The opera house last evening was a scene of gaiety. It was crowded with happy dancers, the occasion being a select student's ball given by the poly-sophical society of the Brigham Young academy. Among the honored guests of the evening were Presidents George Q. Cannon, David John, Edward Partridge and other church dignitaries. It was a handsome crowd, the ladies were most bewitching. It was a common expression among those of Provo's citizens who usually attend the academe dances that never was there as good looking, happy, intelligent a crowd of students in attendance at the school as there is this year.

The dance last night was a decided success. All the old innocent and harmless dances were called, but few round dances were given. Presidents Rydack and Horne of the society, who managed the dance, are deserving of unstinted praise for the excellent manner in which they conducted everything. They succeeded admirably in making all feel at home and have a good time.

PRESIDENTS Woodruff, Cannon and party are visiting and fishing at Madison on the lake shore today.

JOHN M. HARRISON, who lost his democracy, the best part of him, when he left Provo and moved to Millard county, is visiting the city on legal business. He was a participant in the dance at the opera house last evening.

THE cry from all parts of the territory is for Judge Henderson. The judge is an apostle to democrats and a terror to republicans. Protection, hard times, centralized government, sophistries melt away under his irresistible logic and clear exposition like snow beneath a July sun.

DISPATCH readers will remember the telegram from Kanosh published in these columns recently wherein was announced the discovery of the remains of a boy thought to be Mack Peck of this city. The Tribune this morning says that Sidney Reeves, a Salt Lake boy, is missing, and that some bits of the remains found near Kanosh are the remains of this boy. Sidney left his home, near the mouth of Little Cottonwood, some time before the discovery of this body, went south and has not been heard from since. The description of the body found tallies with that of Sidney, and Jack Reeves, his brother, has gone to Kanosh for the purpose of ascertaining whether the unfortunate lad who lost his way and succumbed to exposure was his brother.

JOSEPH OLSEN appeared before Justice Wedgwood at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Serine Conral, who complains that Joseph assaulted him was also there. The justice dismissed the case and told the parties to go home and behave themselves. The affair that brought out the complaint and arrest was nothing more than a little family trouble that has already blown over.

MR. J. M. MURRAY of Ogden, the traveling sewing machine agent who miraculously escaped from instant death two months ago when he fell three stories from his room window in the Ogden building, and broke only his high bone, is rapidly recovering. He will be around on his new catches on Monday next.

THUS were received in Provo from Washington today four of the pamphlets containing the authentic statistics on the wool question compiled by republican officials under Harrison, referred to in Governor Osborne's letter published in THE DISPATCH some weeks ago. Jas. T. McEwan interested himself in the matter, and wrote to the secretary of the state for them.

Catarrh

in its Worst Form

Life Almost a Burden

A Glorious Change Due Solely to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. C. King, Geneva, Ohio.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease, and therefore it can only be cured by a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read what it did for Mrs. King, concisely expressed in her own voluntary words:

"O L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Gentlemen—From a grateful heart I write what your grand medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me. Five bottles cured me of catarrh in its worst form. I think it was only a matter of time, when it would have ended in Bronchial Consumption.

I can scarcely realize wherein a few months ago I was almost a burden, sick and discouraged, what an Well and happy, gaining flesh and a new being. And all owing to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I will never be without it. Yours gratefully, MRS. CLARK KING, Geneva, Ohio.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache and constipation. 25c.
