Louisiana State Lottery Co.
Incorporated by the Legislature in 1868, for educational and charitable purposes, and its franchise made a part of the present State Constitution, in 1879, by an overwhelming popular vote.

Its GRAND EXTRAORDINARY DRAWINGS take place semi-annually, (June and December) and its Grand Single Number Drawings take place on each of the other ten months in the year, and are all drawn in public, at the Academy of Music, New Orleans, La.

"We do hereby certify that we supervise the arrangements for all the Monthly and Semi-Annual Drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, and in person manage and control the drawings themselves, and that the same are conducted with honesty, fairness, and in good faith toward all parties, and authorize the Company to use this certificate with the same effect as our signatures attached, in its advertisements."

THE TRIBUNE.

CALDWELL, IDAHO, NOV. 24, 1888

—Cranberries at Mayer's.

—Tim Shea and D. Driscoll were over from Jordan Valley this week.

—A good cooking stove for sale cheap. Enquire at this office.

—A. M. Shreckongost is building a residence near the Presbyterian church.

—Capt. Wm. Nye, of Boise, was in town hobnobbing with the old vets. this week.

—John Zenher went to Boise City last Thursday. He went to look after Dorman.

—Dr. Pefferle and family are now comfortable situated in their new home in Caldwell.

—Don't forget Isham when you want drugs. He sells cheaper than his competitors can.

—Go to Isham and get some of that wall paper he is selling at cost. Got to be sold, you know.

—Fred Epstein, a leading merchant of Boise City, was in town a day or two next week.

—Remember Gwinn has a very large stock of clothing, and can quote you prices at bed rock.

—Don't forget to vote for commissioner Tuesday. You do not have to register for this election.

—J. G. Whitney, the Payette nurseryman, has been making deliveries in this vicinity this week.

—Mrs. B. T. Young's mother, who has been visiting her for some months, returned to her home in Omaha, the 13th inst.

—Mr. John Hailey, Jr., of Boise City, was in town last Thursday. He looks remarkably well and cheerful for a democrat.

—Therisa Pefferle will give instruction on the piano and organ. For terms inquire of her at the residence of Dr. Pefferle.

—Mr. John Lindsay, of Boise, called at this office last Thursday. Read the notice of Lindsay & Livingston in another column.

—John Allington, of Silver City, kicked in our office door last Monday. On account of his youth and good looks he was allowed to escape uninjured.

—Don't forget that Isham is closing out his lamps at less than cost. Throw away that old beer bottle you are using for a candle stick and go to Isham's and get a lamp.

—Mrs. Brunt Young was in town last Thursday, and made THE TRIBUNE office a pleasant call. It was from her that we learned the particulars of the averted railroad accident.

—Charlie Reed, clerk at Mrs. Mohr's Hotel, recently received back pension to the amount of $1,100, and will receive $30 per month in the future. And thus are the brave ever rewarded.

—Cormick Shorb is now first assistant devil and general bouncer in THE TRIBUNE office. He takes to the case like an old tyro and we expect to see him pound up 10,000 cuss a day in a few months.

—All you dancers take notice. The dance to be given by the Caldwell Band is not on Thanksgiving night, but on Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, Nov. 28. Everybody invited and a great time assured.

—Hank Dorman, the gentlemanly and competent book keeper at Gwinn's, went to Boise Wednesday to put a filing on a portion of the old Whitehead entry. Hank has been holding it by Squatter's Rights.

—Chas. A. Clark, of Boise City, made THE TRIBUNE a pleasant call Wednesday. Mr. Clark is an old Knight of the shears and paste pot, but has reformed, and is now representing Bradstreet's Commercial Agency.

—A young child belonging to some immigrants on their way to the coast, died on the train. The relatives of the little one stopped off here last Thursday and buried the child in the Caldwell cemetery. It was a sad funeral.

—All those who want first-class dental work should call on Dr. Pefferle. He is recognized as being one of the finest dentists on the coast, and his long years of successful practice in Idaho is in itself a guarantee of fitness and worth. Dr. Pefferle is now located Caldwell, and solicits the patronage of the community.

