- The New York Sun.
The New York World.
The New York Tribune.
The St. Louis Globe Democrat.
The Republic (Missouri Republican.)
San Francisco Call.
The Detroit Free Press.
Louisville Courier-Journal.

This offer is good until withdrawn, but may be withdrawn at any time. Get a bargain now while you can.

—R. E. Miller is in Boise City.
—Mrs. Sam. Ball has been quite sick the past two weeks.

—W. H. Thorpe went to Vale on business last Tuesday.

—Rev. Gwinn and family left for the east Wednesday night.

—A brother of John Rowland arrived from Iowa last Thursday.

—Mike Hyde, the great man of Oreana, was in town a few days this week.

—There will be services at the Presbyterian church to-morrow evening.

—Frank McMahon, of Succor Creek, is attending the Caldwell public schools.

—The Payette Nurseries have the thanks of this office for a box of fine grapes.

—"Deacon" Wardwell and Judson Allerton came over from Emmett Thursday.

—Lou. Stafford is learning to be a blacksmith under the efficient teaching of Si. Morrow.

—Miss Dollie Mott, of Middleton, visited Miss Delia Gilgan, of this city, a few days this week.

—Howard Sebree Co. have their store piled full of new dry goods. And Ralph Oakes is in his glory.

—G. W. Paul, C. S. Scott, Geo. Little and C. H. Sebree are attending Masonic Grand Lodge at Boise City.

—Frank R. Coffin was in Caldwell last Sunday. Frank R. is one of Boise City's few enterprising men.

—Miss Addie Andrews, of Middleton, was the guest of Miss Charlie Lucas several days this week.

—Miss Ada Madden has been engaged to teach the coming term at Ontario, Oregon. An excellent selection.

—C. S. Scott, passed through town Tuesday night on his way to Boise City. His wife and mother went with him.

—Mr. J. M. Martin was called from Boise City, where he was attending court, on account of the illness of his wife.

—R. M. Smith, of Smith & Woods, has returned from the east where he took a couple cars of cattle some time ago.

—We enclose the "Constitution of the State of Idaho" in the papers of our county readers to-day. Everybody should read it.

—Ex-Mayor P. J. Peffer, of Boise City, and his son, Harlan, came down on Sunday's special to help dedicate the Methodist church.

—O. W. Winslow, J. J. Apperson, H. J. Shorb and two or three other citizens of Caldwell were summoned to Boise City last Monday to act as jurors.

—Misses Clara and Annie Payne, two very estimable Boise City young ladies, are visiting Misses Laura and Hattie Patton, of this place.

—"Mick" Shorb has returned from the mountain fastness to his "case" in this office. The paper will now again resume its high standard.

—Miss Eliza E. Mitchell, a graduate of Amity College, Iowa. Arrived from Des Moines, last Wednesday, and will take charge of the Franklin school.

—Mrs. S. B. Mann, of Boise City, visited her friends here this week, on her way to Washoe, where she is engaged to teach the coming term of school.

—Mr. J. C. Connors, of Silver City, spent a few days in Caldwell this week. He enlisted in THE TROOPERS army while here, and will make a gallant soldier.

—Prof. Martin says the public schools start off very pleasantly, with about one hundred enrolled. Miss Ora Lucas and Mrs. Mary McCrum are the assistant teachers.

—Mrs. Rev. W. J. Boone left last Wednesday night for a two months' visit with friends in Pennsylvania. The Rev. will apply for membership in the Bachelors Club.

—Robt. Noble, Idaho's great sheep man, was in town several days this week. He says feed is fine but water scarce, and that all righteous stockmen are praying for rain.

—Station Agent Barnes has purchased the Iowa House.

—Mr. A. A. Hoover has been quite sick the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Foote's little boy was seriously sick one day this week.

—Mrs. M. E. Gwinn is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hanthorn, of Weiser.

—Billy Isaacs and Mrs. H. D. Blatchley are visiting at Horse Shoe Bend.

—Miss Lizzie Newman, of Middleton, is sick, at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. Masterson.

—T. J. Huff, formerly with the Oregon Horse & Land Co., now runs the Riverside Ferry for Capt. W. L. Geary.

—C. W. Cooper has lumber on the way for his new lumber yard, which will be opened up on Kimball Street, north side of the track.

—Mr. A. J. Wilson made THE TRIBUNE a couple of type stands this week, and the neatness of the job proclaims Wilson a first-class mechanic.

—Gus. Harvey and Court Northrup, two Boise City boys who were once citizens of this metropolis came down Sunday to get a taste of city life.

—It now appears that the item which went the rounds of the territorial press, to the effect that one man killed another in the Shoshone jail, is utterly without foundation.

—Harlen Peffer has entered in partnership with his father in the harness business at this place. Jesse Harmon and Moore's Revealed Remedy are turning out lots of nice work.

—Mr. J. R. Beck dropped into the sanctum the other day to say THE TRIBUNE was the best local paper he ever saw, and offer financial encouragement. Beck's voice is strong and loud for Statehood.

