

CALDWELL, IDAHO, AUG. 18, 1888.

—Waller, the man of trees and talk, came in Thursday.

—Mr. McRobbie, of Pocatello, was in town last Thursday.

—Mr. King, railway agent at Ontario, was in town Thursday.

—C. M. Wixell returned from his recreation trip to High Valley this week.

—Wanted—9,999 men, women and children to drink soda water at Isham's.

—John Zenher went to Boise last Monday. Hope to see him back again soon.

—Born, last Wednesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Mat Cook, of this city, a nine-pound son.

—Miss Dollie Mott, of Middleton, was a guest of Miss Delia Gilgan last Sunday.

—Catch on! Pineapple Cocktail, Banana Cider, Happy Hour Cigars at Martin & Brown's.

—Frank R. Coffin and family, of Boise, were in town this week. We understand they went to Ketchum.

—The side tracks have been filled with stock cars all week. Stock shipments are not decreasing very much yet.

—S. N. Moe purchased a couple lots in Caldwell of Dan Campbell this week. Moe will be building a house next.

—The rumor is going the rounds that Caldwell is to have a new depot. We don't know how authentic the report is.

—Isham is selling drugs at such a greatly reduced figure, that you cannot afford to buy without first calling on him.

—The latest secret society in Caldwell is the Lazy Man's Club. Our informant was too tired to tell who the officers were.

—Mrs. M. B. Gwinn left for a visit with friends in Portland last Tuesday. Mr. Gwinn will start for the same place in a few weeks.

—Isham puts up prescriptions promptly, carefully, correctly, cheaply, and you should take all prescriptions to him immediately.

—We noticed the illuminating countenance of Tom Cahalan, of Boise, on our streets this week. It is rumored that Tom is a democrat.

—Coffin Brothers have moved their granary that stood next to Gwinn's store to the lot adjoining their present houses, on Kimball street.

—Fred Brumzell, of Reynolds Creek, was in town this week. Mrs. Brumzell and Miss Moe are in Silver City. Everybody here is always glad to see Mr. Brumzell.

—It is rumored that Montie B. Gwinn will put up a brick building next to his store building this fall. He has purchased all the brick at the old kiln at least, and has had the lot cleared.

—Ayer's Ague Cure is an antidote for malaria and all malaria and all malarial diseases, whether generated by swamp or sewer. Neither quinine, arsenic, nor any other injurious drug enters into the composition of this remedy. Warranted to cure fever and ague.

—It is very fortunate that the bodies of the two unfortunate cow-boys—Clement and Stanford—were so soon recovered. The treacherous Snake very rarely gives up its dead. The numerous bleaching skeletons found every year on the Snake river bars is all that is usually recovered of its many unfortunate victims.

—Capt. Packard, J. M. Stevenson and others, went to examine the coal deposits discovered by A. M. Lackey, mentioned in last week's issue of THE TRIBUNE. The find is on the Owyhee river, about twenty-five miles from Henderson's Ferry, and is in a sand stone formation. They say the coal is of excellent quality and to all appearances abundance of it. But it is a very rough country, in fact almost impossible to get there. The only practicable way to reach the coal fields would be to build a railroad up the Owyhee river, and that will take more money than is likely to be invested at present.

—Brady was half way up a telegraph pole, on Kimball street, the other day, when a book agent belated him and requested him to stop and look at his books. Brady kindly reminded him that his present position was not such that he could give the book a critical examination and also that he was very desirous just then of getting to the top of the pole to repair a wire. "Don't allow me to interrupt you," said the agent, "I will come up to you," and taking his book in his teeth he commenced to shin up the pole. Such devotion to business melted Brady's heart and he descended and sat in the shade of the pole and read the book through and then concluded it was not adapted to his taste.

Ought to be Ashamed.

Special to CALDWELL TRIBUNE. SILVER CITY, Aug. 15. A disgraceful row occurred between two old residents and nine owners at Silver City on Wednesday last. W. H. Dewey, who seems to have a fondness for using his cane on other people's heads, and who has had several narrow escapes, got into a quarrel with John Sullivan and struck him. Sullivan drew his gun and fired two shots at Dewey, grazing his leg but not hurting him. Dewey killed a man some time ago but was acquitted when brought to trial. More trouble is feared. Both these men are well up in years and ought to be ashamed of themselves.

Drowned in the Snake.

Special to CALDWELL TRIBUNE. SILVER CITY, Aug. 15. Frank Stanford and James Clement, while swimming cattle across Snake river, a short distance below Walters' ferry, at about 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, were both drowned, by their horses becoming unmanageable. They were driving cattle to Caldwell for shipment. Both were young men and well known throughout the country. Their place of residence is Reynolds Creek.

