A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand given as soon as the cold is contracted...

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup, and la grippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation...

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears...

American Ridge.

A warm time was had at American ridge polling place Monday. It was over the election of a read overseer. The victorious party are jubilant and claim the spoils of victory. Frank Benninger, who has served several times, and Nick Brocke, were supported by their friends in royal style...

Council Proceedings

Council met in called session to consider petition of J. M. Lavin to erect a blacksmith shop on Lt. 1, Blk 12, all present but H. N. Nelson. The petition and a remonstrance against same was read by the clerk and referred to the health, fire and police committee, who reported back without recommendation. A motion to grant the petition was discussed by the council and parties interested and was lost. The council refused the petition and adjourned.

Peter Specker and Herman Wagner are now engaged conducting the business recently purchased from W. E. Daggett. Both these young men are well known, popular and of good ability, and we bespeak for them that consideration which was given to Mr. Daggett.

McCrea Bros. have an inducement in their ad. this week. Read it.

M. J. Wessels returned home Monday from a visit to the upper country. He will now be at home for a few weeks, preparing his material and getting the exhibits ready for shipment. Through his courtesy we were permitted to look over the plan of decoration of the Idaho exhibit and the drawings of same. This will be beautiful when completed in the grasses, grains, etc. of our state, and will doubtless attract considerable attention.

J. H. Lavin has leased the property next to the Hamley photograph gallery with the intention of placing a blacksmith shop on the same. Mrs. Hamley circulated a petition against this and Mr. Lavin also circulated a petition to have the same erected. Both papers received signers and the matter was left to the council to decide for or against. A special meeting was called for last evening to pass upon the matter. Considerable discussion produced and has been made by the intuition of Mr. Lavin.

T. P. Lorang has had a neat sign placed on his window. Wholesale and retail cigars, you know.

R. B. Himes has had E. Clem placing where all can see, his name and photography business. Its a neat job and a useful idea.

Too much praise cannot be given the Rebekah lodge for engaging the Schubert Symphony club and lady quartet of Chicago to appear here on December 29. This company is in its tenth year of success, and is acknowledged everywhere to be the most up-to-date musical company traveling. A delightful blending of pure fun and fine music is one reason why the above company has won its way to the top notch of public esteem.

The Latah County commissioners met in extra session Dec. 3 and after allowing the bridge contract to Eli Harris, transacted a little business relative to tax collection, county aid, and allowed a tax certificate to the Western Loan & Savings company for lot 2, block 7 and lots 1, 2, 5, 6, block 13 original townsite, also to J. S. Vincent tax certificate for lot 8, block 15, original townsite, and one to H. W. Weber for lots 5 and 10 and 74 feet all in Oak addition. The board then adjourned to meet the second Monday in Jan.

Died.

Nancy Jane Ball, aged 55 years, nine months, of typhoid fever, Tuesday, December 8, 1903.

Mrs. Ball made a noble fight against the ravages of the disease but fate was against her. She leaves five grown children and a husband. This family are among the pioneers of American ridge, having made their home there for over fifteen years, and the death of Mrs. Ball will be a heavy loss, not only to the family but to the many friends. The Salate took charge of the body and conducted the obsequies, the remains being interred in the American cemetery.

The Moscow Telephone company is erecting the poles for their American ridge customers and hope soon to install the phones. We believe there will be some ten customers to start with.