—Walter Sebree, private secretary to Gov. White, of Montana, visited his parents here a few days this week. Walter says the Governor is a great help to him in deciding delicate questions of state.

—Hon. D. L. Badley returned last Sunday from a six-week's visit through southern and central Idaho. He had a very successful trip. He says Caldwell is the best and liveliest town he has seen yet.

—Chas. Maskrey, who worked on THE TRIBUNE last winter, and who is now "holding cases" on the Statesman, came down with the rest of the good brothers to help dedicate the new church last Sunday. A religious printer is a "rare avis."

—The Vale Atlas and the Malheur Gazette, both printed in a town of fifty people and a proposed brewery, are indulging in personalities. The Gazette calls the Atlas "At-last" and the Atlas retaliates by calling its neighbor "old Guts-ache."

—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kautzman, left last Tuesday night for Stuart, Iowa. Mrs. K. has been quite sick for the past month and her physician recommended a change to old familiar sights and faces. Their departure is very much regretted.

—Badley can't stand prosperity. As fast as he makes a dollar he "blows it in." The receipts of his strong box probably went a little above his expectations last week, so he had Bob. Bryant tear out his old shelling and put in new. It is a great improvement.

—The brute who performed on the trapeze with his wife, in McMahon's circus, struck the woman on the head with a coupling pin, at Huntington, Oregon. He should now give the performance of hanging by his neck, with the assistance of a sheriff.

—"The West Shore" magazine will be issued weekly instead of monthly as heretofore, the first weekly number appearing September 14. The magazine will retain its high literary standard, and will completely fill "a long felt want." Subscription, $4.00 per year. Single copies ten cents.

—We had the honor of a call from Col. French, the talented editor of the Idaho Statesman, last Sunday. He has our thanks for a copy of the "Constitution of the State of Idaho" recently turned out at the Statesman office. It is a neatly printed pamphlet of thirty-six pages, and we hope every citizen of Idaho will give it a careful perusal.

—Charlie Isaacs, of Pendleton, came to Caldwell last Sunday on what might be termed a "fool's errand." His brother Billy, wrote him that there would be a wedding at the church Sunday night, and intimated that he (Billy) would be the happy man. Like an affectionate brother, Charlie immediately boarded the train to see his dear brother married, but instead of being met by the bridegroom, he was met with a "horse-laugh." He evidently is not as well acquainted with his truthful brother as some people are.

—THE TRIBUNE has just received a large invoice of new type, and is now one of the best equipped offices in Idaho. The invoice consists of 200 pounds of brevier body type for book work, and twenty-five fonts of the latest job faces, labor-saving rule, etc. We make a specialty of fine pamphlet work, and all deliberative bodies who desire their proceedings printed, will save money by corresponding with us. Send for estimates on anything in the printing line.

—Mr. Arnett, inventor of the wonderful Steel Drill, brought a model of a sage brush grubber into this office one day this week, of his own invention. It is propelled by four horses and operated by two men. It is so arranged that it is pushed instead of pulled, thus giving the horses a clean path to walk in. Either end of the grubber can be raised or lowered, or the whole thing raised at once, by a system of levers. It will clear from ten to fifteen acres per day, and do it better than can be done by hand. He thinks he will have one built here.

Adams-Carter.

MARRIED—At the M. E. Church in Caldwell, Idaho, Sunday, September 8, 1889, Mr. E. H. Adams, of Rockville, and Miss Annie V. Carter, of this city. Rev. Gwinn performed the ceremony.

After the evening services, the contracting parties slowly walked up the aisle to the beautiful strains of the wedding march, accompanied by the parents of the bride, Mr. L. Adams and wife, and Mr. I. H. Holland and the bride's sister, who acted as best man and bride's maid.

Rev. Gwinn performed the beautiful ceremony in a very impressive manner, at the altar, after which the wedding party left the church.

The bride is one of Caldwell's most accomplished young ladies, and carries with her the highest esteem and best wishes of a host of friends.

The bridegroom is a prosperous sheep man, of Succor Creek, and is spoken of in the highest terms by those who know him.

The happy couple left for Pendleton on the 11:40 train, where the honeymoon will be spent.

After the ceremony a reception was given by the parents of the bride to a small circle of friends. An elegant repast was served, and a very enjoyable evening spent.

Following is the list of presents received:

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Coffin—Carving knife and fork.

Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Mayer—Eight Day Clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carter—Silver Spoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Adams—Silver knives and forks.

I. H. Holland—Full set silver ware.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Snodgrass—Table Linen.

Mrs. Helen E. Scott and Mrs. C. S. Scott—Napkins and towels.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blatchley—Fine Fruit Dish.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barnes—Water Set.

Rev. R. M. Gwinn.

Rev. R. M. Gwinn and wife left last Wednesday evening for Collinsville, Illinois. Rev. Gwinn is one of the pioneers in Idaho Methodism, he having built the M. E. church in Boise City, and long resolutions offered by the M. E. congregation, commending him for his faithfulness, appeared in the Idaho Statesman of August 15, 1874. In that year he went east, where he remained until 1887, when he again returned to Idaho, and was located at Caldwell by the M. E. Conference. During the two years of his work here, he has done for Caldwell what he done for Boise years ago—erected a handsome place of worship for his people. He now again returns to the east, where he has property, but says he expects to be a resident of Idaho again, at some future day. He and his estimable lady carry the kindest regards and best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Answer to Correspondents.

