

NEW PLYMOUTH MAN HAS LEG GROUND OFF

Prominent People Surprise Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hinchliff—Other Personal Items of Local and General Interest.

(Special to Caldwell Tribune)

New Plymouth, Oct. 26.—Chas. Lackner, a young man working with a threshing machine crew, had his leg ground off half way between the knee and the ankle on Saturday afternoon and came near losing his life in the distressing accident. He was on the platform of the engine, attempting to fix a bolt when his foot slipped. His leg was caught in the cog and was ground to the bone in an instant before he could be rescued by fellow workmen, who stopped the machinery. All Saturday night Lackner's condition was very grave. His leg was amputated three inches below the knee and he suffered greatly from loss of blood and the shock, but this morning he was reported to be resting quite easily and has fair chances for recovery.

Wallis a Good Officer.

Jim Wallis, the state sleuth who, Nemesis like, is hot footed on the trail of filth and flies, adulterations and adulterers, collected in over $700 in fines at Sandpoint last week from the unwise and reckless yokels who persist in the belief that they have a right to be a law unto themselves regardless of what may be made and provided in the statutes of this flourishing young commonwealth. While the course of Sanitary Inspector Wallis through the state is easily discernible by the sulphurous vapor arising from the many heated remarks of the "persecuted ones," what is more important to the people, he also leaves a trail as plain and broad as an automobile road of cleanliness and improved sanitary conditions and a wholesome regard for the mandates of the law. Some innocent persons, as a matter of course, are made to suffer along with the others, because of their unfamiliarity with the law, but that proves true of all law enforcement. The pure food and sanitary law is strictly in the interest of the common people and is one of the best ever; and Idaho has the kind of officer who will make any law effective that he is back of.—Grangeville Globe.

COL. PLACE AND ASSOCIATES BUY AN IMMENSE TRACT

Land Will Be Put On Market Within Very Short Time—Long Time Payments Will Prevail in Marketing This Tract.

After four months of strenuous dickering with W. P. Davidson, president of the Oregon & Western Colonization Co. of St. Paul, Minn., Col. E. R. Place has closed the deal whereby he comes into possession of 200,000 acres of what is known as the Military Road land grant extending from Ontario, Ore., to Burns. The colonization company above mentioned purchased some 800,000 acres of the grant from a French syndicate of Paris, France. The 200,000 acres purchased by Col. Place is the eastern end of this great tract. The lands will be offered to settlers at a cost price within the reach of all. Long time payments will prevail, thereby giving every purchaser a chance to dig the purchase price out of the land. The tract purchased by Col. Place contains some of the finest agricultural land in Malheur county.

All of it is to be sold to small holders thereby greatly enhancing the chances of procuring water where needed at no distant day. Col. Place will extensively advertise these lands through the colonization department of the Union Pacific Railway Co., at Omaha. Headquarters for the sale of the tract will be at Vale, Oregon.

H. W. Dorman will have charge of the locating and sales department at Vale.

Mr. Taft Passes Through Utah.

President Taft, homeward bound on one of the most successful trips ever made by a president of the United States, passed through Utah yesterday. At every station along the route crowds of loyal Utahans gathered to catch a glimpse of the present ruler and the next ruler of nearly 100,000,000 persons. It is but a small chapter of the same story with which the president has become familiar during the weeks that he has spent on his tour of the country giving an account of his stewardship, telling the people what he has done for them and what he proposes to do in the future.

There can be no question that the president is thoroughly popular. Even his enemies concede his honesty and his integrity; they may differ with him as to his policies, but they admit that he advocates those policies because he believes in them and not as an expedient to catch votes. The explanation of what he has done and his reasons for doing it have thoroughly satisfied the people and they are ready to support him again.—Salt Lake Herald.

OMAHA MARKET LETTER.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Oct. 25.—Receipts this week with comparison:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Quantity. Cattle, Hogs, Sheep. This week, Last week, Last year.

Receipts were tolerably liberal the past week but the demand for beef was also of liberal proportions and the market in very satisfactory shape with a strong, upward tendency. Not a great many choice, corn fed steers were offered but the best of them sold stronger, around $7@7.45 for good 1150 to 1350 pound steers. Short fed steers that came in competition with the western rangers sold rather unevenly but somewhat better than the week previous. Grass steers showed all of a 10@15c advance for the week, good kinds bringing $6 and over and fair to good grades going largely at $5@5.75 with common to fair stock at $4@4.90. Cows and heifers found a free outlet right along, the better grades at stronger figures and the medium and common kinds at about a 10c decline. Range is from $2.75 to $5.25, the fair to good butcher and beef stock largely at $3.75@4.50. Veal calves, bulls, stags, etc., have been in active demand and quotably steady right along. There was a large business in stockers and feeders but the market closed weak with some unsold. Prices advance 10@15c the fore part of the week but later this advance was lost and the close was rather dull.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Good to choice 1250@1550lb, Fair to good 1050@1300lb, Common to fair steers, etc.

No new features developed in the market for hogs and prices showed no material change for the week. Both local packers and shippers, taking their cue from the bearish attitude of eastern packers and provision dealers, have been rather indifferent bidders and buyers most of the time and demand has apparently been barely sufficient to keep the moderate receipts moving at current prices. Weight is cutting very little figure and while the good butcher weights still have the preference and command some premium there is a narrow spread to prices. The general trade seems to be simply in a waiting attitude and the course of values in the near future will depend much on the size of the volume of the new crop marketing. The following table shows the range of prices and average cost of the hogs for the past week:

Table with 4 columns: Weight, Price, Weight, Price. Oct. Heavy, Light, Bulk, Avg. 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st.

Supplies continue well up to last year's record breaking proportions and while this naturally forces values to a lower level the movement is free and the big runs are handled without the slightest apparent difficulty. Feeder buyers are taking fully three-fourths of the receipts but both fat stock and feeders show a decline of about 25c for the week.
