Of Interest To Each of Us

An even one hundred suits added to our already large stock of clothing this week. Come and see them. McGrew

The clearing up of the weather has cleared away the lines of anxiety from many a face and everything points again to the saving of the entire harvest and the consequent prosperity which we have prophesied all along.

Mrs. Sam Gray and children of Peek are visiting relatives here and in the country for a few days. They are on their way to Milton, Ore., where they will reside in the future on account of the better school advantages for the children.

M. J. Wessels left for Boise, Monday in the interest of the agricultural and horticultural exhibit he is preparing for the St. Louis exposition. Mr. Wessels is very enthusiastic over the prospect of making this the finest exhibit in this line that has yet been made. He intends to give an equal chance to every part of the state and no section will be favored above another.

We believe he is the best man in the state for this work and that Idaho will have just reason to be proud of his work along this line.

Hunter & Von Sohnen have rented Crocker's blacksmith shop and will do business in both places.

Charles Chandler, who has been suffering from a slight attack of typhoid and also of tonsillitis. Though able to get out he is weak and pulled down a little.

A short visit to the mill showed it to be a regular hive of industry. Every wheel was turning and every man busy as beavers. It is only being run through the day as yet but in a week or two will run day and night. A carload of flour was shipped to the sound the other day which will be followed by others shortly.

Rev. Frank E. Whitham, agent for Whitman college, Walla Walla, was in Kendrick this week in the interests of that college. He says the institution was never more prosperous than at present and will enroll about 400 students this year. It has an endowment now of about a quarter of a million dollars and is in splendid shape financially. It is even better known in the east than here on the Pacific coast. Mr. Whitham is traveling in its interest all of the time and is meeting with much success.

J. I. Mitcham was in Lewiston Tuesday returning Wednesday morning.

Ida Burns came down from Pullman Sunday to spend a week or two with her mother. She went to Lewiston Tuesday for a few days visit there.

Don't miss the rush for bargains at McGrews.

R. B. Himes and two friends came in from the white pines Saturday evening after being absent about ten days. They had a disagreeable trip being out in the rain a good part of the time.

Mrs. J. J. Hamley and children returned Sunday from a trip to the sound which was much enjoyed. Mr. Hamley went to Palouse to meet them.

Miss Atkins of Michigan a niece of George Rubedew of Moscow is visiting in Kendrick this week, the guest of Mrs. C. M. Keep.

Don't forget the 'Red Letter' sale at McGrews.

Pianos and organs from the famous Allen & Gilbert-Ramaker Co. of Portland, Ore. L. A. Kerr, agent. High grade instruments. Good terms. See them at the jewelry store.

John Benjamin of Kendrick has received his appointment as Justice of the Peace for Kendrick Precinct. After he qualifies he wants you to ask him something easy for a starter.

You will find John Benjamin again on the Hog Market. See him before you sell ur Hogs.

Owens His Life to a Neighbor's Kindness.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by White & Co.

It sore grieves us that a postal giving the dimensions of apple and other boxes adopted by the Washington Fruit Growers Association, has been mislaid and cannot be found. Any of our readers who may have this will confer a favor by sending us one.

Arthur Lukens and Alfred Crow were visiting in Moscow Sunday.

It is rumored that there are some Wisconsin and Illinois men exploring the Potlatch to see what kind of a logging stream it will make. They surely will not be disappointed in it in this particular for with the clearance of a few obstructions it is an ideal stream for such a purpose.

Little Clifford Hunter who has been suffering from a mild attack of typhoid fever has about recovered again.

Mrs. Frank Roberts and children were in Lewiston over Sunday.

Mrs. A. P. Hamley returned Tuesday from Spokane where she was visiting her parents. Mr. Hamley went as far as Moscow to meet her.

D. J. Rowland is having a new fence put around his residence on the hill, which crowns the stone wall he had erected this summer.

Capt. J. F. Carlton has bought the residence of Frank Crocker on East Main street. Mr. Crocker will move to Everett in a few weeks.

M. C. McGrew let several of his clerks go last Saturday owing to the gloomy weather which threatened much damage to the crops. The most of them however have returned to work this week, since the weather cleared up and this business house bids fair to have its most successful year.

T. P. Lorang has been slightly under the weather the past couple of days.

W. E. Kerr received a consignment of three dozen mail boxes this week for the patrons of the free rural delivery on American ridge. These boxes are furnished by the Portland Oregonian at $1.50 apiece with the Weekly Oregonian thrown in. They are of substantial make and are of fine appearance also. About 32 of these have been disposed of already.

Messrs Harper and McConnell experienced fruit packers from Palouse are working for White Brothers in the cold storage this week.

Last Sunday while Freddie Crews and some other boys were playing with the N. P. turntable his foot got caught in the gearing and was badly bruised though no bones were broken.

Moscow is getting ready for her big Inland Empire Fair, September 29 to October 2 and is making great preparations to make this, its first fair, a great success. The management are greatly pleased, with the prospect and unless something unusual happens their expectations will be fully met.

E. E. Beaver of Leland has rented a farm about four miles east of Lewiston and will move there in a short time.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"B. L. Byer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says T. B. Little, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by White & Co.
