Who said it couldn't snow in Idaho. Take a look out of doors.

Kendrick is facing a wood and coal famine.

Jerome Day To Chicago

Boise Capital News: State Senator Jerome J. Day of Moscow will be Idaho's representative to make the trip to Chicago to consult there with the syndicate behind a prominent engineer on the closing of a contract financing the north and south railroad. Negotiations carried on between Governor Alexander and Senator Day as well as his brother, Harry L. Day, the well-known mining man of Wallace, who is in the city assisting in closing up the affairs of the Panama-Pacific exposition commission of which he was a member, resulted in the consent of Senator Day being secured. He leaves for Chicago Tuesday.

It was announced yesterday that Senator Day and Aaron Par-er of Grangeville, both members of the north and south railroad commission, would be asked to make the Chicago trip in response to urgent telegrams from the engineer who made an inspection of the route last summer for capitalists of eastern states. He stated in his telegram that if the state could send a representative to Chicago, he was prepared to talk business and close a contract for the building of the railroad.

A second telegram was received by the governor from this engineer yesterday. It is as follows:

"Chicago, Ill., Jan. 27, 1916.

"Governor Moses Alexander:
"Yours of today received. Please wire Friday if possible when representatives will arrive, so I can make definite appointment here. Also have brought all available data and information, without delaying, however, on that account."

That the mission of the Idaho representative is one of paramount importance is evident from the tone of the telegrams received. It is a well-known fact that there is ample capital in the east seeking legitimate investment and at that some of this has been secured to finance the north and south railroad seems to be quite apparent.

Wegner-Meyer

Cameron—Last Wednesday Jan. 26th at 2 p. m. at the German Lutheran church occurred the wedding of Carl L. Wegner and Anna Meyer. The day was beautiful, the sun shone brightly and sleighing was perfect.

A large crowd had gathered at the church to witness the ceremony and the tolling of the church bell mingled with the merry jingle of sleigh bells announced the arrival of the bridal party, which Fred Silflow brought in a beautifully decorated bob-sled.

As Mrs. Schultz played the wedding march the procession into the church was led by the two little flower girls, Martha Abitz of Spokane and Dora Scheele of Fairfield, next came the bride accompanied by her bridesmaids, Miss Amananda Meyer and Miss Hanna Wegner. The groom and his bestmen, Mr. A. F. Wegner and Mr. Herman Meyer followed.

After the ceremony all sped to the Meyer home, where a sumptuous dinner awaited them. The entertainment lasted until the early hours of the morning and none departed before.

The bride was clad in a beautiful crepe de chine, trimmed in all-over lace and carried white roses. The bridesmaids wore white voile and carried carnations. The bridal pair received many beautiful and expensive gifts.

The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Cameron and the bride is one of Cameron's popular young ladies. The entire community joins in wishing them a long and happy married life.

John J. Woody returned from Boise Sunday, where he has been attending the County Commissioners convention. He says they had a very interesting meeting and much good will come from it.

In all the good road meetings held over the country you never heard anything where the auto licenses were spent. They were to be left in the county, but where is the money being spent. We have not seen any of it being placed on the hills and grades of the Potlatch and a great many dollars left here for that purpose.

Must Feed Game Birds

Lewiston, Feb. 1.—A message received last night from W. J. Jordan at Grangeville stated hundreds of China pheasants and quail are suffering for feed in the Lawai valley and large numbers will perish unless steps are immediately taken by sportsman to relieve the situation. Mr. Jordan made the trip from Lewiston to Grangeville yesterday afternoon and stated hundreds of the birds were along the railroad right-of-way between Joseph and Jacques Spar and were so weak they could hardly fly from the track. Mr. Jordan suggests the Lewiston Gun club start a subscription today and arrange to send bundle grain or straw and loose grain to the valley no later than tomorrow morning. He suggests an arrangement might be made by which the feed could be thrown from the morning freight train and, being within the enclosure of the right-of-way, would be protected from stock. He said the train crews state the birds have been along the track in large numbers for the past several days.

Rev. C. W. Ruth

of Indianapolis will be here February 10th to conduct revival services in the Methodist Church.

Road Fund Gone

The report of the state highway commission for the year has been completed and submitted to the governor.

The total receipts from all sources for the highway department for the year amounted to $531,233.18. This included auto license fees, bond issues, receipts from counties and refunds on warrants.