—As there were some doubts and many theories regarding registration at the special election for commissioner, next Tuesday, Hon. H. K. Hartley went to Boise and obtained the opinions of District Attorney John S. Gray and Attorney General R. Z. Johnson on the subject. It is the decision of both of these men that the registration law applies to general elections only, and that special elections must be held the same as under the old law, and no registration is required. Voters should remember this and govern themselves accordingly.

—There will be services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

—P. J. Pefferle has sold his harness shop in Boise and will go to the Sound.

—Ben. Anderson, an old pioneer in Idaho, died at Boise on the 21st inst. of pneumonia.

—Grover Smith, who used to cook at various hotels in Caldwell, was married in Boise recently.

—The old weather liars are beginning to materialize. Give 'em room according to their ability.

—The wife of Judge Brodrick, recently of the Idaho bench, died at Holton, Kansas, the 13th inst.

—The Alturas division ticket cast 618 votes. They were nearly all from Mountain Home and Rocky Bar.

—Next Thursday is the day of prayer and fasting. It looks now as though we will be compelled to take ours all out in prayer.

—The mail service is getting pretty rank again. THE TRIBUNE will stir up the animals and hear them growl, shortly.

—S. N. Moe has a fine $60 music box at his store which he proposes to raffle off. There are thirty chances at two dollars each. It is an elegant instrument and the chances are being rapidly taken. Go and win it.

—The registration law applies to general elections only. No registration is required for the special election for commissioner next Tuesday. Everybody can vote, subject to challenge and the decision of the judges.

—Already there is a coal famine along the Short Line. The only hope of Caldwell is that Providence will temper the winds to the shorn lamb. Even the railroad company's bin is empty, and the darkness of the night avails nothing.

—Jim Smith, of Long Valley, was in town last Monday. He says that the money raised for the Long Valley road is being judiciously expended, and that the best and shortest road out of that famous country leads to Caldwell.

—We would call attention to the new advertisement of Fred Hoffer's New Meat Market. He has opened up a first-class shop in Dorman's old stand, and will keep constantly on hand all kinds of fresh meat. He solicits a share of the public patronage.

—The directors of the Building and Loan Association held their regular meeting last Tuesday evening and loaned $1,000 to stockholders. The borrowers were Isidor Mayer, $500; R. E. Miller, $500; W. C. Maxey, $500. The Loan Association keeps money turning.

—Scrofula is one of the most fatal among the scourges which afflict mankind. Chronic sores, cancerous humors, emaciation, and consumption, are the results of scrofula. Ayer's Sarsaparilla eradicates this poison, and restores to the blood the elements of life and health.

—At North Bend, Nebraska, the republicans gave a grand free oyster supper in honor of their victory at the polls, and invited their defeated democratic brethren to seek consolation in the succulent bivalve at their expense. If a suggestion from us would be accepted, we would say that an oyster supper at republican expense in this county would go a long way toward again making us a happy and united people, even at this late day.

—We are indebted to Governor Stevenson for a copy of his report to the Secretary of the Interior. It is a handsome pamphlet of sixty-eight pages and is overflowing with useful information concerning our wonderful territory. It plainly shows that Governor Stevenson has spared neither pains or expense to collect and arrange the interesting data and statistics with which the book abounds. We will print engaging extracts from time to time.

—The golden wedding bells rang merrily last Tuesday evening at Emmett, in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the married life of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gill. This estimable old couple were united in marriage at Newark, Ohio, November 20, 1838, and have fought the battle of life together for half a century. In 1865 they came to Emmett, Idaho, and by twenty-five years of continuous residence in the Payette valley, have endeared themselves to everybody. Last Tuesday evening about forty of their most intimate friends celebrated their golden wedding. A most superb repast was served, after which the old people, carried back to their youth by the pleasant memories of the past, led the merry dance, as they undoubtedly did fifty years ago. Both the old couple are nearing the four score stones in the path of life. They have but two children, M. Gill, who still lives with the "old folks," and Mrs. Judge N. M. Hanthorn, of Weiser.

—The monthly Gospel Temperance meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. All invited.

