

THE LAST CALL!

WHEN you read this Announcement, ONLY A FEW MORE HOURS will remain of the GREATEST SLAUGHTER SALE OF MERCHANDISE held in this section of Idaho for many years. It is up to you--the few who have not attended this sale--to say whether you care to save from 20 to 40 per cent on your purchases during this sale or pay other merchants' regular prices.

We Will Meet Any Competition

on dependable merchandise, it makes no difference WHO nor WHERE THEY are. We have nailed our banner right to the top of the pole and have inscribed on that banner our slogan,

Fred S. Beckwith Sells It for Less

We intend to wind up this sale in a perfect blaze of glory--the bridle has been taken off--all short lots, odds and ends, left from the terrific selling of the past few days, will be slaughtered unmercifully. The very fact of many lines being new in the short lot column speaks well for them; had they not been desirable goods they would not now be short lots. Take a look at our show windows; read the prices marked on our goods;

Duplicate Those Prices If You Can---But YOU CAN'T DO IT

To you, who have been sending your money two thousand miles from homes, sending it to mail order houses, houses that DO NOT handle dependable merchandise, to you specially we extend the invitation to attend the closing hours of this sale, promising you that you won't be deprived of the use of your money from four weeks to two months waiting for your goods to reach you.
