THE TRIBUNE.
CALDWELL, IDAHO, NOV. 17, 1888

—Call and get my prices on trimmed hats. M. B. Gwinn.

—Mr. J. Paul took a load of supplies to Silver this week.

—Mrs. Isidor Mayer visited her many friends in Silver City recently.

—Just received a nice assortment of plushes and satins at Gwinn's.

—Will Smith and Tom Ramsey were over from Reynolds Creek this week.

—Abner Packard, Jr. has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

—Don't forget Isham when you want drugs. He sells cheaper than his competitors can.

—All sick democrats can get their prescriptions filled at Isham's cheaper than elsewhere.

—Remember Gwinn has a very large stock of clothing, and can quote you prices at bed rock.

—Jim Wardwell, the manipulator of the republican wire at Emmett, was in town Tuesday.

—As the smoke of the campaign arises, Isham is seen at his old place selling drugs at lower prices than ever.

—As winter is coming on you will need some of those fine blankets, comfortables and pillows at Gwinn's.

—Caldwell Musical Association meets Saturday night in the Presbyterian church. A full attendance is desired.

—Mr. A. H. Barnes, of King Hill, is now acting station agent at this place, and C. C. Miller, of Blackfoot, is operator.

—Capt. John E. Stearns was elected justice of the peace of Nampa precinct. H-o-o-r-r-a for Judge Stearns! Tiger!

—James S. Negley, Jr. overtaxed his strength and has received a back set. He will be around all right shortly, we hope.

—Mrs. S. M. Coffin, who has been visiting her parents at Ottumwa, Iowa, for the past few months, returned home last Sunday.

—Frank Huntington, our constable elect, punched a fellow's head in a saloon the other day. Frank was practicing, we presume.

—Several enthusiastic republicans and the Caldwell band, went to Boise Wednesday to attend the grand republican jubilee. They say: "Bosh's (hic) all right."

—Robt. E. Strahorn was taken sick last Sunday and has been confined to his bed the entire week. We hope he will soon be able to be around again. It does not suit Mr. Strahorn's temperament to be sick.

—Those who did not attend the Presbyterian social at Rev. Boone's last Tuesday evening, missed a very pleasant evening's entertainment. The Presbyterian Socials are assuming their old time popularity, and are well attended.

—W. Fairbanks, of Long Valley, has won the title of "Butter King" by driving into Caldwell the other day with 700 pounds of excellent butter, of his own make. He disposed of the entire cargo to one of our merchants at 35 cents per pound.

—Of Interest to Ladies.—The scalp may be kept white and clean, and the hair soft, pliant and glossy by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation never fails to restore to faded and gray hair its original color. Sold by druggists and perfumers.

—Know all men by these presents: That the Union Pacific, "the Overland Route," and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., will run Pullman Palace Sleepers through daily from Denver to Chicago via Omaha and Council Bluffs.

—H. C. Moshier, who has proven himself to be one of that rare and almost extinct species—an obliging and good-natured station agent—has been granted a two month's vacation, and is going to visit in all sections of the United States and Idaho. Don't forget to come back, Moshier, you are welcome in Caldwell.

—Ralph Cowden and Dan Levan returned from a month's hunting trip last Wednesday. They invading the sacred domains of the grizzly bear and the elk in the Pine Grove district, but had to content themselves with deer, of which they bagged a dozen or more. They both returned in the best of health and spirits, and everybody is glad to see them.

—An enterprising sneak thief, who has been hanging around town for a few days, entered the office of Mrs. Mohr's hotel last Saturday night and stole G. W. Paul's overcoat and Prof. Harmen's valise. He was suspected and Constable Brown went to him and told him to produce the stolen articles or the citizens would hang him. They were produced in short order.

—A good cooking stove for sale cheap. Enquire at this office.

—Go to Isham and get some of that wall paper he is selling at cost. Got to be sold, you know.

—We are informed that Mr. Fred Hoffer will open up a new meat shop in Dorman's old stand.

—Five or six couples of Caldwell's young people attended a dance at Middleton last week. Ask Mike Roberts about it.

—Ladies remember Gwinn has the largest assortment of Toboggans and Tam O'Shaunters in the town. Call and see them.

—Jake Hamm is putting up a new blacksmith shop, 30x60, across the street from Coffin's warehouses. Jake has demonstrated in more ways than one that he is a rustler.

—Don't forget that Isham is closing out his lamps at less than cost. Throw away that old beer bottle you are using for a candle stick and go to Isham's and get a lamp.

—The Caldwell Band will give a dance Thanksgiving Eve, November 28, at Commercial Hotel. Everybody invited. The best of music has been secured, and a good time is assured.

—John Polett, well known about here, was kicked in the face by a mule recently, on the road between Boise and Idaho City. His nose was broken, the jaw bone fractured and it is probable he will lose the sight of one eye.

