Thirteen thousand citizens of Utah have petitioned Congress against its admission as a state.

The bill of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, admitting Idaho as a state, extends the elective franchise to women.

W. C. B. Allen, of the Shoshone Journal, has resigned his position as live stock agent of the Short Line. He is succeeded by H. W. Adams.

Elsewhere on this page is given the full text of Mitcham's high license bill which is now before the Idaho Legislature. In view of the probability of its passage in some form, it is well worth a careful perusal by those interested.

In the Idaho legislature, Kuntz introduced a bill Wednesday relating to the elective franchise, which is supplemental to the famous test oath bill. It provides that a person must be out of the Mormon church for three years in order to become a legal voter.

HIGH LICENSE.
A Full Text of the Bill.

Section 1. Before a license for the disposal or sale of any spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wines in less quantities than one quart, shall be granted to any person applying for the same, such person shall present to the board of county commissioners of the county in which such liquors or wine is intended to be sold, a petition or recommendation, signed by a majority of the residents of the precinct, of twenty-one years of age and over, in which such spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wines is to be sold, recommending such person as a fit person to keep the same, and requesting that a license be granted to him for such purpose.

Sec. 2. Upon each and every license granted for the disposal or sale of any spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wine, in less quantities than one quart, there shall be levied, a tax of not less than $400 or more than $1,000 for every period of twelve months, the amount of the tax to be determined by the board of county commissioners granting the license; the said tax to be paid into the treasury of the county granting such license; two-tenths for territorial purposes and eight-tenths for county purposes.

Sec. 3. Any person without taking out and having a license as required by this act, who shall directly or indirectly sell any malt, spirituous or fermented liquors or wine, or intoxicating liquors, shall be fined in any sum not more than $100 for each offense; and any person convicted or violating these provisions, shall for every second or subsequent offense, be fined a sum not more than the above named, or may be indicted for a misdemeanor, and fined not less than $100 or more than $500 and imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months.

Sec. 4. Any person who shall keep open any porter, ale or beer house, grocery, dram shop, saloon, bar, or tipping house, or shall sell or retail any fermented, distilled or intoxicating liquors on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, the Fourth of July, or upon any election day, shall on conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than $25 nor more than $100, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment, together with costs of such prosecution. If such person is licensed under this act, he shall in addition to the above provision, forfeit his license, and shall not again be allowed to obtain a license under the law for a period of two years next after conviction.

Sec. 5. Before any person shall be licensed to sell or dispose of spirituous, malt, or fermented liquors or wine in less quantities than one quart under the provisions of this act, he shall execute to Idaho Territory a bond in the sum of $2,000, with at least two sureties to be approved by the county commissioners, before whom application for such license is pending, conditioned that he will not keep a disorderly house; that he will not sell or permit to be sold any intoxicating liquors to any minor; that he will not keep his dram shop, saloon or bar open on Sundays, Fourth of July or any election day, nor will he sell or allow to be sold thereat, on Sunday, Fourth of July or any election day directly or indirectly, any spirituous, malt, or fermented liquors or wine, and upon said person being convicted of any of the offenses enumerated therein, suit may be brought against said principal and securities, to recover the amount of the fine or fines and costs adjudged against him on said conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 6. Every person who shall directly or indirectly knowingly sell, barter or give away any intoxicating liquor to any person who is in the habit of being intoxicated, after notice shall have been given him by the wife, child, parent, brother or sister of such person, or by any civil officer charged with the care or custody of the poor of the county or city where he resides that such person is in the habit of being intoxicated, or to any person in a state of intoxication, or to any minor without the consent of his parent or guardian, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine not less than $5 nor more than $100 and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten nor more than sixty days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person to get intoxicated, and every person found in a state of intoxication shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, be fined the sum of $5 and costs of prosecution.

Sec. 8. Every person who shall by the sale, barter or gift of intoxicating liquors, cause the intoxication of any other person, such person or persons shall be liable for and compelled to pay a reasonable compensation to any person who may take charge of and provide for such intoxicated person, and $5 per day in addition thereto for every day such intoxicated person shall be kept in consequence of such intoxication, which sum may be recovered by a civil action before any court having jurisdiction.

Sec. 10. The giving away of intoxicating liquors or other shifts or device to evade the provisions of this act shall be deemed and held to be an unlawful selling within the provisions of this act.