—The special election for the choosing of a commissioner for the second district will be held on Monday next, in which H. K. Hartley and Mr. Lanktree will have another go at each other. It will be conducted under the old law, without registration. Mr. Hartley, the Democratic nominee for re-election, has made a record without blemish as commissioner. It stands unparalleled for fairness, justice and economy. He has always stood in for the rights of the people but without injustice to the private individual. In a nutshell he has been a faithful guardian of the county's interests, well deserves re-election, and the voters of that district should see that he is returned.—Idaho Democrat.

—The "Chinese Masons" met at this place last week, and marched a number of celestials through the solemn mysteries of that ancient order at $15 per head. The Chinese claim that their order is "all the same Melican man's Masons," but a little higher grade—more ancient grand and mystical, and richer in the lore and magnificent teachings of antiquity. Judging from the ceaseless jabbering kept up for twenty-four hours, they must be accorded the palm for the most copious flow of ceremonial language of an initiatory nature. The impression made on the weary candidate cannot fail to be deep and lasting. A march of twenty-four hours through changing scenes of archeological mysteries is something not soon to be forgotten. The meeting was a big affair, Chinese being in attendance from all parts of the Basin. A Chinaman who was interviewed in regard to the nature of the order, gave as much information as he could without giving away the sacred secrets. He said: "Him alle same Melican Mason. Him bet-ter. China Mason more like blunder. One Chinaman he Mason, 'nudder Chinaman Mason too, he no quarrel; he no fighte him. Suppose he fighte Chinaman no Mason, all Mason helpee him—and man no Mason, all Mason liecke him like hell. Two Chinamen, if he no Mason, hep fighte, all light. Mason no lush in and say 'whasser matter now?' He lette him fight alle same Melican man. No matter. Melican Mason no alle same blunder like China Mason. Melican Mason fighte 'nudder Mason—alle same—no matter. He no alle same likee men got one mudder. You heep savey now?"—Idaho World.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

As the east-bound passenger was thundering along at fifty miles an hour last Thursday, the engineer saw a man on the track ahead frantically waving his handkerchief evidently trying to flag the train. The whistle sounded down breaks and the train was stopped as soon as possible, when the man explained that one of the rails was broken on the bridge just a short distance ahead. An investigation proved his story to be true. At a point about nine miles west of Weiser there is a small bridge, and it was at this place that the young man, who was evidently in hard luck and trapping it to Portland, discovered the break. He realized the danger of a wreck, and waited for the first train to flag it and avert a catastrophe. The first train happened to be the east-bound passenger, consisting of five or six fairly filled coaches. About a foot of one of the rails on the bridge was broken completely out and gone. Had the train not been stopped it would have been thrown from the bridge thirty feet below. This is once, at least, that the tie pass passenger has made himself useful, for by accidentally discovering the break and flagging the train he saved many human lives and thousands of dollars worth of property. The conductor passed the hat among the passengers and a purse of $20 was taken up for his benefit. The conductor also telegraphed for a pass to Portland for him. His name was Fred Woodruff.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Convention of the Idaho Sunday School Association, recently held in Boise City, was the first one the officers have held without help from others outside the territory. It was a success so far as the program was concerned, but the attendance, especially at the day sessions, was so small as to fully justify a complaint against the Christian people of Boise for their lack of interest in the Sunday school work. There were three delegates from places outside of Boise, one from Hailey and two from Caldwell. Thirty-three schools were reported, with about 2,500 pupils in attendance. Many schools had failed to make their report. The next convention will be held in Hailey, upon the call of the Executive Committee. Mr. J. H. Beemer, of Hailey, was elected President for the coming year; Rev. J. H. Barton, of Boise, chairman of the executive committee; and Mr. W. S. Bruce, of Boise, statistical secretary. The Association is now well organized, has held one convention, which was, indeed, a good one, and therefore looks forward to a very prosperous future.

Perfect Hair

Indicates a natural and healthy condition of the scalp, and of the glands through which nourishment is obtained. When, in consequence of age and disease, the hair becomes weak, thin, and gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will strengthen it, restore its original color, promote its rapid and vigorous growth, and impart to it the lustre and freshness of youth.

I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a long time, and am convinced of its value. When I was 17 years of age my hair began to turn gray. I commenced using this Vigor, and in a few weeks the gray began to disappear. It not only restored the color to my hair, but also caused it to grow, and I have now more hair than I ever before.