—Messrs. Wm. Holten and Henry Trump, friends of Cashier Scott back in "old Michigan," were the guests of the Scott household last Sunday. Mr. Holten goes to Huntington and Mr. Trump to Enterprise, Oregon, to take charge of stores.

—Look here, you men that have improved real estate and want to borrow money, why don't you go to the Stockgrowers and Traders Bank and get it. Scott has got a whole "bar'l" o' money" to loan on real estate on long time. Go and see him about it anyhow.

—Mr. David Lamme, of Payette, we are sorry to learn, will, in a few days leave for California, where he goes for the purpose of regaining his failing health. His many friends in Idaho hope that he may fully recover and soon return to this country.—Weiser Leader.

—A hungry growl is already emanating from the republican baricades for the Caldwell postoffice. The number who have signified their willingness to accept it is really alarming. Some time when we have a couple of extra columns, we will print their names, alphabetically arranged.

—The race between H. K. Hartley W. R. Lanktree for commissioner from this district, will have to be run over again, their vote being a tie. Here's a chance for democrats to resent the indignities suffered by them November 6th. Get a move on you, boys, the Old Roman says he wants to get there.

—Mr. C. F. Resesque has been promoted to the superintendency of the Nebraska division of the U. P., with headquarters at Omaha to supersede Robt. Blickensderfer, resigned. Mr. Resesque was the best superintendent the Idaho division ever had, and it is with regrets that the towns on the Short Line see him depart. He is succeeded by Mr. John Rapelje, late assistant superintendent of the Colorado division of the U. P.

—Mr. John Hunter, who has for the past year ably and fairly managed the affairs of the Idaho Central R. R., has resigned his position as superintendent of that road, to engage in other business. He is succeeded by Mr. E. S. Van Kuran, late chief clerk in the office of the Wyoming division. John Hunter has made many friends in Caldwell during his term in office, and has done a great deal to bring about an era of good feeling between the capital city and her sister towns. We trust his mantle has been worthily bestowed.

—It is not often that any person lives to read his own obituary. Few and far between indeed are the fortunate mortals who can pick up a newspaper and read of his own departure from this vale of tears, read of his virtues and his vices as set forth in the judgment of his fellowman upon his departed soul. Such, however, is the position of John Ireton, of Squaw Creek. Some weeks ago THE TRIBUNE, in common with other south Idaho papers, published the sad news of John Ireton's death, at Rising Sun, Iowa. As he was a well-known and influential man, the item was extensively copied, and is still going the rounds of the press. But now comes the word that John Ireton is not dead, but is on the high road to recovery and health. We sincerely trust that the report is correct, but it seems almost too good to be true. The report of the death was given on seemingly good authority, and the counter report also seems well founded. We have failed to get either authenticated.

THE DEMOCRATS' LAMENT.

Who now raise up their hideous voice,
And shout about the people's choice—
A man named Frederick T. Deloitte?
The Republicans!

Who were they that put up their tin
To use against our gallant Jim,
And got their work superbly in?
The Republicans!

Who went into this fight for blood,
And rolled us in political mud,
Then let us down with a sickening thud?
The Republicans!

Who thought they were tarination slick,
And resorted to a Mormon trick,
To make us democrats feel sick?
The Republicans!

Who howled and harped about free land,
And other things our leaders said,
And made us wish we were dead?
The Republicans!

Who laugh and jeer when 'ere they meet
A democrat upon the street,
Because he suffered a defeat?
The Republicans!

Who will run up against some day
A democrat who's come to stay,
And with a black eye go away?
Some Republican!

Who's he that says our sun is set,
But who is anxious for us to get
Up action enough to pay our bet?
A Republican!

Who stand upon the streets and tell
How they helped sound our funeral knell,
And intimate that they're Old 11—
The Republicans!

Who for two years will Democrats mock,
And draw the salaries and talk,
But then up Salt Creek take a walk?
The Republicans!

P. S.—They won't be able to buy a boat after the next campaign.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Gwinn visited Boise this week.

—Special Land Agent Maj. Brooksbrough, who was directed to select a location for the land office in the new land district comprising Grant, Malheur, and Lake counties recommended Dreyer, at the old Malheur agency. The recommendation is a great disappointment to the towns of Harney, Burns, Canyon City, and Vale.

—THE TRIBUNE has just turned out another twenty-page pamphlet from its ever busy job department. It is the proceedings of the First Baptist Association of Idaho, which recently held its session at this place. This body used to send its printing east, until last year the clerk, D. P. Maryatt, Jr., of Weiser, awarded it to THE TRIBUNE. So well pleased was the Association with THE TRIBUNE's work and figures last year, that this year they placed their manuscript in THE TRIBUNE'S hands immediately after the session, without even soliciting a bid, evidently determined to save time and postage stamps, and demonstrating that they honor the teaching, "prove all things; and hold fast to that which is good."

The result is that they have a good book in due season and at a low price. Mr. Maryatt writes in the letter inclosing the remittance: "You did a good job and in good season, for which accept thanks."
