

CALDWELL ITEMS

A. J. McFarland was over from Falk's Store Friday.

James F. Boone, our popular and efficient City Clerk, has accepted a position in the Idaho Implement Co. as book keeper.

For! For! What fur? Highest cash prices paid for all kinds of fur. C. S. Davis, corner of Main street and Kimball Avenue, Caldwell, Idaho.

W. H. Ford, formerly a resident of Canyon county, now living at Pocatello, was in Caldwell a few days this week, shaking hands with friends and attending to business.

One of the mercantile establishments of this city which is growing rapidly is the Fair Store. Mr. Petty is an enterprising and energetic business man and the results are a large and growing business.

Miss Gene Dryden last week attended the wedding of Miss Lulu Shore and Mr. Louis Gates, on Reynolds creek, Thursday, November 24. She will visit for a week or ten days before returning to her home in Caldwell.

Mrs. I. R. Beal is an aspirant for a clerkship during the next session of the legislature. Mrs. Beal is a highly accomplished young lady and her many friends would be gratified should she get the appointment.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. P. Pemberton, formerly of Ontario, Ore., have moved to Caldwell and will probably make this place their permanent home. Rev. Pemberton is highly pleased with Caldwell and surrounding country.

John Steunenberg returned from the east Wednesday. He transacted business at Chicago and afterwards attended the St. Louis exposition and visited friends and relatives in Iowa. Mr. Steunenberg reports a pleasant trip.

The Pioneer Feed Stable has now a complete livery service. Mr. Van Housen has recently purchased several carriages and is prepared to give you a good turn out on short notice. Animals boarded at this stable receive good treatment.

Tom Russell Sr. of Emmett was arrested Monday by Sheriff Watkins on a charge of selling liquor on election day. He was brought to Caldwell and had a hearing before Judge Church. He furnished bonds in the sum of $1000 for his appearance Friday.

The Cooper Lumber Co. has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The capital stock is $15,000. The directors are C. W. Cooper, Harry Crookham of Caldwell, F. S. Murphy, C. W. Nibley of Perry, Ore., and Geo. Stoddard of La Grande, Ore.

Huston Frost of Meridian, and John Setzer of Caswell spent Thursday night in Parma. They were on their way to Willow creek, Ore., where Mr. Frost expected to purchase a bunch of cattle to feed this winter.—Parma Herald.

E. O. Woodcock of Wesser transacted business in Caldwell Saturday last. Mr. Woodcock formerly lived in Caldwell and while he frequently visits the city, expressed great surprise at the growth of the town. It has certainly grown wonderfully since Mr. Woodcock moved to Wesser.

Chas. P. Hartley, of the nursery at Caldwell, came in today to arrange for a representative in this locality for his nursery stock. He expects to place many orders for fruit trees in this locality next spring, and as his stock is well adapted to Idaho soil and climate, the losses will be reduced to a minimum.—Twin Falls News.

One of the most handsome special editions that has come to this office in a long time was the Thanksgiving edition of the Pocatello Advance. It was finely illustrated and shows a progressive spirit on the part of Editor C. O. Broxon formerly of this place. The advertising in that particular issue shows a just appreciation on the part of the business men of Pocatello.

Mr. John Bishop is leveling and otherwise improving Fourth street south. This street is filling in. About 30 new houses have been erected there within the past six months. It is thought that the construction of a sidewalk on each side of the street along its entire length would give the building boom a great impetus. The leveling of the street is a much needed improvement.

The Caldwell Orchestra played for the ball given at the opening of the Grand Hotel at Nampa Wednesday. Like the Caldwell brass band Prof. Gordon's orchestra is becoming justly famed throughout this part of Idaho. There is no mistake about it being the best in Idaho and Nampa people appreciate a good thing. The opening of the Grand was a pleasant social event. Nampa now has two fine hotels.

James W. Abbott, the government road specialist gave an illustrated lecture at the opera house last Saturday evening. The attendance was good and the lecture was excellent and should prove profitable to the people of Caldwell. If there be any thing that deserves earnest study and unselfish effort it is the good roads movement. Good roads are a source of constant pleasure and of inestimably practical benefit. Mr. Abbott is lecturing in all the towns along the line and good results should follow.
