

Items of Interest From Surrounding Territory

GREENLEAF

Mr. C. J. Amstrams returned home the first of last week after an absence of nearly two months visiting in Nebraska, making the trip home of 1400 miles by auto in seven days.

Mrs. White and daughter Mabel returned last week from a month's visit in Portland, Oregon.

Mr. A. G. Street autoed over to Parma Friday of last week.

The regular W. C. T. U. meeting was held with Mrs. James A. Herlocker for the purpose of electing new officers.

Miss Ula Tucker returned home the first of the week after an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weeks and children of Deer Flat attended our church Sunday.

Prof. and Mrs. Roberts of Melba drove down to Greenleaf Saturday and spent a few days looking after the interests of the academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans, Paul and Grandpa Seaton started Monday morning for a trip in the mountains. They expect to go up near Arrow Rock for a week's outing.

Mr. Seth Mill the assistant mail carrier is carrying the mail in Mr. Evans' absence.

Miss Grace Benson who has been with her sister in Lincoln Nebraska for the past year is here visiting her parents.

Miss Jerna and Willie Brown spent the week end visiting with Greenleaf friends.

Mrs. Woodward's Sunday school class met with Miss Velma Cox Tuesday evening of last week and held their regular business meeting.

Mrs. Verling Cox spent Sunday and Monday in Middleton visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myers.

The regular missionary meeting is to convene Friday with Mrs. J. W. Law.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Law started for Washington on a business trip for a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Perisho and Zenas are to start for their home on Monday of this week.

The Girl's Hearty, Happy Helpers club meets Wednesday of this week with Miss Ruth Dimmitt.

Mrs. Silar's Sunday school class were invited by Mrs. Davenport to a supper party in honor of her son, Leslie's birthday.

Last Friday evening several of the young folks attended an Endeavor social held at the old home of Mr. Brown, after games being played a fire was built and "weenies" and marshmallows were roasted. All report a fine time.

RIVERSIDE

There will be a meeting at the school house Monday night, August 14th, to vote bonds for the erection of a new school house. At the meeting held last Tuesday night, the bonds were defeated on account of no new site having been named. At this meeting a committee was appointed to look up a suitable site within a radius of one half mile from a given point.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will take supper on the bank of the Snake River, below Mr. Stilwells, Friday night.

The Good Time club met with Sallie Mitchell, last Friday afternoon. After the meeting, ice cream and cake were served, after which all enjoyed a good swim in the Snake river.

Lawrence Buckholz went to Caldwell Saturday night for medical attention. While stacking hay the hay fork ran into his foot.

S. S. Tobias, who has been quite ill for the past week is able to be up. The Willing Workers will meet with Mrs. Floyd Mitchell, Wednesday afternoon.

H. A. Ireland made a professional call in the valley Tuesday morning. Miss Gladys Allen of Boise, is spending the week with Ruth Stilwell.

Maggie Buckholz of Boise, is visiting Mrs. Eugene Gallivan. Floyd Mitchell, Eugene Gallivan and C. C. Tobias shipped hogs from Caldwell Friday.

A birthday dance was given at the home of Bert Mutch, Saturday night, in honor of Harold's twenty-first birthday. About fifty people were present and all report a good time. Music was furnished by the Kessler boys from the Dry land country.

Hay fever is a popular disease in this neighborhood at present. Mrs. Floyd McIntyre who has been ill for the past month is able to be up and around.

The marriage of Miss Emma Wygant of Nampa and Oscar Mason of the vicinity took place on Tuesday August first. Rev. Rice of Caldwell officiating. The bride was a teacher in our school last year and the groom has a ranch in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weiner motored to Boise, last Tuesday.

FAIR ACRES

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beason, formerly of this neighborhood, but now living at Payette passed through here Monday enroute to visit their sister who lives in the Gem District on Snake river.

Mrs. Murphy and daughter from Amarilla, Texas, is visiting with Mrs. Murphy's mother, Mrs. Bartlett.

Mrs. White has been nursing at the Reith home in Wilder, returned to her home Sunday.

George Feltwell attended the revival meetings in Wilder Sunday evening.

GREENLEAF

We understand that the fare is to be 50 cents a round trip from Caldwell to Allen the day of the big picnic, Aug. 23, the plan is for autos to meet the cars there and carry the passengers to the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Barnes and family visited at the D. N. Smith home in Caldwell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Anderson expect to start Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Anderson's brother of Cambridge, also to take a trip into the hills. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

The Greenleaf orchestra and the Greenleaf Male quartette will furnish music for the big picnic to be held in Larson's grove August 23.

