—Frank R. Coffin, of Boise, will stay at the Caldwell store during Sherman Coffin's absence.

—Mr. M. G. Stiles, of Salt Lake, has accepted a position in Coffin's store. He will move his family here.

—Mr. Howard Sebree came in last Thursday. Caldwell always brightens up when Mr. Sebree arrives.

—D. L. Badley is "gunning" over on Squaw Creek this week. Badley is not ambitious—grouse are good enough for him.

—At least fifty of Caldwell's citizens are rusticated in the mountains. No flies on the average Caldwellite in hot weather.

—Miss Alice Reynolds, sister of Mrs. Jesse Harmon, arrived from Missouri Thursday. She will make Caldwell her future home.

—Isham puts up prescriptions promptly, carefully, cheaply, and you should take all prescriptions to him immediately.

—I. N. Paynter's team ran away Wednesday, throwing Mr. Paynter out and doing him considerable injury. He is coming out all right.

—Go to the old reliable Iowa House and get a square meal for 25 cents, or a month's day board for $15. Board and lodging per month, $18.

—Another exodus. C. S. Scott, M. B. Gwin and D. L. Badley will go to Halley to-morrow. No use trying to get a quorum at church now.

—If you have not received your pictures from Wilcox & Wilcox make it known to C. S. Scott at once. See notice in another column.

—Jim Gwin blew a hole through the floor at home while cleaning up a rifle to shoot squirrels with in Long Valley. Be more careful Jimmie!

—S. M. Coffin left yesterday for Wood River to take three week's recreation and rest among the hills of Halley and Ketchum. Mrs. Coffin is already there.

—N. B. Sebree returned to his home in Cassia County last Sunday. He intends to return in September with his family and make Caldwell his home. Good.

—Several of our young nimrods have been hunting ducks down in Young's field of late. They succeeded in filling a cowboy's leg full of buckshot Wednesday evening.

—The Statesman says that the derrick to be used in sinking an artesian well at Nampa was blown down Monday night. Hope the progress of the enterprise will not be retarded.

—Simon Dement has transferred his job wagon to Frank Huntington, and will retire to the sylvan shades of the sage brush on a claim near town. The heavy lifting connected with the dry business was getting too much for Simon.

—M. B. Gwin, J. F. Lackey and W. H. Isaacs were "prospecting" in the mountains about Wagon town this week. Lackey promised to a "tale unfold" to THE TRIBUNE but hasn't done it. Guess Gwin bought him off, he seemed a little nervous.

—Mr. H. C. Mosher has been appointed station agent at this place to succeed Mr. Conway. Mr. Mosher has been acting as operator at Mountain Home for some time past, and is spoken of in words of highest esteem by those who know him.

—Ayer's Augue Cure never fails to neutralize the poison of malaria and eradicate them from the system. This preparation is purely vegetable, contains no harmful ingredients, and, if taken according to directions, is warranted to cure fever and ague. Try it.

—Frank Corron has nearly completed a handsome two-story residence on his claim near Notus. Corron has had in charge the construction of the great Sebree ditch, and made an enviable reputation as a canal builder on that piece of work. He will celebrate the completion of his house a week from Tuesday by giving a big dance.

—Mrs. Fred Hoffer and son and two daughters, and Miss Laura Patten, visited Silver City recently.

—Robt. E. Miller is building a fine new residence on Kimball street. It will be a credit to the town.

—Caldwell has spent a great deal of money on her side walks and is justly proud of them. They were all built by private subscription and were originally designed to be walked on.

—A great many persons, however, seem to have got the idea that they were intended to drive heavy wagons over and run horses on. There is a crossing at every street, but if they should drive the wagons over them, it would be impossible to break the walks, and consequently deprive a certain class of cranks of their chief pleasure. There is absolutely no excuse for this destruction of property, when there are plenty crossings, and it must be stopped. Someone will have the pleasure of paying for the damage done one of these days.