SILVER CITY, Aug. 16. The body of Clement was found at 10:30 o'clock a. m. to-day, about two hundred yards from where he was thrown from his horse. He had one scar on his head, showing that he had been struck or kicked by his horse. The supposition is that he was stunned by the horse in its struggles. Stanford was found at 12 p. m. His head also showed marks where he had been struck or kicked. They were drowned when in about the middle of the river.

The Silver City Telegraph Co. We have been asked to explain how and why the Western Union Telegraph Co. discriminates against the Silver City Telegraph Co. How they do it is very simple. In the first place they refused to allow the Silver City people to make connection with their line here, hoping by this means to "bluff" them completely out. The Silver City people wouldn't be "bluffed" and put in an office of their own. The Western Union then instructed its agents here to receive no messages for Silver City. For instance, whenever a message comes over the wire to Caldwell for Silver City, the operator here merely says, "don't receive Silver City messages; send to Boise." And to Boise it has to go and is transmitted from there to Silver City by telephone, no matter how private the nature of the dispatch may be. Of course the Western Union is compelled to send Silver City messages from here but they make an advanced rate. There are several reasons why they do it. The principal one is because some of the managers of the Western Union have stock in the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company. Such a state of affairs does not set well with the Silver City people, and when they reflect that the telephone line was put up by Boise money, after Boise had declined to enter into their enterprise, they naturally and justly hold Boise responsible for the discrimination against their own enterprise. Some of the Silver City business men retaliate by refusing to accept any telephone message. A Silver City correspondent to the Mountain Home Bulletin says:

The telegraph line to Silver City is doing a brisk business notwithstanding the "dirty Irish trick" the telephone managers have tried to play it. Many of the Silver City people have instructed their correspondents that they will not receive messages over the telephone, and the Boise City people are in a bad way when they reflect how the telephone manager built a line for his own company with Boise money, and they now find the thing a boomerang. Serves them right.

The Silver City Avalanche, in reply to an article in the Boise Statesman, professing eternal love for the dear people of Silver, makes the following characteristic reply: The Statesman is "entirely wrong" in asserting that we thought there was any hard feelings between the people of Boise and Silver on account of the telephone. We tried to show them there was not when we asked them to join in our celebration. They were deluded into giving aims to the telephone corporation, and now that detectable institution is challenging our resentment by discriminating against our own enterprise. The Statesman was entirely right when it told them they had better expend their money in a ditch. If they had thrown it in a ditch it would have been just as well invested as now.

Or, in other words, while we bear you no ill-will, we think you are terrible big "suckers."

First Baptist Association. The First Baptist Association of Idaho will meet with the Caldwell Baptist Church on Tuesday, September 20th, at 7 o'clock p. m., continuing over the following Sundays. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present at these meetings. B. L. MORROW, C. C.

What Can the Matter Be?

The Democrat received on the 13th inst. a letter from Hon. A. E. Calloway, at Caldwell, dated the 4th inst. Hereafter we wish friends at Caldwell, when writing, would give their letters to some of the train men with instructions to turn them over to Uncle Dan, of the Nampa Progress, who walks into Boise every Saturday with the mail (so he says.) By thus doing letters would reach here on time—Boise Democrat.

Such irregularities are frequently brought to THE TRIBUNE's notice since it commenced its efforts to discover why there was no mail service between here and Boise. Last Wednesday a gentleman showed us a letter he received that day that bore the Boise post-mark of the preceding Saturday. The letter would have made the trip to Chicago in the same time. Not one letter out of a thousand that is sent out of Idaho is lost or delayed, while ten per cent of the mail on the thirty mile run between here and Boise is delayed from two days to a week. Where is the postal inspector of this district? To our certain knowledge his attention has been called to the state of affairs, but if he has made any move to better them we have failed to hear of it. Are the postal clerks over-worked or do they play poker instead of sorting mail matter? Of course, in all justice, due allowance should be made for a mistake occasionally, but mistakes are of rare occurrence on a well-regulated service. We fancy a thorough investigation would help matters.