G. H. Bassett lost a valuable mare Friday.

Mrs. Magson, and two children from Boise are here to stay at the M. E. Anderson home while they are away on a vacation.

Don't miss the big picnic August 23 in Larson's grove the attractions will be great speeches from the best men the country can afford.

Mr. Andy Anderson has traded his land here for 200 acres near Sweet Idaho, and expects to move there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Faw departed Monday for a two weeks' visit into Sunny Side, Washington with a prospect of trading for property there.

Mrs. G. L. Dean's sister and husband and her mother from California are visiting at the Dean home; they express themselves as being highly pleased with this county.

W. A. Ford was binding his grain on Chancey's place Monday.

Mrs. J. L. Martin returned to her home Friday after a two months' stay with her brother in Brush, Colorado.

Miss Cora Wright returned to her home Thursday after several weeks stay at the B. C. Bradley home.

Mrs. Calvin Hamlin were Caldwell visitors Saturday evening.

Mrs. S. F. Hibbs has been suffering with a severe attack of gripe.

Several from this neighborhood attended traders day sale in Caldwell Monday.

Mrs. Marshall who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chancey has returned to her home in Portland.

HOMEDALE

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Vanderhoof and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Preston spent Sunday over the upper end of the Gem district and paid visits to the Lockwood and Calkins homes.

Dr. Zeigler left Tuesday for a business trip to Payette.

Earl E. Cox was a guest at the Schenck home Sunday night. He was on his way home at Mahogany Mountain to Caldwell to attend to matters connected with the settling of his father's estate.

E. S. Friend was a business visitor in Caldwell the first of last week.

W. H. Schenck made a business trip to Caldwell Saturday.

Roy King was over from Nampa attending to business matters here Wednesday.

Mrs. E. S. Friend and small daughters, Geneva and Annabel, left Monday for a visit with friends and relatives in Payette.

Dr. Thos. C. Cosgrove went to Nysa Tuesday to do some dental work.

Lewis Smith has his wheat crop in shock.

Earl Pegram, Jeff Welch and Clair Benham are working in the section crew.

Titus Rainer returned Wednesday from Sweet to help with the second hay crop at the Robert L. Orr ranch.

Mrs. Frank Kipp and daughter, Miss Letha, visited at the Schenck home Tuesday and returned to their home in Caldwell that evening.

Ed Snell came over from Nampa Wednesday and spent a few days here looking after his ranch property.

Mrs. Hugh Travis and Miss Alberta were guests at the McMeans home Tuesday.

Mr. Mitchell, bookkeeper for Cupples Mercantile Co. of Caldwell, was a business visitor here Saturday.

Miss Ida Schenck visited at the Lewis home Tuesday.

George Ramsey our local blacksmith had two of his toes badly smashed one day last week while shoeing a horse.

A four four load of young people from Central Cove passed thru here Saturday evening on their way to Jump Creek canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith were week end guests at the H. D. Putney home in Roswell.

Charles Kunsle left Thursday evening for Weiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Travis and Miss Alberta were Sunday dinner guests at the T. E. McMeans home.

D. W. DAVIS. (Remember the Initials.) Candidate for Republican Nomination for Governor—Primary Election September 5th.

Stands for North and South highway and for all other pledges of the platform and for cheaper money for farmers and stockmen. Study His Constructive Policies left Wednesday for Brownlee where they will join their wives and spend a two week's vacation.

Miss Blanche Adams is assisting Mrs. Boeck with her work during haying.

Dr. Donald Numbers of Parma and Miss Zoe Dunn of Payette visited here Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers.

Mrs. A. E. Robinson came down from the nitrate mines Monday and went to Boise for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. M. A. Trotter and little daughter, Miss Martha, mother and daughter of F. E. Trotter returned to Caldwell Tuesday after a few weeks' visit here.

Mrs. J. O. Hansen and son returned to their home at Jordan Valley Saturday after a visit here with her sister Mrs. Wm. Langford.

Mrs. J. B. Lillard of Lamar, Missouri arrived here Thursday for a visit with relatives. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Therkeld and a sister of Mrs. W. W. Peter.

It is reported that some of the Gem District ranchers have disposed of their hay crop to sheep men for eight dollars a ton.