—Rev. R. M. Gwin and family, H. N. Maxey and family, George Little and family, Dr. W. C. Maxey and family and Charlie Oaks, making about twenty-five souls in all, started on a crusade into Long Valley last Thursday. They expect to be absent about three weeks and intend "doing" Salmon Meadows as well as Long Valley. Judging from the supplies they took, it is THE TRIBUNE'S opinion that they intend to immigrate. The following is a partial list: Stove, flour, bacon, baking powder, salt, pepper, pickles, potatoes, butter, sugar, coffee, tea, canned tomatoes, corn, and peaches, oysters, sardines, baked beans, can openers, candles, tin cups, plates, knives and forks, condensed milk, keg of nails, screws, crackers, crowbar, cheese, saw, hatchet, saw-buck, hammer, jelly, ax, pills, shovel, bible, mat-toc, croquet, seventeen rifles, nine shot guns, one gross pistols, three thousand rounds ammunition, bullet moulds, wire, gun wiper, St. Jacob's Oil, wash pan, matches, soap(?), towels, tooth brush, comb, Florida water, tin barrel of beer, bed, bedding, rope for lariats, spring greese, hair oil, fishing tackle, Hoyt's German Cologne, water pail, feed boxes, extension table, five hundred "Old Capt. Colyer" five cent novels, saddle, coffee pot, pipe dresser, Rock and Rye, demijohns, glycerine, snake bite cure, frying pan, tea and table spoons, dish pan, money, ice cream freezer, anvil, liberty pole, red bandanas, one needle, prayer book, Moore's Revealed Remedy, hammock, etc., etc. They evidently forgot to take a hall to hold public meetings in.

—Boise City is greatly agitated over the railroad question again. About the richest thing we have yet read on the subject is from the pen of D. P. B. Pride who says that the "U. P. realizes their mistake in not coming to Boise" and intimates that Charles Francis Adams is losing sleep over the grievous mistake. He then goes on to tell the feasibility and even probability of the U. P. taking up their present main line and swinging it around to take in Boise. Just why the U. P. was so anxious to get to Boise was at first a sticker to us, but as we read on we discovered the reason. Congress of late has so meddled with the affairs of the U. P. that stock was on the decline. The management of the road realized that something must be done to counteract this influence and restore public confidence. It was a decisive moment and some extreme measure must be found—something that the extreme brilliancy and very audacity of which would quicken the public pulse and cause the world to stand still with admiration and awe. The propositions to use electricity as a motive power, to bridge the Pacific ocean and to extend the line clear around the world, were dismissed as too ordinary, but when it was suggested that by changing their line they could build car and machine shops at Boise City, the effect was electrical. The problem was solved. We are not authorized to say just when operations will begin, but from reading the Boise papers we have got the idea that the U. P. cannot hold out much longer without machine shops in Boise, and so surmise that it will be in the near future.

—Isham has got the drug business down to a science. Call on him when in need of anything in his line.

—The residence of W. A. Coughanour, of Payette, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground last Tuesday. All the household goods and furniture was consumed, but happily the family escaped uninjured.

—In speaking of the enterprise of the business men of Caldwell last week, it was not THE TRIBUNE'S intention to leave out the ladies by any means. Caldwell now has a hotel service that is far superior to that of any other town on the Short Line, and which would do credit to a town many times the size of Caldwell. And it is entirely managed by ladies, and very successfully managed too. In fact, Caldwell's hotels have always been rather below par until the fair rustlers elevated them to their present healthy condition. Mrs. Mohr, of Mrs. Mohr's Hotel, Mrs. Collins, of the Commercial Hotel, and Mrs. Hannan, of the Iowa House, are all above, enterprising ladies, and as full of business as an egg is of meat. In the language of one of them "we may not be exactly noted for our youth and extreme beauty, but we are r-r-rustlers with a big R."

Are constantly exposed to danger from Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, and diseases peculiar to the throat and lungs. For such ailments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, promptly administered, affords speedy relief and cure.

As a remedy for Whooping Cough, with much relief of our children were afflicted, we used, during the past winter, with much satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For this affliction, we consider this preparation the most efficacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge.—Mary Par-lurs, Proctor, Home for Little Wanderers, Doncaster, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint.—David G. Starks, Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Cough. This medicine always all irritation, prevents inflammation from extending to the lungs, and quickly subdues any tendency to Lung Complaint.—J. B. Wellington, Flatville, Mich.

