

The Sun's display advertising rates are forty (40) cents an inch per line...

The Sun

Volume 6, Number 30.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Week Ending December 17, 1920.

When a fellow reaches the point where he has one foot in the grave he should repent of his sins—and pull it out.

UTAH MINES WORKING BETTER THAN EIGHTY-FOUR PER CENT WITH CAR SITUATION EASIER

Correspondence The Sun.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13.—Recovering from the Thanksgiving Day depression, the production of soft coal during the week of December 4th rose to a new maximum for the year... of the great strike—numbered only a hundred and forty-nine cars, and in 1918 the total was 2300 cars. A slight increase marked production in the Northern and Middle Appalachian region...

The tonnage handled over tidewater piers during the week ended December 5th amounted to 1,110,000 net tons. Compared with the preceding week, this was an increase of seventy-six thousand tons.

PRICE TO CASTLE GATE CUT OUT BY THE STATE

Utah's state road commission on last Tuesday decided to close down all maintenance work, the theory being that there are very few places where such can be continued with any profit from now on.

LATUDA MINER TOO MUCH FOR COARSE PICKPOCKET

Martin Silk, a miner at Latuda up Spring Canyon, was boarding a street car at the Denver and Rio Grande depot at Zion last Saturday afternoon when his pocket was picked by a fellow afterwards giving the name of Edward Collins, 24 years of age.

LIVING IN BUSINESS WORLD, KNOW NEWS OF BUSINESS

Yes, everyone. You may think you have nothing to do with business, but you are mistaken. Every time you buy food for your table or a necktie or a gallon of gasoline or a book—your life touches the circles of business.

December 31st the present board of county commissioners will hold its last meeting. Considerable unfinished business will be attended to that cannot be shovelled on to the incoming one.

GIFTS AND GIVERS

By REV. RALPH C. JONES, Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Price, Utah.

The road turns, and we meet again at the universal milepost of time, the period when the Christian world will be glad and generous—when multiplied thousands of gifts will be given and received.

Admire our Yuletide joys over human gifts and givers let us not forget the Divine gift, the Christchild, God's love gift to the world—a gift that is indescribable and ineffable, beyond human conception and earthly estimation and is therefore precious above all things.

He will never grow old. He is the fairest among ten thousand, and the One altogether lovely. He is the Rose of Sharon, the bright and morning star. He stands amid the wreck of empires and earthly systems.

An unerring providence, coupled with unavoidable circumstances will prevent many of us from giving rare and costly gifts to those we love, but for them and the multitudes that through life's great thoroughfare, who are hungry for human sympathy and heart love,

WE CAN break the alabaster box of our hearts' richest affections and fondest wishes.

WE CAN tell them of happy days hid in the halls of sweet memory.

WE CAN say my life without you could never have been complete.

WE CAN say you were a good chum, and a part of the best days I've had.

WE CAN say you are akin to and mixed up with the sweetest memories that I cherish.

WE CAN say my thoughts and my prayers always enfold you.

WE CAN crowd up close to their hearts and say: "To me you will always be just Jolly Jim and Modest Mary."

Steadily and surely the rising and falling of the tide has marked off our days and brought us to another milestone on life's weary pilgrimage. The road has led us on by many devious ways to the end of another year, and with reverent hearts and thoughtful we wait where the road turns.

Standing on the threshold of a new year we turn, as the road turns, which may lead up the hill or down, and as we wait at the turning let us hope and devoutly pray that the road's last turn will be the best, and that our earthly pilgrimage will bring us at last to that City not made with hands, eternal in the heavens, where, though far apart today, we shall meet again—and rest.

When your weary feet have reached at last their tollhouse it will be in your hand the precious GIFT of your best and truest friend— "Come and live."

Price, Utah, Dec. 14, 1920.

LOWER CLOTHING PRICES IN NEW YORK PREDICTION

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Lower prices for spring clothing will result from action of local manufacturers in placing their shops on the piece work system, William Barker, president of the New York Clothing Manufacturers' association, predicted today.

LOCAL PEOPLE GIVEN BAD CHECKS BY COLORADO MAN

J. Hildebrand, bad check artist who blew into Price a few weeks ago, was arrested at Salt Lake City the other day at the request of Sheriff Thomas P. Kelter, brought back here and lodged in the county jail.

MADSEN PLANTS MANY FISH; BEAVERS DOING BIG DAMAGE

Neil M. Madsen, accompanied by Mrs. Madsen, got back to Price Sunday last after a trip of several days up at Scofield, their former home. While away Madsen, as district game warden, planted some three hundred thousand trout in the streams west of Price.

FATALLY INJURED.

Caught beneath falling timbers and earth while pulling props under contract work with the Standard Coal company in its mine at Standardville, Gust Turen was fatally injured last Sunday.

