

GLEANINGS

Mrs. J. E. Hoyt was a Moscow visitor Tuesday.

Harry Grice and Paul Petrick returned from Orofino the first of the week.

Mrs. H. M. Smith and Mrs. M. E. Hanby of Juliaetta, were Kendrick visitors Tuesday.

Misses Lucile Grenolds and Elsie Thomas, who are attending school in Lewiston, spent Saturday and Sunday in Kendrick with their parents.

Mrs. Glenn Porter was a visitor in Moscow Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Bennett returned to her home in Potlatch Saturday, after spending a week with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Waite of Big Bear ridge.

Miss Bertina Forest left for Moscow the last of the week to visit friends and schoolmates.

Mr. A. W. Jones and daughter, Miss Opal left for Moscow, where Miss Opal will take part in the County Spelling Contest given at that place.

Mrs. William Blackington and daughter, Mrs. Arthur Locke of Lewiston, arrived in Kendrick Saturday. They will go from here to Leland to make their home. Mr. Locke is coming overland. Mrs. Locke will be remembered as Miss Florence Blackington, formerly of Leland. They were married March 8th in Lewiston.

Kendrick has been unusually fortunate this winter in having so many home talent entertainments. They have all been very good and much of the credit for their success is due Mr. L. G. Peterson, who has taken the management of the majority of them.

Mr. James Emmett left for Lewiston Monday, where he will look after his Orchard tracts at that place.

Mrs. John Sadberg and children spent the week end at home, returning to Moscow Monday, where the children are attending school.

Miss Mary Mellison, and three girl friends, who are attending the University at Moscow, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCrea.

Attorney Geo. Hoyt of Troy, Dr. Hoyt's brother, bought a Kendrick lot some time ago at a tax sale, for fifty cents. Last week when he was in Kendrick he inspected his property and found it was located in the middle of the swiftly flowing Potlatch Creek.

Mrs. Claus Eichner and daughter, Miss Maude of American ridge, were visiting in Moscow Saturday.

Miss Mary Booher, who is teaching at Pine Creek, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Troy.

Mrs. Grant Evans spent Saturday in Moscow.

Miss Sarah Sweeney teacher on American ridge was a passenger to Moscow Saturday.

Dad Hall was in Kendrick Saturday from Weippe.

Mrs. Phillip Elvy returned to her home near Juliaetta Tuesday. She has been having some dental work done by Dr. Moser.

Mr. Dave Senter was transacting business in Moscow the first of the week.

After spending a couple of weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bolen, Miss Florence Hegge returned to her home in Juliaetta.

Herman Wegner, merchant of Asotin, Wash., was visiting his brother in Cameron Tuesday.

Mrs. Stockton, of Grangeville, her daughter and little daughter of Shoshone, Idaho, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wenzlaff the first of the week.

Mr. G. G. Oldfield left for Spokane on business Wednesday.

Dr. J. W. Stoneburner of Leland, made a business trip to Spokane the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gibbs moved to the Methodist parsonage Monday. Rev. Matney recently vacated the parsonage to move onto the former Hobbs place.

Mr. Jeff Buckles, who is working at Agatha is home on a short visit.

Albert Moskop was a Lewiston visitor Tuesday.

Mr. K. E. Koppe of Southwick, was in Lewiston Tuesday on business.

Miss Ruth Helpman spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Kendrick. She is attending the high school at Moscow.

Mr. Ray Jackson of Leland went to Spokane Monday, where he was married to Miss Mildred Richardson, 302 5th Avenue, Spokane, Wash. He and his bride are expected to return Saturday.

Mr. W. L. Taylor of Juliaetta was in Kendrick the first of the week looking after business. He states that about the first of April he will move his family here and go into partnership with Mr. Frank Crocker in the blacksmith shop. They will live in one of Mr. McDowell's houses on Main street.

Rev. G. W. Benjamin of Southwick left for Lewiston Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Benjamin and daughter, Miss Ruby as far as Juliaetta. Mr. Benjamin went to Lewiston on business concerning the church which recently burned down at Southwick.

Mrs. J. F. Jackson and son, Floyd, returned to their home in Leland Monday. They spent the winter in Newport, Oregon, for Mrs. Jackson's health.

The passenger train Sunday, which is due at nine-five P. M. didn't arrive in Kendrick until four-thirty Monday morning. High water at Pullman was the cause of the delay.

Mr. Pierce Hamley from Pendleton, Oregon, is visiting relatives and friends in Kendrick.

Dr. Smith had a disagreeable experience Sunday evening on his way to Juliaetta. The water was so high in one of the creek bottoms that the bridge was floating. The planks were loose on the bridge but both horses stepped on it at the same time so that they held until the crossing was made. Dr. Smith returned by way of the American ridge road.

Mr. Rongstead and son Clarence of Clarkston, arrived on Big Bear ridge Saturday where they will remain for the summer.

Mr. Carl Flomer returned to his home in Genesee after spending a short time with Gustav Blum of Cameron.

Mr. Bryan Deobald of American ridge returned from Juliaetta Saturday.

Mr. John Cox of Troy is visiting friends in Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Odem and children of Juliaetta, spent Sunday with Mrs. Odem's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Guy. Mr. Odem has a grocery store at Juliaetta.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mathes and Mrs. J. Hunt returned from Galena, Mo., Sunday. Mrs. Hunt and Mr. Mathes report their mother much better.