Anxious Youth—If you will watch the fair hands of our young ladies, you will doubtless discover who paid Moe for the $150 diamond ring.

Inquisitive Maiden.—The probabilities are that one of Caldwell's young bachelors will go east to get married this fall. We are not at liberty to give names.

Scientific Youth.—You are entirely mistaken in your analysis. The Brown-Sequard Elixer and Beauty's Hair Restorer are not one and the same compound.

Eastern Capitalist.—When your informant stated that there were thirty-nine railroads building into Boise City, he was probably correct. We heard a gentleman from that town say so with his own lips.

Miner.—The report published in eastern papers that a gold mine had been discovered in the streets of Nampa, is a canard. Capt. J. E. Stearns found what he supposed to be a valuable specimen, but on assay it proved to be a brass button that Uncle Dan. Bacon lost off of his pants.

Dedicated to the Worship of God.

As was announced in last week's paper, the new M. E. church at this place was dedicated to God on the 8th inst. A special train was run from Boise City, presumably for the accommodation of the M. E. congregation at that place who were expected to be present, but in that respect it was a flat failure, for not a single Methodist came down. Quite a number outside of the fold did come, however, and were present at the dedicatory service.

The services opened with an organ voluntary by Mrs. C. S. Scott, which was followed by some choice selections by the choir—Mrs. F. L. Olmstead, Miss Addie Andrews, Jas. H. Gwinn, H. N. Maxey, Rev. W. J. Boone, H. W. Dorman, cornet, Mrs. C. S. Scott, organist.

Rev. Boone read the scripture lesson, after which Rev. Gwinn invoked Divine blessing upon the new chapel. Rev. H. K. Hines, D. D., Presiding Elder of this district, then delivered one of the most delightful sermons it has ever been our lot to listen to. Strong, able, logical and eloquent, his sermon was certainly a masterpiece. The Elder takes first rank among the best orators of the coast. At the close of the sermon, the Pastor announced that there was yet $650 indebtedness on the church, and the liberality and public spirit of Caldwell was shown in raising $563 of the amount on the spot.

Dr. W. C. Maxey and D. D. Campbell, the building committee, then formally turned the building over to the Presiding Elder, who dedicated it to the service of Christ.

In the course of his remarks Elder Hines said that Caldwell now had the nicest (though not the costliest) church in his district, and highly eulogized Rev. Gwinn for his untiring zeal and work.

In the evening another very interesting service was held, consisting of singing by the choir and short talks by the Pastor and Presiding Elder, and closing with a marriage ceremony.

The new church is indeed a model of neatness both inside and outside, and speaks well for enterprise of the Methodist congregation, and is an ornament and a credit to the town.

Elder Hines will occupy the pulpit of the new church both morning and evening, a week from to-morrow.

"Chippy Get Your Hair Cut."

Boise Democrat.

Up to Friday morning twenty-three of the "gahalls" of Idaho street had been indicted and fourteen of these were reported to have left the city. It is probable that some of the witnesses who did not wish to appear against them passed around the word. Some of the "bohoy's" followed suit. Three indictments were found against the "soiled doves" of Caldwell. The indications are that no one will be left in the city but strictly virtuous men and women.

Idaho Statesman.

The Grand Jury returned indictments against twenty-three of the habitués of Idaho street. Yesterday morning nine of these "ladies and gentlemen" were arraigned at the bar of stern justice, and given until Monday to plead. The balance had skipped the town. If anyone meets any of the crowd running, if he heads the other way, pray let them run. Such is the universal desire of our citizens.

The Grand Exposition.

On the 26th of September, the greatest exposition ever held on the Pacific coast will be opened in Portland, and will continue for a full month. The Association has expended $250,000 on the building and grounds, and every available inch of the six and one-half acres of floor space in the mammoth building has been taken by exhibitors. Liberator, the greatest living cornetist, with a band of fifty of the best musicians of New York, will furnish the finest music yet heard on the coast. A reduction of railroad fares on all lines has been secured, and no doubt thousands of people from all over the Northwest will take this opportunity to visit Portland and see its mammoth exposition. The great live stock show, which will be held from October 14th to 19th, will also attract a great many people.

The Last Issue of the Weiser Leader.

The last issue of the Weiser Leader states that Mr. John L. Jewett will have editorial charge of that paper in the future. Bro. Glenn Hill will give undivided attention to the financial management.

Fine Grapes.

Jacob Plowhead, the Middleton Nurseryman, left some fine samples of grapes of his own raising at this office last week. A variety called the "Niagara" is the equal of any California white grape we ever saw; single bunches of this variety weighed from 9 to 12 ounces. Mr. P., has two hundred Concord vines, three years old, that will average fifty pounds each this season.