SHEEP CASES ON TUESDAY, NEXT

Judge Christensen Likely to Hear "Em" At Salt Lake City.

Judge George Christensen yesterday afternoon informed The Sun that the Colorado and Utah sheep injunction cases as to compulsory dipping will most likely be heard by himself at Salt Lake City next Tuesday, instead of on Monday.

AMMERMAN TO PENNSYLVANIA

L. H. Ammerman, manager of the J. C. Penney Co. store at Price for the past twelve months, leaves this city the first of the year for Coatsville, Pa., where he will open a new store.

Takes Third Interest and Management of New Penny Store.

L. H. Ammerman, manager of the J. C. Penney Co. store at Price for the past twelve months, leaves this city the first of the year for Coatsville, Pa., where he will open a new store. His location is a city of about twenty-five thousand people and one of the exceptionally good towns of the Keystone State.

DEDICATION OF NEW ORGAN

Tabernacle Instrument One of the Grandest in All America.

An organ recital will be given in the tabernacle at Price during the Christmas holidays. The exact date will be December 29, 1920. To all lovers of good music this should be a great treat, as this is the largest organ south or east of Salt Lake City.

FORMER PRICE RESIDENTS MOURN ONLY DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Miles arrived in Price on Wednesday afternoon last with the remains of their oldest child and the only daughter in the family, Moenia, who passed away at the family home near Orville, Cal., on Saturday last of erysipelas.

RIG AND TOOLS ARE ON THE WAY HERE FOR THE OHIO

The Ohio Oil company, a subsidiary of the Standard, has coming to Price for its operations over near Huntington two cars of piping and a rig capable of going to a depth of five thousand feet. Drilling is to be started there just as soon as the machinery is on the ground and ready to bore.

HELPER MURDER TAKES UP TIME OF COURT AT PRICE

HARD FIGHT BEING MADE FOR THE DEFENDANT.

New Looks As Though the Trial Will Last Through This Week and Well Into Next—Man Forfeiting Bond Some Four Or Five Years Ago Back With Sheriff Kelter As Bond.

Most of the time since last Monday in district court at Price has been given over to the trial of James Ferrera from Helper, charged with the murder there the first of last August of Joe Scarbo, alias Joe Rossi. Numerous witnesses have been examined. The case promises to last all the week and may run into next.

Andrew Pettitt was taken into custody this week by Sheriff Thomas P. Kelter. He is permanently stopping at the county jail. Some four or five years ago Pettitt left this part of the country, forfeiting his bond after being charged with grand larceny.

State of Utah vs. Frank Williams and Nelson Brown, convicted of robbery. They lived ninety dollars from Gio Ubezis at Helper last September and are to serve not less than five years under the indeterminate statute.

Jenn Keenler vs. Joe Galtbird; suit on note. Judgment against defendant for $1092 and interest amounting to a hundred and twenty-five dollars.

Mattie C. Farley vs. James P. Farley, divorce, $2000 and separate maintenance, seventy-five dollars per month alimony, household goods and custody of minor boy.

Zina Johnson vs. James T. Johnson; divorce. Plaintiff is given interlocutory decree, the custody of six minor children, seventy-five dollars a month alimony and court costs.

CARBON COUNTY MINER IS CALLED AT SPANISH FORK

William E. Edwards, an oldtime resident of Scofield and Winter Quarters and one of the early pioneers of Eastern Utah, died at his home at Spanish Fork last Tuesday of cancer of the stomach. He had been a sufferer from it for more than a year. Deceased was born in Wales some sixty-eight years ago, emigrating to America in 1881. With his family he first settled at Spanish Fork, but later moved to Scofield, where he engaged in mining with the Utah Pacific and the Pleasant Valley Coal companies. Later he was forced to give up this work and went back to Spanish Fork. For a long time at Scofield Mr. and Mrs. Edwards conducted the boardinghouse there for the latter company. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Thomas Edwards of Salt Lake City and William Edwards of Clear Creek; three daughters, Mrs. William Street of Scofield, Mrs. D. J. Rowe of Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Victor Hain of Peoria. He also is survived by sixteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Two brothers also survive, Thomas Edwards, of the Peoria coal mines and Edward Edwards of Provo. Funeral services were held at Spanish Fork last Wednesday with interment there.

NEW CERTIFICATES.

Announcement was made last Monday through the federal reserve bank of a new offering of treasury certificates, which will bear interest at 5.75 per cent and will run for six months. In addition to the above, an issue of year certificates, due December 15, 1921, was offered, to bear 6 per cent interest. The federal reserve bank of San Francisco is offering these says: "Owing to the heavy oversubscription and early closing of the subscription books to the last issue of certificates, many investors were disappointed."

For that good printing, The Sun.