

CALDWELL, IDAHO, APRIL 28, 1888.

—Ask Negley what he knows about beets. —The Chinamen are already selling vegetables. —Isham & Co. have a fine bunch of bananas.

—See that elegant bed lounge at Hoover's. It is grand. —Another invoice of parasols just received at Gwinn's.

—There is talk of a henery being started here this spring.

—Miss Ramsey, of Sucker Creek, was in town this week.

—Don't forget that Isham & Co. have a fine line of wall paper.

—Carpets, window shades, trunks and valises for sale at Gwinn's.

—Isham & Co. have a fine line of wall paper. Call and see it.

—Wm. Tallas, sheepman of Sucker, reports sheep never better.

—Cheapest place in Idaho for hardware and tinware at Gwinn's.

—Boise City is going to make some great improvements this year.

—Settings of fine Plymouth Rock eggs for sale at the Strahorn ranch.

—Well, yes, we have got a few rolls of wall paper," say Isham & Co's.

—Have you seen the large assortment of ladies dress goods at Gwinn's?

—Mrs. M. B. Gwinn and Miss Jessie Sullivan were Boise visitors last Tuesday.

—B. Shipley, the champion butter maker of Idaho, was in town Wednesday.

—Mayor Peley, of Boise, added dignity to our streets last Saturday evening.

—Blank books, stationery of all kinds, drugs, etc., at Little & Blatchley's.

—Mrs. Mohr's Hotel boasts of one of the best cooks in the west in the person of Grover Smith.

—Who said Isham & Co. have not got as fine a stock of wall paper as can be found anywhere?

—Hoover is doing the grand in the furniture business. Go down and see his immense new stock.

—We don't claim to carry all the wall paper in Idaho, but we have some very elegant designs, Isham & Co.

—Montie B. Gwinn and Robt. E. Strahorn were kidnapped by Tebbets and Ressegue and born away in their private car last Thursday.

—Read the advertisement of Ellsworth & Spofford, Boise City, Idaho. You may find it to your advantage to correspond with them.

—Jud. Boyakin, of the Idaho Democrat, whose very name is a synonym of truth, says Uncle Daniel Bacon will move the Republican to Nampa.

—Supt. Ressegue was in town last Thursday. Mr. Ressegue is gaining many laurels as superintendent of the Idaho division. He is well liked by all.

—The Odd Fellows at Weiser celebrated last Thursday in a befitting manner. Grand Master Bradley took part in the ceremonies. They did the grand at Weiser, sure.

—A lodge of the Knights of Labor was organized here last Saturday night, at the school house, by a delegation of Knights from Boise. We have been unable to get the particulars.

—The remainder of Isham & Co's soda fountain has at last been shipped and will soon arrive and be put in place. A strike among the marble polishers has been the cause of the delay, but it will now come through in great shape.

—In consequence of winter diet and lack of open air exercises, the whole physical mechanism becomes impaired. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy, in the spring of the year, to strengthen the appetite, invigorate the system, and expel all impurities from the blood.

—The citizens of Ontario have engaged the services of Mr. W. J. Cuddy to aid them in their efforts to revive their newspaper—the New Atlas. The people of Ontario will find Mr. Cuddy to be a thorough gentleman and a master printer.

—Little & Blatchley have the finest line of garden and field seeds ever seen in Idaho. Their stock comprises a full and complete variety of both the famous E. J. Bowen and D. M. Ferry test seeds, the best brands in the world. Call and see them.

—Little & Blatchley are receiving wall paper. It is almost incredible the vast amount of wall paper already handled by this enterprising firm, and yet the trade has hardly begun. Mr. Little says he will venture the assertion that they have ordered the largest invoice of wall paper ever shipped to Idaho. Call around and see it.

—The TRIBUNE is indebted to J. S. Tebbets, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Union Pacific Railway Company, for a very pleasant call. The TRIBUNE has got Mr. Tebbets sized up as a rustler from Rustleville, and since he ever concluded to quit the U. P., there will always be a position open for him on this great moral weekly.

—Everyone who intends to re-paper their homes this spring, should examine the immense stock of wall paper of Little & Blatchley. Their immense stock must be seen to be appreciated. They are sure to suit you, as their great variety consists of every grade and style. Do not purchase your wall paper before examining their stock.

—Will Bacon has been very sick for a few days.

—Col. C. A. Hand is rusticating at Bonanza Ranch this week.

—Mr. Conner of Lower Boise, has a daughter lying very low with quick consumption.

—Hoover will sell you anything in the furniture line at a very low price. Call on him.

—Mrs. Neth of Middleton, has been having a severe attack of erysipelas during the week.

—There must be a "Jonah" in the valley, who prevents rain. Feed him to the Boise river fishes.

