factually pushed along by C. C. Gurwell.

Chas. Howard is enclosing his farm with woven wire fence.
Mr. Harry Vail and wife have now moved on to a farm above Middleton. Although they are some distance away, they say that they are coming down to take in the good times on the Ridge.

Mr. Talcott is digging his nursery stock at present. He has a nice lot of trees on his own farm and also a good lot on a plot that he rented of E. S. Moss. Anyone wishing to set out trees would do well to see Mr. Talcott.

G. A. Springer has just completed his new dairy barn, which is a great improvement to his farm as well as a great convenience to him.

Everyone is looking forward to the big coyote drive, which is to come off on the next day after Thanksgiving. By that time they expect to be sufficiently recovered from their Thanksgiving turkey, to be able to join in this run after the coyotes. Those wishing to join in this hunt should look for the hand bills which will be posted in conspicuous places giving the particulars of the drive.

A. H. Force has rented the farm belonging to Fred Mobus and doing considerable work on the same.

Revel meetings will commence in the Pleasant Ridge church on Monday night, November 25. They will be under the direction of Rev. Vernon, our pastor, who will be aided by Rev. Campbell of Homedale. The district superintendent will also be present for a short time during the meetings. Jake Eames has sold his blacksmith shop in Meridian and is now visiting at the home of his father, E. W. Eames, at present.

The guards for the windows of the new school house have arrived at last and it is to be hoped there will be no delay in getting them up as there is great danger of a ball going through a pane of glass while they are without the guards.

There will be a meeting at the school house soon to consider the disposal of the old school building. Everyone is expected to be on hand to express his opinions in regard to this question.

Walter Morrow has gone to Weiser to work this winter.

THORNS FROM BIER ROSE.

Mr. Olsen purchased a new cider mill last week. Of a truth, this palatable ale hath charms which no luxury can satisfy.

Hazel Gurwell gave a party in the city Saturday afternoon. Judging from all reports a most pleasant time was enjoyed by those present.

Miss Merle Richie will stay with friends at the Walters residence in the city, while attending school during the winter.

F. M. Roseman attended McLaughlin's sale last week, where he purchased a hog. The article in question was a Yorkshire, a representative of the ideal bacon type and of down-right "orneriness" and pure cussedness. F. M. is firmly convinced that they compare very favorably with the far-famed razor-back of Southern Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson were dinner guests of C. C. Gurwell and family last Sunday.

The Jester family were visitors at Greenleaf, Sunday. The occasion was in celebration of the 50th birthday of Grandpa Brown, Mrs. Jester's father. We congratulate him and extend our best wishes for health and happiness during many more years.

Dr. Buckley and family, of the city, spent the afternoon and took supper at Rose Lawn last Monday evening.

Mr. Robinson, formerly residing northeast of the city, has rented the Stalker ranch and moved in Saturday. The telephone company has been reconstructing their lines through Brier Rose and the latest thing out as a producer of violent starts, it a tremendous screeching which reaches a person's ears whenever the receiver is taken down. This terrible squeaking, which is caused by the pulling of the wires, is much more disconcerting than the back yard in the small hours of the morning. Needless to say that all will have a sigh of relief when this phase of the business shall have been completed.

SILVER WEDDING AT GREENLEAF ACADEMY

Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Pearson.

Rev. Ezra Pearson, pastor of Friends church at Greenleaf, and Mrs.

Pearson, were beautifully surprised the evening of the 13th, when ushered in the assembly room, where their many friends awaited their coming.

The room was fittingly decorated with white drapery and a large white wedding bell, under which were placed two large oak rocking chairs, with dining chairs on either side to match these being a love gift from their host of friends.

Rev. Anson Cox led the way and seated the honored ones with their family, while the audience sang the very appropriate song "Blest be the tie that binds," which was followed by an introductory talk and prayer by Brother Cox.

An original poem was read by Wm. Brown, which added spice to the occasion. We were then favored by a solo by William Binford.

Rev. Perisho gave a very interesting talk and presented the gift.

Congratulations were then in order. Rev. Pearson was called on for a speech in which he gave a short review of their past life, and also expressed their appreciation of the occasion and love manifested.

The guests numbering about 150, were then served to a luncheon, consisting of cake, sandwiches, cocoa and pickles, and a social time was much enjoyed by all.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. J. R. SEATON, SR.

Mrs. J. R. Seaton, Sr., was suddenly called to her Eternal Home Saturday, Nov. 16, at 1:30 p. m.

This beloved mother was taken sick the Monday previous to her death and the illness rapidly developed into bronchial pneumonia. Dr. Miller was called and a nurse sent out, but all efforts to save her failed.

Mary Frances Bridwell was born in Jeffersonton, Ky., March 3rd, 1847, and later moved to Missouri, where she lived most of her life, coming to Idaho a few years ago, where her failing health was partly restored.

Her marriage to James R. Seaton took place in 1872 near Springfield, Mo., and this union was blessed with five children, three of whom are living. Two were with her in her last hours, and the youngest son, Jas. R. Seaton, Jr. came as quickly as possible from California.

The body will be shipped back to the old home at Springfield, Mo., and will be accompanied by her eldest son, E. B. Seaton and wife.

The funeral was held from the First Baptist church of Wilder at 1 o'clock, Wednesday November 20th. The pastor, together with Rev. W. H. Bowles, of Boise, and Rev. A. B. Minaker, of New Plymouth, Idaho. The remains were brought to the Platt-Peckham Undertaking Parlors to be held until Saturday when shipment will be made.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

The Woman Makes the Home

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.
