Compare Montgomery-Ward & Co., prices with ours.

Look on page 19 of Montgomery-Ward, Portland Catalogue, note Baby Crib listed at $6.95 in white enamel and same in Vernis Martin for 7.30. Look at our Crib pictured above, same size posts, same size pillars, same size in every way, both Crib listed down on one side

Our Price in Kendrick is $8.50

add freight to the mail order Crib and you are paying $8.10.

Look on page 17 of same catalogue, note 2 inch post bed (at bottom) listed in gold finish $7.98, their bed has 5 filling rods 7-8 inch thick. Our bed (pictured above has the same 5 filling rods, but are 1 and 1-8 inch thick, 1-4 inch larger.

Our Price in Kendrick is $7.00

while Montgomery-Wards price (smaller bed) is about $9.25 laid down in Kendrick.

Also note on page 15 (same catalogue) at top, in center, bed spring made of sagless fabric, and listed at $3.95.

Bed springs are first class freight and this weighs 60 pounds, freight on same from Portland is 65c plus $3.95 makes $4.60 for the mail order springs.

Note the spring pictured above, same style spring, except has double wire fabric instead of single wire, (guaranteed 5 years longer) and our price in Kendrick is

Only $4.50

To sum it all up, our crib the same, our bed and spring better and our prices much lower.

"Buy where you darned please" but don't let the mail order houses rub it in.
