A Creaking Hinge

In dry and hard, until oil is applied, after which it moves easily. When the joints, or hinges, of the body are stiffened and inflamed by Rheumatism, they cannot be moved without causing the most excruciating pains.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has effected, in our city, many most remarkable cures, in cases which baffled the efforts of the most experienced physicians.

Rheumatism, after being troubled with it for years. In this, and all other diseases arising from impure blood, there is no remedy with which I am acquainted, that affords such relief as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me of Gout and Rheumatism, when nothing else would. It has eradicated every trace of disease from my system.

Special election for County Commissioner, second district, next Tuesday, Nov. 27.

The issue presented in electing a County Commissioner is not political but TAXPAYING. Every voter should bear this in mind.

Alturas, the "banner" county of Idaho, cast 2700' votes for delegate at the late election. Ada is a good second with 1700 votes.

The election of a Board of County Commissioners is of as much importance to the people of Ada county as that of President of the United States.

Hon. John M. Burke has been re-elected to the Assembly from Shoshone and Kootenai counties.

The next Idaho legislature ought to make an effort to provide an equitable and satisfactory water law to protect the increasing irrigation interests of the Territory.

The Fifteenth General Assembly of Idaho will convene at Boise City, on Monday, December 10th, 1888.

The official returns of the vote in Virginia give Cleveland 151,977; Harrison, 150,442; Cleveland's majority, 1,535.

There will be a total eclipse of the sun visible in Idaho, Nevada, Montana, and the Pacific coast, January 1, 1889.

Death of a Pioneer Idahan. The Boise Statesman, 22d inst., records the death of Benjamin F. Anderson, at his home in that city.

Ben Anderson, as he was familiarly called, was born in Pennsylvania, but left home and learned the carpenter's trade.

When the mining excitement broke out in California he struck out for the gold fields, of that state.

He followed gold excitement in California, and went to Frazier river, in British Columbia, about 1860.

and finally came to the Florence gold excitement in 1862, and to Boise county in 1863, and has remained in the Territory ever since.

Ben Anderson was what might be termed a rough frontier miner, and had his likes and dislikes, but his friendship was generous to a fault.

and he never did or said too much for a friend. His property, consisting of a house and lots, worth $3,000, will go to his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Davis, of Weiser, Idaho.

Annexation. The prospects for annexation are far better than ever before, for if, as it is claimed by the Republicans, they have captured the lower house along with their presidential victory.

all the territories will be admitted that will make republican states, Washington among the rest, and with the republican influence that is in favor of the annexation of North Idaho to Washington, we have every reason to believe this desired result will be easily accomplished.

Journalistic Amenities. On Wednesday evening last, in the Democrat office, at Boise City, the old Jud Boyakin was so overjoyed at republican successes, both national and territorial, that he melted his roller.

As it was nearing the hour of going to press he borrowed one from Kelly, which proved too long and hard for his use.

Weiser Leader. Another confirmation of the old saying, "The older the buck the stiffer the horn."

Moss' Shooting in Grant County Or. From the News we learn that a sheep herder by the name of Finley McKay, was shot through the right lung by one Francis Le Blanc on the range in Coyote Basin near Dayville.

There had been some dispute in regard to the range, which was government land and claimed by both Murray and McRae. The young man was shot in the right breast, the ball going through his right lung and through his right arm which was hanging by his side.

President Cleveland and Presidential-Elect Harrison.

Philadelphia Times, Dec. Our industry cannot and will not assent to the continuance of the present paralyzing taxes on the necessities of life and business, nor will it tolerate a tariff that is framed in the interest of monopoly greed.

Of General Harrison this journal has often spoken and always in the terms of respect that his public and private character and attainment so well merit.

He is a blameless citizen; a gallant soldier; an able and cultured gentleman; an experienced statesman and he will bring to the highest civil trust of the world unstained integrity.

If he shall prove as courageous in action as he is honest in purpose, he will make a most successful administration; if he fulfills the hopes of the spoilsman and the horde of plunderers who supported him because they hated Cleveland for his honesty, it would be better, far better, for his fame and his happiness, both in office and when the charms of authority shall have perished, that he was vanquished instead of victor to-day.

He is now the chosen President of the whole people, and he is entitled to their generous support in all his public acts which shall be worthy of commendation, and of reluctant censure for the inevitable errors of all political rule.

The judgment of the nation has been pronounced in his favor, and if he is worthy of his exceptional honor and trust he will now cease to be the ruler of a party and become the ruler of sixty millions of the noblest people of the earth.

Thanksgiving. In accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States, designating Thursday, November 29, 1888, as a day on which to give thanks to God for the many blessings which He has been pleased to extend during the past year, Edward A. Stevenson, Governor of Idaho, recommends a general cessation of the cares of business on that day to the end that the same may be fittingly and properly observed.

The Wild and Woolly West. Dr. J. G. McDonald of Cincinnati, says an exchange, has been doing Washington Territory. He writes to a friend in the east, "that every tuft of sage brush is an elysian bower, every rippling stream is a magnificent Cascade, every bunch of rocks a mine of inexhaustible wealth, and every man the d-d'est liar on earth."

In the Alaskan Gold Fields. The gravel washing season of the Yukon river has closed. The season was unusually brief this year, the extremely cold weather coming earlier than was expected.

This, however, will not interrupt the taking out of gold-bearing gravel, but will in a measure facilitate their work. The river freezes to a great depth, and on the banks and bars the ice is frequently solid to the bottom.

The miners cut away the ice and then dig up the gravel, which is also frozen solid, and carry it in great masses to the flume stations prepared for its reception. Here the gravel is stored until the river breaks up, when it is run through the flumes and the gold recovered.

In this way one part took out $1,500 to the hand for the season's run. The gold is coarse, nuggets ranging from $20 to $40 in value being found. Provisions are high priced. Flour costs 20 cents a pound; bacon, 40 cents; beans, 30 cents; sugar, 30; dried apples, 30, and other things in proportion, there being a fair supply of all the articles required.

In the open season fish are plentiful. Last winter there were forty cases of scurvy among the miners, and three deaths occurred. The Indians are peaceable and willing to work.

Continuation of Remarkable Prizes. No. 73,946 in the drawing of the Louisiana state lottery, Oct. 9th, drew the second capital prize $100,000. It was sold in fractional twentieths at $1 each; one collected for a depositor through Wells, Fargo & Co., San Francisco, Cal.; another to E. M. Casey, 22 Oliver St., Algiers, La.; another to H. Clark, Charleston, Tex.; one to Chas. Golchart, Greenville, Mich.; one to W. S. Haley, New York; one to F. C. King, New York; one to Chas. J. Harkins, 70 N. Margin St., Boston, Mass.; etc. No. 82,453 drew the third capital prize of $50,000; 5-20 went to A. Willard, agt., Guaymas, Mex. No. 43,922 drew the 4th capital prize of $25,000, also sold in twentieths. The next drawing is also the mammoth drawing when the three first capital prizes are respectively $600,000, $200,000 and $100,000. It is on Tuesday, December 18. Information can be had on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.