—There have been so many complaining productions on railroads and railroad management in the Boise papers recently, that the following modest truths in a recent issue of the Statesman, are refreshing: "No people, in town or city, can ignore railroads without incurring great damage to themselves. Railroads are in the country and have come to stay. That is a wise policy which secures as many of the benefits to be derived of them as possible. The idea once entertained by some that no railroad could afford to pass through this part of Idaho without coming to Boise City; that a railroad had to come here, was exploded when the Oregon Short Line built within fifteen miles of us, and went quietly on its way. A railroad is a stubborn critter; it is not to be driven, but coaxed. What is needed very much just now on the part of our citizens, is a modest and true estimate of the relative importance of our city. Putting on airs, using high sounding phrases, assuming metropolitan dignities, will only disgust sensible men and publish broadcast the story of our imbecility." If the Statesman can succeed in impressing these simple facts on the minds of the people of Boise, her chances for becoming a railroad town will be greatly increased.

—George Oakes and Rev. Boone and their families returned from Long Valley last Saturday covered with sun burn and glory. George brought down a fine doe, while Boone, whose aspirations and ambition knew no bounds after serving his apprenticeship, succeeded in sending a bullet through the heart of a large black bear. Rev. Boone is now the uncrowned king of Caldwell's amateur hunters, and the unfortunate wretches who never killed a bear get right down and grovel in the dust at his approach.

—Gwinn's immense stock of fall clothing has just arrived. It is undoubtedly the largest and best assorted stock of clothing ever unpacked in Caldwell, and comprises goods of all qualities and prices. Call around and examine it.

—The Idaho Press Association will hold its annual session at Hailey, August 30. It is understood that Division Passenger Agent Parker will give the members of the Association an excursion to Garfield Beach.

—Sherman M. Coffin and family returned from Wood River yesterday. Mr. Coffin says they enjoyed their stay on Wood River very much.

—If you want to see a thing of power as well as beauty, go and see Badley's wonderful wagon jack. It will lift a house as easily as a wagon.

—The van of Caldwell's army of campers, under command of Capt. Little, is expected to arrive to-day. Let the fatted calf be slaughtered.

—Sam Hartkopf went to Boise last Monday. A guardian will have to be appointed for Sam if he remains a widower much longer.

—Abner Packard Jr., assistant cashier at the Stockgrowers and Tracers Bank, was in Boise this week.

—Farmers having hay and pasture for sale should call on H. W. Dorman at once.

—Robt. Miller's new house is rapidly assuming definite proportions.

—Chris. Fahy spent a few days in Mountain Home recently.

"BOB" STILL LIVES

And Tells the Parma News in his Usual Interesting Style. Mrs. Shipley was a Caldwell visitor last week. Mrs. Ross has entirely recovered from her sickness and made Mrs. Pease a visit last week. Howard Sebree spends most of his time on his ranch. He begins to assume the air of a granger.

Holbrook's next appearance will be in the political arena. I do not know whether he will crack the whip or be the ring horse.

We are glad to learn that Chas. Sebree has returned and that his wife has entirely recovered. Would like to see them here very much.

We saw I. A. Pease on the street a few days ago. He looked as though he had been dragged into a saw mill and kicked out for a slab. Since writing the above I learn that he has not been feeling very well for some weeks.

A. Fouch is attending to his harvesting at Star. We learn he has a large crop. Frank Fouch remains in the store here. Close confinement is telling on Frank—he is looking pale. Evidently too close attention to business.

Hamilton & Co. start their threshing machine to-day. Will thresh for Stockton, and then go to the Star district. Ross will also soon have his machine running, and Tucker & Co. will start theirs in a few days. The grain is much better than was expected. On account of the extremely dry weather people became discouraged and thought they would not have half a crop.

Olmstead, Cowden and others were prowling around yesterday through fields and swamps in what seemed to me a sort of a dazed condition. As soon as I learned who they were, I drove the cows into the hen house, locked and barred the door, gathered the eggs, got my gun, called the dogs in, and prepared to defend myself and property. After all the precaution I took there was one old setting hen that was forgotten, and—well, that lot of eggs will never hatch.

Parma, Aug. 13. Bon. —The Strahorn party (that is, the party of capitalists acting in concert with R. E. Strahorn) seem to have come here with a determination of taking hold with a will. In addition to the Hailey Springs, the two Lamb ranches, the controlling interest in the Hailey Electric Light Works, they have virtually closed the purchase of the Meves ranch of 100 acres, which lies west of the springs, and leased for three years, with the privilege of purchasing, the Hunter & White saw mill and water power. They intend to enlarge the electric system to take in Bradford, Bellevue, Bullion and Hailey. The company has recently been re-organized with R. E. Strahorn as president; Dr. McKay, vice-president; H. Z. Burkhardt, Secretary and Treasurer; W. T. Riley and Texas Angel, trustees.

Worth Knowing. Mrs. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Wis., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in the first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Total bottles sold at Little & Blatchley's Drug Store.