Miss Mae Mercer was in town last Thursday from Fargo and reports that she will harvest a nice crop of apples and other fruit from her ranch this season.

Ed. Snell returned to Nampa Tuesday after spending a few days here looking after his ranch. If he is successful in inducing the Gem District to build a flume so that his land can be watered he will return in a short time to put his whole ranch into cultivation.

D. J. Sullivan returned home Tuesday from Portland where he went to attend the suit brought against him and F. E. Tracy by a Mr. Price of Ontario. The suit was for the purpose of determining the nature of nitrate lands on Succor Creek near Homedale. Messrs. Sullivan and Tracy had located claims under the lode act and Mr. Price had made locations on the same ground under the placer law. The case was heard before Judge Holverson of the circuit court and the disputed ground was awarded to the Messrs. Sullivan and Tracy. J. M. Venable and E. F. Fitzhugh of Boise and F. H. McConnell of Caldwell were witnesses for the defendants. Attorney R. H. Johnson of Boise represented them. The case is of much interest to the people of this section as they hold a large number of claims located as lode which are being contested by the American Nitrate company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gess and family were here in their Overland Friday.

Miss Mamie Lehner came over from Fargo and spent Sunday at home.

Rev. Wampler of New Plymouth will conduct the regular services at the M. E. church here Sunday, August 15. Rev. Wampler is a Dunkard minister.

Martin Shenefield was quite seriously ill last week.

Dr. T. C. Cosgrove returned from Nysa Saturday where he had spent several days doing dental work. He has decided to spend Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday forenoon in Nysa and Saturday afternoon, Sunday and Monday and Tuesday in Homedale. Anyone wishing work done should make appointments with him for the days he will be here. He has a good practice and his work is giving perfect satisfaction.

A. Hollenbeck who has a ranch in the lower end of the district, reports the sale of $40.00 worth of potatoes from one-eighth of an acre. This is an especially good showing from land that was in sage brush six months ago.

Frank Myler and George Dunning have gone to Cow Creek to spend their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkett Bray of Fargo are working at the Chris Jensen ranch during haying.

Walter Adams is helping with the haying at the Boeck ranch.

A baby boy arrived at the C. W. Bolton home in Central Cove, Wednesday, August 2nd.

Mrs. Clawson of Pomeroy, Washington arrived Wednesday for a visit with her son, John Upton.

Mrs. W. S. Holton, Mrs. Roy Myler and Master William left Thursday

for Palmer Junction, Oregon where they will visit with Mrs. B. B. Owsley.

W. H. Schenck was a business visitor to Caldwell Wednesday.

John Redman who has been on the sick list, is able to be about again.

Ralph De Breze, brother-in-law of E. J. Wood arrived Thursday from Oregon City, Oregon. Mrs. De Breze has been here several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wright returned Friday from a short visit to Spokane.

Joseph Jorgns is here visiting at the R. W. Vanderhoof home. Mr. Jorgns is principal of one of the High schools in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Mr. Vanderhoof held the position of superintendent of schools in that city before coming to Homedale.

Homedale supplies three candidates for the county primary election: C. M. Sutton for commissioner of this district on the Republican ticket; L. V. Hyslop for prosecuting attorney on the Democratic ticket, and F. E. Trotter for representatives on the Republican ticket. Han P. Marsing of Claytonia is candidate for representative on the Republican ticket. Voters not having voted at the general election two years ago and who have failed to reister will have to swear their vote in at the primary election which occurs September fifth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Vanderhoof and their guest, Joseph Jorgns, of Minneapolis, left Sunday for Portland and will be away a week.

William Gowen came over from Caldwell Sunday returning home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Freeburn visited relatives in Caldwell from Wednesday till Saturday last week.

Dr. Creasey of Boise, the Episcopal missionary rector will hold services in the M. E. church here Sunday morning August 22.

The Gem District has decided to establish a pumping plant on the slough just back of town. Besides draining a good acreage of land that has become worthless thru seepage and removing a menace to health it is expected to secure at least 600 inches of water for irrigation purposes. The lift will be only twenty feet and the water will be where needed instead of having to run for miles in ditches. Work will be commenced immediately and it will require only ten days or two weeks to complete the work.

Messrs. E. C. Preston and O. A. Megorden planned and carried out a surprise party for their wives Wednesday evening, August second. The event was in honor of the ladies birthdays.

