FRIDAY, NOV 20 1903.

There has again been brought to our notice two instances of this infernal peddling business and as usual, plenty who are penny wise and pound foolish have bit at the bait offered.

One, a grocery concern from the coast, was here delivering goods and receiving the cash. The other from our neighboring town of Lewiston, has been busy selling tea and offering a premium of China-ware to sell it, we believe the outfit is termed the Imperial Tea Co.

We would like to know some method to convince the people of the folly of patronizing those concerns, but apparently what is said goes in one ear and out of the other. Maybe if the local merchants would refuse to purchase their produce, refuse them credit, refuse to help them in their socials, refuse them discounts and treat them as outlaws of the community, their folly would be brought home and a cessation of mail orders and peddling might occur, for such a course would show this class how much they are dependent upon their town and local merchants for their prosperity.

As to the concerns who, taking advantage of there being no license law affecting them, no taxes to meet and no credits to risk, deliberately invade a legitimate merchant's territory, they are verging on the shysters, and deserve the condemnation of all sound-thinking people. Of course a large place like San Francisco or other large cities, all kinds of grafts originate and have their day, but when our sister town of Lewiston begins this sort of thing, it hurts, and hurts muchly. We wonder if the legitimate merchants of that place cannot do something to stop this?

We wish the Spokesman-Review correspondent in speaking of Kendrick, would be more careful in the statements made and their use of the truth. We noticed in Wednesday's paper that the roads leading to here were well-nigh impassable; that don't bear out the fact of the heavy trade here for the past two weeks. Then we noticed several items which were some weeks old and perverted. Give us a fair deal and straight facts and we won't kick, but a false slam is rather hard to stand.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.—This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as 'hive syrup and tolu,' but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It enables the patient to 'throw up the plug' quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A. C. White & Co.

Now is the time to set out your trees and that you may get what you want we note the fact that H. E. Wessels has the celebrated Rome Beauty, Gano Jonathan and Wagner apple trees, two year olds, fine large and healthy. Mr. Wessels is selling the above at a very low figure, they are perfectly acclimated and he will be wise who purchases from him.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by White & Co.

Our Meed of Thanks

Another year has rolled around and we join the public in giving our meed of praise to the author of all good gifts. Ourselves and family, in good health and spirits return thanks to God for his many blessings. Our store and business having felt the results of the prevalent prosperity and satisfied patrons, return thanks for an unexcelled year of good trade, and wish to express the same.

We therefore will in spirit be with you this Thanksgiving, and hope it will be an enjoyable.
