—Messrs. Negley and Stevenson returned from their hunt Thursday evening. They look as though bear steak agreed with them.

—And still she booms! Caldwell right in front of the procession! Our popular saloon men, Fahy Bros., put up a new hitching post this week.

—The engine that was to pull out the stock train last Wednesday, jumped the track that evening and although a gang of men and an engine worked all night, it was not got back until Thursday morning.

—Mrs. J. P. Johnson wishes to inform the public that she will be found at the stand formerly occupied by the Lucas sisters, and would be pleased to meet her old customers there. She has a complete stock of millinery goods, etc., at reasonable prices.

—We would call the attention of stock men to the advertisement of the Hot Springs Herd of Pedigreed Short Horns, in this issue. If you contemplate purchasing a fine animal of either sex, it will pay you to correspond with Robert Strahorn & Co.

—The Whitney Bros., of the Payette Nurseries, are sending grapes to Montana by the car load. The Payette Nurseries are rapidly gaining a reputation for fair, honorable dealing, and this, together with the indomitable enterprise of the proprietors, is making that institution a power in the land.

—A fellow handed Moe fifty cents for putting a hand on his watch the other evening. The price was two bits and Moe had no change, so he returned the money to man and requested him to step in next door and get the change. The fellow took the money, backed to the door, took off his hat, made a bow, and said: "My friend, this is a world of chance, and the man who rashly shuts his eyes to his opportunities will never wear diamonds. I entertain the most profound respect for you and fain would tarry longer, but the stern duties of a cold world bids me hence. Farewell, will you never meet again!" And he vanished in the darkness, while Moe pinched himself to see if he was awake.

—The Annual meeting of the stockholders of the Caldwell Building & Loan Association, will be held at the secretary's office on Tuesday evening, September 18, 1888, at 8 o'clock sharp, when new directors will be elected for the coming year, and any other business which may come before the Association will be attended to.

Now is the time to buy lumber. I need money and must have it, and will give you bargains.

—Isadore Mayer, formerly of Silver City, is going to open up a stock of general merchandise in the old building formerly occupied by Eli Wilson. From all accounts Mayer is a rustler, and we venture the assertion that he will be heard from.

—Mr. Ray Peffley now has charge of P. J. Peffley's harness shop at this place. He is an acquisition to Caldwell's list of young business men, and will soon undoubtedly succeed in making himself popular with the trade and the community in general.

—Prof. Martin informs us that the school has opened up very nicely with an enrollment of eighty-five pupils—a little over half the number of children of school age in the district. All indications point to successful school this fall and winter.

—Hemphill & Vine, who were billed to give a free concert at the Baptist church last evening, have telegraphed that their engagements at Boise City prevented them from getting here, but that they will surely appear this evening at the place designated.

—Ed. Maxey started last Friday for Chicago to attend the college of physicians and surgeons, at that place. Ed. is a most exemplary young man, and will make the most of his opportunities. On Wednesday evening several of his friends hastily organized a surprise party and gave him a right royal "send-off." A most pleasant evening was spent.

—The Caldwell Presbyterian Society will give a lawn social at Mrs. R. E. Strahorn's on Tuesday evening, September 25th. As the Presbyterian Society has not been heard from for some time, it is fair to suppose that they are making arrangements to completely outdo all former efforts. We understand that an interesting programme is being arranged. Be sure and attend for you will miss something nice if you do not.

—A good story is wafted on the breezes from the Redfish Lakes in which R. E. Strahorn and his Chicago friends, who, it will be remembered, left here for that country on a grand hunt recently, were the star actors. One evening when the mighty hunters had returned from their daily slaughter, and were quietly smoking the pipe of peace and playing poker for red chips, the alarm was raised that a crane of a rare species was sitting on a rock in the river catching fish. Grasping their trusty weapons, Strahorn and Waters began to cautiously creep upon the unsuspecting crane, trembling with excitement for fear that they would lose the valuable specimen. At length Waters drew a bead on the crane's head, shut his eyes, and pulled the trigger. When the smoke cleared away the bird was discovered in the same place, evidently taking great satisfaction in treating his enemies with supreme contempt. It was now Strahorn's turn and as he dropped on one knee and ran his eye along the trusty barrel, the gun cracked and the crane fell into the water and started to drift away. With a shout of triumph the two hunters dashed forward over rocks, through brush and into the river to secure the prize. After getting a thorough soaking, they at last succeeded in reaching the bird, and as Strahorn, standing knee deep in water, grasped it by the neck, the shout of triumph which was trembling on his lips died away, and holding the stuffed crane at arm's length, he muttered: "Sold, by thunder!" It was a well-planned joke by the ladies of the party, and the rare species of crane can be bought for two-bits at any Chinese store.

—J. G. Roope, of Sucker Creek, came in town yesterday morning after a physician to attend Chas. Neilson, who is seriously injured by being thrown by a horse. He was thrown in the morning and was not found until evening. He was unconscious when found, evidently having lain in that condition all day, nor had they yet succeeded in reviving him when Mr. Roope left. Dr. Maxey went to his relief yesterday morning.

—The jealous but unfortunate rivals of Rev. Boone are now trying to detract from his glory by making the following explanation: They say that a minister was such a curiosity in Long Valley that the curiosity of the poor, foolish bear got the better of his judgement, and he ventured down to take a peep at the preacher, when Boone shot him not knowing what it was. Such a base calumny needs no refutation.

—The Caldwell Band will give a dance at the Pacific Hotel on Tuesday evening, September 24th. The boys are making arrangements to have a grand time, and they will succeed in having it. Prof. Chapman, of Boise, will lead the music, thus insuring all that can be desired in that line. A nice time is guaranteed. Everybody come.

—DISSOLUTION NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing under the name of Campbell & Mott, in the livery business at Caldwell, Idaho, has been this day dissolved. —WANTED. A good milch cow. Inquire at this office.

—"It Saved My Life" Is a common expression, often heard from those who have realized, by personal use, the curative powers of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. "I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, believing as I do that, but for its use, I should long since have died from lung troubles.—E. Bragdon, Palestine, Tex. About six months ago I had a severe Hemorrhage of the Lungs, brought on by a distressing Cough, which deprived me of sleep and rest. I had used various cough balsams and expectorants, without obtaining relief. A friend advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and am happy to say that it helped me at once. By continued use of this medicine I cured my cough, and I am satisfied, saved my life.—Mrs. E. Coburn, 18 Second St., Lowell, Mass. I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave, had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy.—D. A. McMullen, Windsor, Province of Ontario. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years ago I took a very severe Cold which settled on my lungs. I consulted a physician, and took the remedies they prescribed, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health.—Lizzie M. Allen, West Lancaster, Ohio. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