The crowd enjoyed their usual evening swim and then met at the Vanderhoof home and went together to the E. C. Preston home. A very pleasant social evening was spent and delicious ice cream and cake served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Vanderhoof, Mr. Joseph Jorgns, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Trotter, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Heiton, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Yaden.

Roy Baker of New Plymouth visited at the Welch home Tuesday. He was over to make personal application for a position in the Claytonia school which he secured.

C. M. Sutton came home the last of the week to oversee the haying on the ranch here.

Frank Myler and George Duning returned home Monday.

Miss Ladena Shepherd is helping with the work at the F. E. Trotter home.

Mrs. Emery Morgan and Miss Myrtle were in from the ranch Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Tracy and Miss Dortha and Miss Marjorie were Sunday dinner guests at the D. J. Sullivan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Magee, Miss Leone Wright and Kenneth Magee left Sunday for a two weeks outing at Blue Lakes which lie north of the Payette lakes.

The teachers have all been engaged for the coming term. They are as follows: principal, E. C. Preston; grammar grades, Miss Irma McGee; intermediate grades, Miss Edna Grete, primary grades, Miss Mae Mercer. All of the teachers have state certificates and the prospects are bright for an excellent school term.

H. E. Ballard, post office inspector for this division, was here Monday and after inspecting the post office and complimenting the post master and his assistant left for a trip through the Gem District. F. E. Trotter accompanied Mr. Ballard on his trip over the proposed rural routes.

Mr. Ballard was pleased with conditions and talked very favorably toward recommending the establishment of two routes, one from Homedale to the upper end of the Gem District and one from Huston to supply the people on the other side of the river. The new petition will be circulated soon.

The Board of Directors of the Gem District held their regular meeting Tuesday.

BRIER ROSE

Mrs. Imus who has been staying with Mrs. W. A. Douglass returned to her home Saturday. Miss Prichard is now taking care of Mrs. Douglass.

Mrs. Clarady and children who have been visiting Mrs. Clarady's parents Mr. and Mrs. Dix, returned to their home in Colorado the first of the week.

Mrs. Ford and son Frank of Central Cove spent Monday at the Meador home.

Rev. Colop returned Saturday from his auto trip.

Pearle Robinson spent Sunday and Monday at the Crew home.

Mr. Greenlund and Mr. and Mrs. Vance were called in the neighborhood the first of the week.

Mrs. Conway of Caldwell called on

Mrs. W. A. Douglass Monday.

Mrs. Kimbrough, Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Elhart called on Mrs. W. A. Douglass recently.

Frank Ford and Olivia Meador spent Sunday afternoon with Martha Rice in Caldwell.

Elsie Brooks is visiting Edna Crew. Miss Anne Clemens is spending two weeks at Sowers Camp.

Mrs. Gholson's sister, Mrs. Graham returned to her home in Topeka, Kansas, the first of the week.

Rev. and Mrs. Dark who have been staying at the Collop home returned to their home in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Soward of Midway called at the Meador home Sunday.

Mr. Shaw returned Monday from a two week's visit in the east.

Several of the farmers are thrashing their grain this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mason of Caldwell called on Mrs. Douglass Saturday.

Albert Sherman went to Boise Sunday.

Harry Avery is visiting his mother Mrs. R. M. Gholson.

Messrs. Cleaver and Nichol of Caldwell called in the neighborhood last Thursday.

Mrs. O. S. Duggan spent last week visiting in Lakeview.

Miss Florence McCormick of Roswell is visiting at the Clemens home. G. S. Runciman and Albert Sherman took an auto trip to Riswell the first of the week.

DEER FLAT

Mrs. J. L. Hitson left Monday noon for her home at Malta Bend, Mo. Before leaving Mrs. Hitson subscribed for The Tribune so as to keep in touch with her friends here.

The ladies aid will give an ice cream social on the church yard at Huston Friday evening August 25. Ice cream and cake will be served. All are welcome.

The gold medal contest under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. will take place at the church at Huston Friday evening, August 18. The following contestants will take part: Murnie Hadsall and Pauline Garrison of Middleton; Mildred Tucker and Eunice Trotter of Greenleaf; Goldie Blakley of Caldwell and Glen Davis. The young men's Glee club will furnish music for the evening.

G. W. Smith made final proof on his homestead Monday. W. H. Culter and F. B. Farris were his witnesses.

Miss Margaret Rose spent Sunday with friends near Lower Fair View.