I find no medicine so effective for Croup and Whooping Cough, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It saved the life of my little boy, only six months old, carrying him through the worst case of Croup, Whooping Cough I ever saw.—Jane Malone, Piney Glades, Tenn.

SAD DEATH OF MR. HENDERSON. Robert A. Henderson is Asphyxiated in a Chicago Hotel.

Mr. Robt. Henderson, the popular Snake river ferryman, will start to Chicago about the middle of next month, where he intends to have a steam boat built to navigate the Snake river. The boat will be fifty feet long, about fourteen feet wide, and the screw propeller will be driven by a 33-horse power engine. The boat will have a capacity for 100 passengers, besides an immense amount of freight, and will also tow two barges, thus making the freight capacity wonderful. The boat will draw only about four feet of water, thus making it possible to navigate the Snake for a long distance. Mr. Henderson is an old river man with much experience. He has thoroughly investigated the scheme, and is not only convinced that it is practicable, but that it will be a paying investment. He expects to have the boat running in September.

The preceding item appeared in THE TRIBUNE the issue of June 12, 1888. As stated, Mr. Henderson started east in July, taking with him several car loads of horses as far as Iowa, to carry out his plan of navigating the Snake river. His family received a letter from him from Iowa, in which he stated he was in the best of health and had disposed of his horses to good advantage; that he would go to Chicago, purchase his boat and attend to other business matters, and hoped that he might speedily make all arrangements as to his enterprise as he was anxious to return home. Last Saturday evening, however, a telegram was received at Caldwell from Chicago, stating that Robert Henderson was dead, having been asphyxiated in a small hotel in Chicago. The Chicago Daily News of July 27th, contained the following item:

HE COULDN'T WORK IT. A man registering the name Robert A. Henderson at the Ogdon House, Chicago, was found dead in his room yesterday morning in an unconscious state, the room and corridor being filled with gas. Dr. Ballard and Heronson succeeded in resuscitating him, but on a late hour night he was still unconscious.

Chas. H. Reed took the dispatch out to the family Saturday night, while other friends of Mr. Henderson took the matter in hand and proceeded to investigate. It was well known to them that Mr. Henderson had from $4,000 to $5,000 on his person, and suspicions of foul play were very natural. Dispatches were sent to E. P. Willard & Co. and to the Chief of Police stating their suspicions and asking that no trouble or expense be spared to make a thorough examination. A telegram from the Chief of Police stated that about $2,000 was found on Mr. Henderson's person and one from E. P. Willard & Co. stating that he had paid them $1,000 on the boat, allayed all suspicions of foul play. His death was undoubtedly accidental, and must have been caused by Mr. Henderson carelessly turning the stop after he had turned the gas off, for it is incredible that a man of his age and experience would deliberately "blow out the gas."

The family ordered the body embalmed and shipped to Boise City, where it will be buried by the side of his first wife. The body was expected to arrive yesterday, but we have not learned whether it did or not. Rev. Barton, of Boise, will conduct the funeral services.

Robert A. Henderson was one of Idaho's pioneers, and a man who was honored and respected because of his actual worth. He was proprietor of Henderson's Ferry across Snake river, about twelve miles from Caldwell, on the Jordan Valley road. He had lately conceived the scheme of plying a steamer between Weiser and Glenn's Ferry, and it was while arranging to carry out his plans that he met his death as above stated. The order for the boat was, of course, countermanded, for the scheme to navigate Snake river perished with Robert A. Henderson, for years to come.

Besides owning the ferry, which is a valuable piece of property, Mr. Henderson owned considerable stock on the range, and was in good circumstances financially. His homestead, however, was recently contested, and the case is yet in the land office at Washington, awaiting decision.

He leaves a wife and six children, four of whom are by his first wife, to mourn his loss. They are almost prostrated with grief by the sudden shock. They have the sympathy of the entire community.

Wonderful Cures. W. D. Hoyt, of Co. 1st and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., says: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Buckle's Arnica Salve for some time, and have seen many cases cured by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced consumption have been entirely cured by a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. I guarantee them always. Sold by Little & Blatchley."
