Hon. U. B. Hays, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho, died at his residence in Boise City, May 31, 1888, aged 50 years.

General Sheridan, U. S. A., has been lying in a critical condition all this week at his Washington home. A stroke of apoplexy affecting the heart is the cause of this dangerous condition.

Blaine has written another letter declining the use of his name in connection with the Republican nomination for the Presidency.

Presidential Tickets in the Field. There are now four full-fledged Presidential tickets in the field by regular entries through national conventions. They are: Woman's Rights—Belva A. Lockwood. Union Labor—A. J. Streeter. The fair Belva had a candidate for Vice President bearing the appropriate name of Love, but Love declined, leaving her to tread the Presidential wine press alone.

Mr. Streeter hails from Illinois, and has Charles E. Cummings, of Arkansas, as his fellow candidate for Vice President. Mr. Coakley also hails from Illinois, and has W. H. T. Wakefield, of Kansas, for Vice President.

Rev. Dr. McGlynn is chairman of the executive committee of the United Labor party, and will run the campaign. Streeter, the candidate of the Union Labor party, is the head of the Farmer's Alliance in the West.

Knowledge for the Millions. The fourth volume of Alden's Manual Cyclopedia contains 122 illustrations, and extends from Baptism to Biberly—637 pages, large type, handsome cloth binding, for 50 cents, or in elegant half Morocco binding for 65 cents! Is not that truly bringing knowledge within the reach of the millions?

The great merit of the Cyclopedia is its adaptation to practical use; giving under each proper head the information most likely to be needed, and in concise, easily available form. Careful examination impresses one with its accuracy, as well as the remarkable fullness of its information. For actual use it abundantly answers the needs of all save those whose pursuits require exhaustive study of certain subjects.

The combination of Unabridged Dictionary and Cyclopedia is a wonderful convenience. Each volume, as it comes to the readers hands invariably renews the surprise felt that a book so well got up can be afforded for a price so low. Whoever wants a Cyclopedia—and who does not?—would do well to order at least a specimen volume, which may be returned if not wanted. Reduced prices are offered to early subscribers for complete sets, which are to consist of thirty or more volumes, the volumes being issued at intervals of about a month. The work is not sold either by agents or booksellers, but only by the publisher direct, who, in some cases, accounts for the wonderfully low prices. John B. Alden, Publisher, 393 Pearl St., New York, or 218 Clark St., Chicago.

Capt. Barclay Won a Prize in a Lottery. Capt. Wm. H. Barclay, the pension agent at Pittsburgh, has drawn a $75,000 prize from the Louisiana State lottery. He said: "Some time ago I purchased two half tickets at $5. Yesterday I was notified that ticket No. 12,615 had drawn the capital prize of $150,000, and as that is the number of one of my half tickets, I am entitled to half that amount and $25 besides, inasmuch as all tickets ending with the number 15 are good for $25 each. I understand that the other half of the capital prize was won by five Philadelphia mechanics.—Indianapolis, Ind., Journal, April 22.