Roy Shelp and Wm. Hoshaw returned from their Nevada trip the first of the week.

Luther Wells, Supt. of the Idaho Anti-Saloon league lectured at the Huston church Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Cooper expects her father and mother to arrive from Kansas the last of this week for an extended visit here.

Miss Marion Clark had as a week end guest Miss Alta Marks of Caldwell.

W. H. Davis and Clyde Myers are building silos on their ranches. N. E. Reis expects to make one soon on his place.

Mrs. E. Nelson entertained the W. C. T. U. Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Julia Clark is visiting this week with friends in Parma and Big Bend, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith had as Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. Myrand and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Commerford who motored down from Boise.

George and Flossie Vogt celebrated their birthday Sunday by entertaining some friends at dinner.

Two thrashing machines started up in this neighborhood Monday.

J. W. Cooper reports 65 bushel of wheat to the acre. There is quite an acreage of wheat in here and with the fine market price of wheat at present, the outlook is very encouraging to the farmers.

Grandpa Dolarhide is staying with his grand daughter, Mrs. Corn near Midway for the present.

F. L. Rose has been adding modern conveniences to his residence. A well equipped bath room being the principle convenience.

Rev. Lamb filled the pulpit at the M. E. Church in Caldwell Sunday morning.

The Oellein family visited with friends at Greenleaf Sunday.

The beautiful ordinance of baptism was administered to five candidates of the Community church Sunday evening about six o'clock at Snake river.

Prof. Ireland and family were visitors at the N. E. Rees home Monday afternoon.

A male quartette composed of Hobart, Lawrence, Albert Darling, Glen and Paul Davis sang two numbers at the church at Huston Sunday evening which were greatly appreciated.

Rev. and Mrs. Rice and Luther Wells were dinner guests Sunday evening at the J. W. Cooper home.

SUNNY SLOPE

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey were Caldwell visitors Monday.

Ludell Whiteman who has been visiting her aunt and uncle in Long Beach, Calif., returned home Sunday.

Several people from Central Cove and Deer Flat attended the ice cream social at the school house Friday night.

Mr. Fred Rogers was a business visitor in Caldwell both Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Earl and family spent Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey.

Mr. Roy Collins visited in Caldwell the latter part of the week.

The Farmers' club held their monthly meeting at the school house Friday evening. A big crowd was in attendance. Plans and arrangements for the third annual fair were the main discussions of the meeting. It is thought that the plans will be perfected and all arrangements completed at the next meeting.

After the meeting Mr. Scott manager of the Farmers' Co-operative Creamery gave us a very interesting talk on the importance of co-operation to farmers, and his talk about the growth and progress of the co-operative creamery as well as its struggles and trials since it was organized two years ago was especially interesting.

We feel sure with our efficient manager the co-operative creamery will be a decided success.

The Ladies aid held their third ice cream social at the school house Friday night, directly after the club meeting was over.

Miss Nellie Gray visited with her friends and relatives in Caldwell Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Several of the Slopers spent Sunday over at Lake Lowell.

Ray Johnson is on the sick list this week.

The Ladies aid met at the school house last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Earl were business visitors in Caldwell Monday.

There will be no teachers training classes for a month as our teacher Rev. L. F. Jones is going on his vacation trip to the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gannon motored to Caldwell Tuesday.

Mrs. G. E. Cannon received a card from Mrs. Charles Kratt saying that they made the trip from Twin Falls to Pennsylvania in their car in nineteen days.

Mrs. Jones and daughter Veda spent Wednesday with friends on Deer Flat.

PLEASANT RIDGE

Misses May and Lettie Bradley returned from their visit in Iowa last Thursday morning. They went out to B. C. Bradley's in Fair Acres, where Miss Lettie intends to make her home for a time.

C. M. Crew and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bird Goodwin went to Wilder in Mr. Crew's Ford Sunday morning to attend the revival meetings. They had a picnic dinner at the Bollman home.

Mrs. Earl Hallford is visiting at the Charles Olsen home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McKague of Claytonia stopped on their way from Caldwell and took supper at the R. Henry Martin home, Monday evening. Mrs. Geo. Martin went home with them.

J. W. Wagoner threshed his alaska clover this week. It yielded about ten bushels per acre.

J. W. Hughey has raised the brush on Chas. Howard's new forty.

John and Roy