are visiting relatives in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Day and family left Saturday to spend their vacation at Yellowstone National Park. They expect to be gone about a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Jensen entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dalton, Miss Alta Acord, Miss Crystal Jensen, R. E. Jensen and Harold Jensen.

Mrs. R. P. Snow entertained a number of friends Friday afternoon at a luncheon. The rooms were beautifully decorated with garden flowers. The social was given in honor of her sister, Mrs. C. H. Pearson of New Mexico, who is spending the summer in Castle Dale. Those present were Mrs. J. C. Baker, Mrs. J. M. Graham, Mrs. H. G. Jensen, Mrs. H. W. Dalton, Mrs. Ella Seely, Mrs. Edmond Crawford, Mrs. A. D. Keller, Mrs. Orange Olson, Mrs. A. B. Willey, Mrs. Moore, Miss Crystal Jensen, Miss Acord, the hostess and the guests.

THE MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM SUNDAY EVENING

At the tabernacle, began 7:30 o'clock, Sunday night the usual will hold a conjoint session. The lines of the program are temperance. Price is general speaker of some distinction to discuss the subject of prohibition from the standpoint of the law and will give facts and figures show why Utah should get on with the strong sentiment of people.

Opening Song—"In Our Day."
Reading—Miss Lola Bryant.
Cornet Solo—"Somebody's Calling"—A. Hargrove with his companions.

Vocal Solo—Mrs. Lillian Hill.
Piano Solo—Mrs. Edna Seely.

Address—"Prohibition"—from Salt Lake City.
Instrumental Duet—Moore and Bird.

Benediction.

CURE FOR CHOLERA BROTHER

"When our little boy was 1 year old, he was a baby he was cured of cholera morbus by Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. writes Mrs. Bidley, Secaucus, N. J. 'Since that time, my family has been free of cholera and diarrhoea, and I gladly endorse it as a remedy of exceptional merit.'—Outlook, where.—Advt.

MONEY IN LIVE STOCK

We are in a position to furnish Sheep, Goats and Cattle in large or small amounts, DELIVERED ANYWHERE and at prices that will please everyone. Being the largest dealers in Eastern Utah, we make prices to our customers that save them money. We also deal extensively in FARM PRODUCTS and pay cash for all that is brought in.

The Turkey, Honey and Pork crop will be a feature this season. We solicit your patronage.

ROOSEVELT COMMISSION COMPANY
J. M. RUSSELL, Manager. ROOSEVELT, UTAH

See our window display of beautiful and valuable things on sale Monday for $1.00 each, at Variety Store.

50,000 Population
An increase in two years of 100%
in the Uintah Basin.
Is Price getting her share of this new business? If not, she is losing an opportunity.
Let Us Help You Get It
Price-Uintah Basin Auto Line
Daily Passenger, Freight and Express Service.
Price Office, East Room Tavern Hotel.