The total expenditures for all purposes amounted to $592,417.50, which represents the total claims paid or approved for payment. The November claims unpaid for lack of funds amounted to $36,798.37. The December claims unpaid were $25,810.46, making the total claims unpaid $62,608.83. The balance in the highway fund at the close of the year was $1,424.51.

In the report not a penny was spent in the northern part of the state, yet the north has paid a large portion of the taxes that made it possible for road work. The same old song it is so far north that the money is all gone before it can get up their. It must melt along the road.

Ice men are feeling that the cold spell has hung on too long. Everybody has put up ice and the supply will be more than the demand, and everybody will be singing, how would you like to be the ice man.

Friday and Saturday the trains were held up in the Palouse country on account of heavy drifts of snow and cut this section off from the outside world for a few hours. That was all right the outside people were not much missed for we have the goods in this Potlatch country and can stand it a few days.

Problem

Two binders, one following the other and cutting 8 foot swaths, make 20 rounds of a field of grain, 160 acres. How much more does the first binder cut than the second?

From the report of Mr. T. T. Kerl of Coeur d'Alene, as published in the Star-Mirror Monday. The north is already divided in Republican ranks and it is nothing more than expected, scrap up here and let the south get the pudding. Mr. Kerl favors Capt. Davis.

High School Notes

The regular literary program announced to be given Friday afternoon has been postponed. Instead of this program the high school students will give an entertainment and basket social Tuesday Feb. 8th, 7:30 p. m. A small admission fee of 10c and 15c will be charged for the entertainment and the proceeds will go into the athletics fund. Let everybody realize that they should turn out and encourage our boys and girls in their worthy endeavor. Girls bringing baskets admitted free. Remember, Tuesday evening, 7:30 p. m., school auditorium.

The boys and girls will play a basket ball doubleheader, Saturday evening at 8:30 p. m. The Orofino boys and girls will be their opponents. This is the only game scheduled for the Kendrick girls this season. The remodeled high school gymnasium will be used for this game. Arrangements are being made to handle a large crowd. Heat and lights guaranteed. Come out and help dedicate the new "gym"

War in High School

Everywhere you read about the war in Europe, but do not realize that there is a desperate struggle going on in your very midst. This is a great struggle between intellect and ignorance. Although intellect is greatly outnumbered by ignorance, the war is being carried on most vigorously. Intellect is represented by Prof. Best and ignorance by the majority of his Geometry class. Reports as to the results of the battles are conflicting. In the last reports the struggle is becoming more desperate day by day and it looks as though Prof. Best will suffer a disastrous defeat if he does not get the neutrals "Home Study", "More Effort", "Individual Study" to become his Allies.

English II

Rev. Killian of Garfield, Wn., who has been holding revival meetings in the Presbyterian church for the past two weeks, has honored the pupils of the H. S. and some of the grades with some excellent lectures. His subjects, for a part, have been on clean living. He complimented the High School basket ball boys on the clean game they played the other night, also defeated by a big score. Mr. Kerns also favored the gatherings with some fine solos.

Defeated in Basket Ball

Last Saturday night the Kendrick High School team was defeated by Moscow. The Kendrick boys declare that the Moscow boys are the fastest they have seen on the floor this year. Kendrick was defeated with a score of 18 to 56.

Camp Fire Girls

The organization of Camp Fire Girls January 31. The Clover club met and after business was attended too the organization of Camp Fire Girls followed. They filled out the required blanks. Those who wished to become "Camp Fire Girls" signed their names before departing.

State Representative J. J. Day was a visitor in this city a few minutes Monday, he was returning to his home in Moscow after a visit in the Capital city. His mission there was in regard to the north and south railroad. Mr. Day says it is the proper thing to have such a road built. He said even if the railroad was not completed now it would be best to make a good wagon road on the proposed right and then latter build the railroad.

Ladies Study Club

Mrs. H. W. Best and Mrs. B. C. Johnson were hostesses for the study club Wednesday afternoon. Parliamentary drill was followed by the final papers on the western coast states. "From Los Angeles to Bremerton Navy Yards by Boat," by Mrs. G. S. Porter included pleasing descriptions of Monterey and Seattle, and was supplemented by reminiscences of coast-types by Mrs. Wenzlaff. Mrs. G. W. H. Smith wrote of "Western Washington," with sympathetic familiarity, and song "My Little Gray Home in the West," by Mrs. Patton, fittingly closed the program.