Sec. 11. For all fines and costs assessed against any person or persons for any violation of this act the real estate and personal property of such person or persons, of every kind, not exempt, shall be liable for the payment thereof, and such fines and costs shall be a lien upon such real estate until paid, and in case any person or persons shall rent or lease any building or premises and knowingly suffer the same to be used and occupied for the sale of intoxicating liquors contrary to this act, such building and premises so leased and occupied, shall be held liable for and may be sold to pay all fines and costs assessed against the person occupying such building or premises for any violation of this act.

Sec. 12. In all prosecutions under this act, by indictment or otherwise, it shall not be necessary to state the kind of liquor sold, but it shall be necessary to describe the place where sold; and for any violation of the third or fourth sections, it shall not be necessary to state the name of the person to whom sold, and in all cases the person or persons to whom intoxicating liquors shall be sold, in violation of this act, shall be competent as witnesses to prove such fact or any other tending thereto.

Sec. 13. All sales of liquors made by a keeper of a dramshop, saloon or bar, on a credit, shall be void and of no effect, and the debt thereby attempted to be created shall not be recoverable at law.

Sec. 14. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 15. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of May, 1889.

INFURIATED LABORERS.
The Failure of Oregon Pacific Railroad Contractors Causes Trouble.

From the dispatches below given it will be observed that all is not smooth sailing with the Oregon Pacific railroad work. Happily the difficulty this time is confined to the contractors—the company not responsible in any degree for the trouble.

ALBANY, Or., Dec. 26.—About 300 laborers on the Oregon Pacific railroad, who have been thrown out of employment by the recent failure of Contractors Jacobs & Neugass, are in this city without money. They have time checks on the contractors who failed, but of course they cannot secure money on their paper. Many of them had not even sufficient money to purchase a meal, and the city council this morning provided those without money with breakfast at the hotels. Many of them left to-day for Corvallis, where a committee from the laborers waited upon Vice President Wallis Nash. They were told that the Oregon Pacific Co. paid Jacobs & Neugass last week $15,000, but that the pay for December work is still due. This amount, which will probably cover the $8,000 due the men, it is likely they will receive, in which event the laborers will lose little or nothing of their wages. Since the failure of Jacobs & Neugass several attachments for small sums have been levied upon the plant of Searles & Deane, the other contractor, but it is thought they will be able to meet their obligations.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.
About one hundred and seventy-five laborers, mostly Italians and Irishmen, arrived from the front on the O. P. railroad this Dec. 26, and came for the purpose of a settlement with Meyers, Neugass & Jacobs. They hired a counsel, and are camped. They were immediately informed by Mr. Neugass that he could not settle, but desired them to appoint a committee of five to consult with and an O. P. committee, as to the best terms of settlement. The first meeting was held at 1 o'clock, and a compromise of fifty cents on the dollar was offered them, which proved unsatisfactory and seemed to cause more excitement. About two hours later another consultation was held, but the result has not been learned, only that the railroad could pay off for December work, but would expect Myers & Co. to settle for all November work.

Armed men guard Hamilton & Job's bank, and the sheriff and posse guard the railroad office, besides an extra police force is on duty. The laborers say they must have every cent or trouble will be raised. Three hundred and fifty more laborers are expected to-night or tomorrow, and great excitement and trouble may be caused. There is not a citizen on the streets but what is armed, it is supposed. The saloon, were ordered closed at 8 a. m. by the Mayor, which has helped to keep things as quiet as they now are.

A report has also been circulated here that Searles & Deane's men have struck, and that a man named Smith was strung up near Mill City last night, but how true this is cannot be learned. The mayor has received authority from the governor to call on the militia if necessary, and some of the company will be on duty to-night.

Statehood For Idaho.

The bill introduced in the House Wednesday by Chairman of the House Committee on Territories Springer, provides an enabling act for the admission of Arizona and Idaho as states. The people of the two territories are authorized to hold elections on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1889, for the election of delegates to a constitutional convention to meet the first Wednesday in January, 1890. The constitution framed at these conventions are to be voted upon by the people of the two proposed states on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1889, and if a majority should be found in favor of ratification authority is given each territory to form a state government, which, however, shall remain in abeyance until the respective state constitutions shall be approved by congress.

The names of four of the proposed new States now seeking admission into the Union are Tacoma, Montezuma, Sanona and Dakota. These are the new names of the Territories of Washington, New Mexico, South Dakota and North Dakota.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin's annual report of the wool market of the United States shows the present supply of 1,000,000 pounds, and 1,000,000 pounds at year.