—Hoover has the finest stock of bed room sets ever seen in the town. Go down and examine his stock.

—Mr. and Mrs. Rowland of Lower Boise, recently from Iowa, have both been indisposed since their arrival.

—Sam. D. Hartkopf and wife visited friends near Weiser last week. Sam. says they had a most enjoyable trip.

—The great and only original Kemp van Ee was a Caldwell visitor last Sunday. He left Monday for New York.

—C. Baird, of Ola, and W. R. Beck, of Horse Shoe Bend, were in town this week. There is no limit to Caldwell's trade.

—Col. Meacham came up from the Sebree ditch last Wednesday. The Colonel says he is nearing the "beginning of the end."

—All our sister towns are talking Fourth of July. What is Caldwell, the liveliest of them all, got to offer on the subject.

—J. V. Parker, one of the U. P.'s leading officials, stationed at Salt Lake, was in town Thursday in company with other officials of the road.

—The confession is wrung from THE TRIBUNE that the Caldwell Board of Trade is an exceedingly lively corpse after all, and manages to create quite a stir for a ghost. Bossy City thinks so too.

—Mr. Howard Sebree informs us that the ditching machine that he purchased and put to work on the ditch last summer has reduced the cost of that enterprise $20,000. Not a bad $1,200 investment.

—Wm. L. Geary, J. T. Clement and T. P. Dunsen, business men of Ontario, were in town Thursday. For a combination of enterprise, rattle and business ability, this Ontario crowd is hard to beat.

—Caldwell is rapidly acquiring fame as the city of secret societies and churches. A man that don't belong to three or four secret societies, at least two churches and the band is woefully out of luck.

—A young man named Williams, of Ontario, sick with spotted fever, was brought to Caldwell Thursday in a wagon—a windy day for a sick man. He is camped at Mr. Young's and is none the worse for the trip.

—W. B. Sherwood, of Jordan Valley, the man who was so terribly injured while hunting last week, died from the effects of his wounds last Sunday. He lived four days after his arm was amputated but could not rally.

—Chas. H. Reed returned from the Dalles yesterday whither he had been called to the bedside of his dying father, who died a few days after his arrival. Mr. Reed's mother, who has also been dangerously ill is improving.

—"Hurrah for the CALDWELL TRIBUNE; if it were not for it we would never have got our telephone line," shouted a prominent Nampa man the other day. We are glad that our Nampa friends are beginning to realize who their friends are.

—Robt. Henderson brought in an eight-foot sturgeon last Thursday that attracted quite a crowd and started an elegant assortment of fish. After a hard contest Dick Potter, and "Boston" were awarded the belt. Capt. Packard and Jim Patton were good seconds.

—A man by the name of Munger, over in Jordan Valley, got into a quarrel with another man over an irrigating ditch, which resulted in his being struck over the head with a shovel and badly injured. His skull was badly fractured, and it is feared he will not recover.

—As THE TRIBUNE predicted, the Pacific Hotel, under Mrs. Collins' efficient management, has taken rank among the first on the town. It is doing a thriving business and we often hear it spoken of in very complimentary terms. The town is to be congratulated on the acquisition of Mrs. Collins.

—Caldwell now has a cigar factory and a soap factory in full blast, and G. H. van Wyngarden will soon open up a full-fledged broom factory. His supplies have already arrived, and as soon as he can make other necessary arrangements, he will begin to turn out brooms at a rapid rate. Caldwell is sure to become the great manufacturing center of the northwest.

—Mr. P. H. Lannan, one of the proprietors of the Salt Lake Tribune, was in town this week visiting at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Chas. Sebree. Mr. Lannan is a stockholder in the Sebree ditch and is improving a section of land under that enterprise. There is lots of Salt Lake capital being invested in Boise Valley.

—The Avalanche says that "the Silver City Telegraph Company will in all probability use their line for both telegraphing and telephoning, and those persons along the route had best consult with both the Bell Telephone man and the Silver City Telegraph Co. before making arrangements with either for a telephone. Opposition is the life of trade."

