Short Cuts To Jobs

"Cutting across lots" is sometimes a "short-cut home."

Always, we look for the ways to get there quickly—for ways to secure things quickly.

Through the WANT AD COLUMNS is the quick route to new jobs in these times—cutting out all "round about" hunting and asking—and "influence."

Inexpensive too—this shortest way. A few dimes for car fare or postage if you're answering ads. A few dimes for your own "want", if you're advertising—AND THE USUAL RESULT IS A JOB.

various times here in Idaho. Members of the choir in Fargo with whom she sang while in health, sang again in the sweet way of the hymns Mrs. Ramsey used to enjoy while she swelled the ranks of the chorus that now mourned her loss. One loved and loving sister, Mrs. Calvin Vantress of Greenleaf, was near through the last part of her recent illness and waited untiringly at the bedside while the true soul slipped away across the open door to the other eternity.

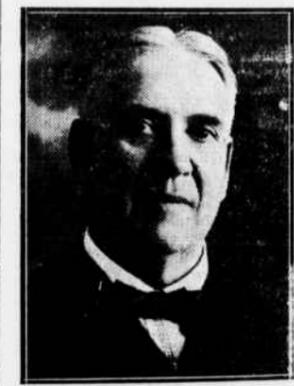

Mrs. Ramsey has lived a quiet, patient and Christian life while among us, earnest and zealous, and a valued member of the Presbyterian church. She was a true helpmeet unto her husband, who no childless man journey toward the setting sun alone.

Thirty years ago their only child, a baby girl, died in the happiest sunniest hour of all their married life, and now a mother and daughter await in heaven the coming of him who sojourns the western slope of this life to resigned assurance that all is to be well with him.

Mrs. Ramsey had two sisters and five brothers living, only one of whom could attend her funeral services. Her girlhood name was Gotchall, and good human blood was in her veins, coming from genuine true stock of citizenship. Mr. Ramsey will remain in this part of Idaho. They came to Idaho from Nebraska; Ohio was their birth place, and Illinois their childhood playground.