The Potlatch creek reached the high water-mark for this year, Tuesday morning. It ceased to be a creek soon after the spring thaw began and is running in the river class now.

Mr. James Nelson of Big Bear ridge, was a Gazette visitor one day last week. He has spent the winter in Moscow where his children have been attending school. Mr. Nelson has a fine farm on the ridge and will spend the spring and summer there.

Mr. Osborn is a first class shoemaker and deserves all the patronage of Kendrick and vicinity.

Dr. Lowry arrived in Kendrick from Moscow, Tuesday evening to attend the annual meeting of the Presbyterians. He returned Wednesday morning.

Mr. C. C. Blackburn, of Brady gulch, was ill the first of this week but is feeling better now. His health has not been good this winter.

Mrs. C. Thomas is very sick with erysipelas. Mrs. Earnest Randall is taking care of her.

Miss Hazel Craig, who has been telephone operator at Leland, resigned her position, and Mrs. James Thompson has taken her place.

Miss Ruth Chamberlain is unable to attend school on account of having trouble with her throat.

Mr. Geo. E. Crum, candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, was in Kendrick shaking hands with old friends and making new ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Leach and Mr. Leach's mother, Mrs. L. M. Leach left for Johnson, Wash., Wednesday, to make their home. Mr. L. M. Leach left about a week ago.

SPRING STYLE NEWS

You will be pleased with the Chic and dainty Dress Material that we now have on display.

We are proud of our Spring line and will consider it a favor to be allowed to show you the new things.

Among the New Arrivals

We have an extensive line of Ladies' Dress Skirts, all new models with large patch pockets and button-trimmed, made of heavy grade serge in grey, navy blue and dark green $3.50 to $6.00

Turkish Towels

Large Turkish Towel in pink, gold and blue plaids, Extra Quality, special this week 25c.

Neckties

A Large line of windsor ties in plaids and solid colors, extra fine silks 25c each

Just received a big bunch of Men's work pants strong and tough $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00

We now have the best assortment of 50c work shirts on earth. A large range of colors to select from sizes 14 1-2 to 17. Extra sizes for the big fellows 17 1-2 to 20, 65c.

Don't forget we are always ready to prove that we can beat the Grocery peddlers prices 12 to 20 per cent.

You can Buy at Home and Save Money

Kendrick Store Company

"The Quality Store"

Spring millinery just arrived in all its beauty, at the Kendrick Store Co.

Mrs. Lafe Keene returned to her home in Moscow Tuesday, after spending a couple of weeks with her son, Wade and his wife on American ridge.

Mrs. H. Best and little son, Reginald, spent Monday and Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Robert Brown on Pine creek.

Several of the children who live in the country are unable to attend school this week on account of the high water.

Mrs. W. Pemberton is assisting Mrs. Perkins in the relief work at the telephone office.

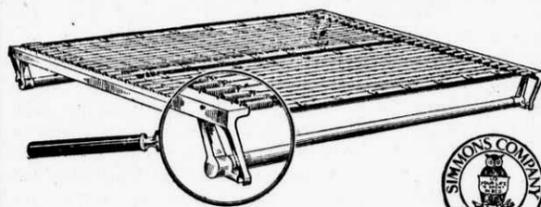

Geo. Barnum has remodeled his car. It now has a racer body and makes a classy appearance.

Mrs. J. B. Helpman returned from Newport, Wash., where she has been spending a few weeks with her husband. While there she saw the smelters in operation. Mrs. Helpman states that $10,000 worth of bouillon will be shipped every day. On the way home she visited with her brother who lives ten miles east of Garfield. Hugh Helpman is working in the smelter offices during the day and assisting his father in the bank evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. English and children arrived in Kendrick the last of the week to visit Mrs. English's mother, Mrs. Mina French.

Mrs. John Mathes and children have moved back on their farm on Little Bear ridge for the summer. They lived in town so the children could go to school.

Proper Treatment for Biliousness
For a long time Miss Lula Skelton, Churchville, N. Y., was bilious and had sick headache and dizzy spells. Chamberlain's Tablets were the only thing that gave her permanent relief. For sale by all dealers. —Adv

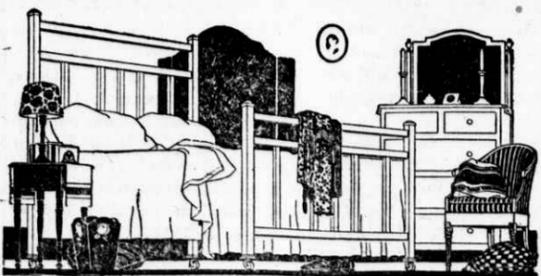

The bedspring pictured above cost, laid down from Montgomery Ward & Co. $4.65

Our Price is $4.50

Below is pictured other bedroom furniture which is also sold for less by the KENDRICK FURNITURE CO., than the same articles can be laid down for, by any mail order house in the northwest.

Don't you think we deserve your patronage on this basis?

The Kendrick Furniture Co.

HAMS, BACON and LARD

Buy them right here and boost home industry. During the past several months we have made more than 90 per cent of our hams and bacon right here and our customers tell us that the product is fine. In all events this is the logical place to buy all your meats whether fresh or cured.

Hides and Poultry

The market is firm and we buy any amount at any time and you get the cash.

N. B. Long & Son
Kendrick, Idaho.