—The musical concert given by the Methodist Choir last Thursday evening at the school house, drew out a large and appreciative audience. The choir had long been drilling for the entertainment, and the public were promised a rare treat, nor were they disappointed. The concert opened with an elegant piano duet by Mrs. Olmstead and Mrs. Scott, both of whom are thorough and accomplished musicians. Mrs. Olmstead then delighted the audience with a very pretty solo entitled "Who Can It Be," which was followed by a corset solo by Henry Dorman, accompanied by Mrs. Olmstead on the piano, and was compelled to acknowledge an encore. "Two Merry Girls" an elegant duet by the Misses Dorman was very finely rendered and brought out rounds of applause from the delighted audience. Henry Blatchley's well known one to love was simply immense, and struck a responsive chord in the heart of every bachelor in the room, but the response caused the briny tide to course down their manly cheeks in torrents. Miss Andrews made herself a favorite of the evening by her excellent rendition of the solo "Under the Moonlight Skies." Miss Andrews has a sweet soprano voice and sings with much expression. James H. Gwinn brought down the house with "One Beat in a Measure." It was very laughable and so well acted that most of the audience were completely "beet." Mrs. C. S. Scott and her pupil, Miss Julia Cooper, then gave an instrumental duet on the piano. It was one of the successes of the evening, and alike reflected great credit on Miss Julia's musical ability and Mrs. Scott her instructor. Mrs. Olmstead then enraptured the audience with a very pretty solo and chorus, entitled "Drifting with the Tide." Mrs. Olmstead has a strong, pure voice, and sings very correctly, her notes always being absolutely perfect. Aside from this her voice possesses a richness that is charming. She was repeatedly encored. Henry Dorman, assisted by Mrs. Scott at the piano, then favored the audience with another of his celebrated cornet solos. Hank is a general favorite in musical circles, and always pleases an audience. Mrs. B. T. Young and Mrs. Olmstead then sang a lovely duet, with a corset accompaniment. Mrs. Young possesses a strong, clear alto voice which went a great ways toward making the whole concert the success it was. It is to be regretted that Caldwell cannot claim her all the time. Even as Blatchley's song affected the Lachlors, so did the solo "The House Keeps Complaint," sang by Mrs. Olmstead, affect the ladies. The only trouble with it is that it was too true and too serious a subject to joke about, so say the ladies. Miss Andrews sang another very pretty solo, and was obliged to acknowledge an encore. She was followed by an instrumental quartette by Misses Emma and Junie Dorman, Mrs. Olmstead and H. W. Dorman. Their playing was grand and the audience was not slow to show its appreciation. The entire program was interspersed with selections by the choir, consisting of Mrs. Olmstead, Mrs. Young, Miss Andrews, H. N. Maxey, E. E. Maxey, and J. H. Gwinn. Mrs. C. S. Scott presided at the piano, and soon convinced the audience that the instrument was in the hands of an artist. In the farce Jimmy Gwinn covered himself with glory as "Jones" while Ed. Maxey made his debut as "Snobblerton." It is safe to say that were the farce to be re-enacted, the character of "Snobblerton" would bring a high price in the market. Miss Junie Dorman made a very bewitching Prudence Winterbottom, and acted her part admirably. Taken as a whole the musical concert was a great success, and clearly demonstrates that Caldwell has talent as well as enterprise.

—We contract for setting the poles and stringing the wire from here to Snake river for the Silver City Telegraph Company, has been let to H. N. Maxey, of this city. We understand that the route will be by the way of the warm springs ferry.

—The Caldwell merchants have this spring handled seven car loads of alfalfa seed. It is, to say nothing of what was raised in the valley, has been sown in this immediate vicinity. Much of it will be lost unless we soon have rain.

—Least some of our subscribers have forgotten a certain little matter that is very essential to the happiness of every well regulated printing shop, we feel called upon to lay aside all false modesty and insist upon $om—but not the $train is too severe; we $ub$ide.

—A TRIBUNE representative took in Weiser the other day and found the good people of that town on the move, building for the season having already commenced in the shape of a large two-story frame building on the principal street. Weiser has an excellent location, is backed by a magnificent farming country and is the natural supply point for an immense mining country, which when fully developed will make Weiser boom beyond the expectations of the most sanguine. Weiser should be a better town than it is to-day. It possesses advantages that no other town on the Short Line does, and has been there long enough to take advantage of them, but for some mysterious reason, she moves very slowly. She has the making of a good town and will be a little more united push by her citizens would greatly hasten developments. All things do not always come to those that wait.

—THE DEVIL FISH DESCRIBED BY HUGO is not a more tedious monster than snakes, whether it takes the form of chills and fever, biliousness, ague, or cholera. Like the octopus of the story, it clings to the victim in its tentacles, and folds him over and clove in a horrible manner. Attacked with it, the sufferer's stomach is affected, he loses his appetite, and the quantity of food he eats is reduced to a few mouthfuls. He is then attacked by a new form of cholera, engendered by the restoration of complete health. It is a deadly disease, and one that is not to be trifled with. It is a deadly disease, and one that is not to be trifled with. It is a deadly disease, and one that is not to be trifled with.

—HORSEMEN, SEE HERE! I have for sale or will trade for either cattle, mares or geldings, one Hambletonian stallion, stands 16 hands high, weighs 1,200 pounds, is eight years old, dark bay with black points. The only reason for parting with the stallion is we have too many for our use. The horse can be seen at my farm, three miles below Caldwell.