The Potlatch again came to the front last week when Mrs. Frank Roberts on American ridge, won first prize and a Silver Medal with her Rose Comb Rhode Island Reds. Ben Callison of American ridge won first prize and a Silver Medal with his Bourbon Red Turkey at the Poultry show in Moscow last week.

Several citizens of this city attended the funeral of Mrs. Kite at Juliaetta Monday.

Victory for K. A. A. C.

Last Saturday evening the Leland basket ball team was badly defeated by the K. A. A. C., the score being 13 to 65 in our favor. The game was well attended by Kendrick people. Thirteen surely was an unlucky number for Leland for although Kendrick gave them several chances they couldn't hit the basket after the 13th score.

President Holland of the Washington Agricultural College gave a lecture on the same subjects.

The Home Products Banquet Friday night was a great success. Over three hundred guests being present. A steer, wether and hog from the University farm all prize animals having been exhibited at the Lewiston and Portland shows was sacrificed for the occasion. Bread from wheat grown on the College farm and ground in the College mill. Fruits and vegetables all came from the College farm cooked and served by the University girls, who deserve great credit for the able and efficient manner in which they managed this immense work.

Among the noted after dinner speakers were Pres. Brannon of the State University, Pres. Black of the Lewiston Normal, Prof. Hystop of the Washington State College, Mr. Jordan Traffic manager of the N. P. Railroad, Rev. Wattson of the Episcopal church Moscow and T. T. Kiril of Coeur d'Alene.

Saturday—Saturday forenoon was devoted to a meat cutting demonstration by C. Hagen of the Cold Storage plant showing the percentage and difference in the meat from good and poor stock and clearly demonstrated the fact that poor stock don't pay.

The Housekeepers Sessions were of equal interest with the farmers meeting. Many wives attending the session while their husbands listened to the experts on farm subjects. Anna Barrow of the Columbia University gave splendid talks covering the general principles of cookery demonstrating the scientific principles and showing the actual work in the cooking of fish flesh and fowl, fruits, batters and dough.

The subject of conveniences and labor saving appliances was ably discussed, also beautifying the home.

Farmers Week at County Seat

Following Reported by a Potlatch Farmer Attending

The farmers and house-keepers week at the Idaho State University opened Monday with a good attendance. Nearly every part of the state was represented with a number of farmers and stock raisers from Washington and Oregon.

Monday was devoted to Soils and Farm crops. The first subject was Functions of the Soil Bacteria by Prof. Putman of the State College, who gave a good talk on the use and necessity of these organisms in the make up of a productive soil.

Prof. Roff of the State College spoke on Canada Field Peas—this is a new crop and attracting a good deal of attention—Field Peas is a summer fallow crop were Corn and Beans can not be grown.

James Nelson of Kendrick talked on Supplementary crops for wheat farmers. Mr. Nelson spoke of the drain or effect on the soil by the various crops of the Palouse country the need of diversified farming and rotation of crops, the crops of the Potlatch section and the amount of various products shipped out of Kendrick during the last year, closing with a talk on the great Potlatch Bean crop.

Prof. Peterson of the State College gave a very interesting talk on the soils of Latah county.

Wednesday Dairying—The problems in dairying was subject for the discussion Wednesday. Prof. Iddings of the State College gave an excellent talk on Silos and Ensilage giving the experience gained on the college farm, which has four Silos, which were filled last year with corn, oats, peas, wheat and vitch. The yield was practically the same. Between seven and eight tons to the acre. Feeding value appeared to be nearly the same although the stock did not seem to like the wheat and vitch as well as the other two.

J. Miller a systematic German, a former partner in the Young & Miller Dairy Farm at Princeton talked on the filling of the Silo, having had many years experience in this work.

Robt. Gray of Port Falls gave his experience in farming on stump land and had the sympathies of the timber section farmers.

T. V. Fluharth of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., gave an excellent talk on seeding clover and alfalfa with a muse crop giving the experience on 128 Palouse farms, where clover or alfalfa had been seeded with winter wheat. Spring wheat, oats and barley out of the 128 fields about 75 per cent had been a success. Of the grains named barley as a muse crop showed by far the best results.
