Terrible Accident at Lehi.

[Special to THE DEMOCRAT.] This afternoon at about 4:30 o'clock Harold, the little 8-year-old son of Hannah and Wm. E. Backer, met with a terrible accident. He was riding his almost instant death had rode down to the sugar factory on a load of beets with a young man named James Grace. The beets had just been weighed (weighing a little over 6900 pounds) when the little fellow went to get off and the horses started, throwing him under the wagon, the wheels passing over his breast. He was picked up unconscious and in less than five minutes life was extinct. His father, who is superintendent of the Co-op. store, was in Salt Lake at the time of the accident. S. W. R. LEHI, Oct. 21, 1898.

A Sad Death.

The funeral of Miss Loretta Whitney was held in Alpine last Wednesday. The young lady died in the hospital in Salt Lake and the remains were brought down to Alpine by Dr. Talmage, who presided at the funeral. Miss Whitney was 22 years of age, born and raised in Alpine, and leaves many friends to mourn her untimely death.

Utah Sorosis.

A pleasant session of Utah Sorosis was held in their club room Wednesday afternoon. The following program was given:

A description of the three orders of Greek architecture, Doric, Ionic, Corinthian, also views and diagrams of Greek temples, by Miss Bachman. Parliamentary drill was conducted by Mrs. King.

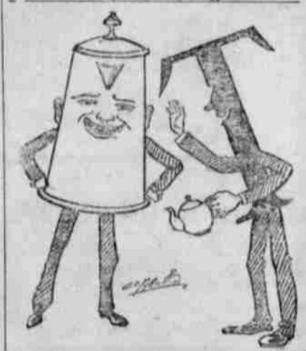

In the mothers' section a very instructive talk was given by Mrs. Craig on the "Individuality of Children." After a short discussion by the members the Club adjourned. The Club is planning to give a "Mysterious Party" in Southworth's hall on Halloween night.

Sons and Daughters of the Pioneers.

A meeting of the Sons and Daughters of the Pioneers, which was organized last July, was held last evening. Committees were appointed to arrange for the entertainment proposed to be given to the balance of the county organizations next Saturday.
