Claud Craig, "the bean king" brought three bean stalks to the Farmers Bank this week that completely filled an arm chair. The stalks were unusually large and quite full of pods. The pods were long and well filled. Three weeks of hot weather will see the bean crop ready to harvest in most sections of the Potlatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lewis made a trip to Bovil the first of the week in their car.

The Gazette office has installed a two-horse motor to run the cylinder and job press. Heretofore the presses were run with a gasoline engine which was a noisy, evil smelling method. The motor has a busy hum to it that is a much more pleasant sound than the hacking, congested cough of the old gasoline engine.

Henry Mielke, candidate for Probate Judge on the republican ticket of Nez Perce county, came up from Lewiston Saturday to spend a few days with his parents.

F. A. Wallace is putting up a stave silo on Dan Steven's place. It will have the patent door fasteners invented by Mr. Wallace and will hold 35 tons of ensilage.

Carl Albright went to Moscow Monday in his Ford truck with a thousand pounds of sweet corn. He lives nine miles below Juliaetta but by leaving home at five-thirty he sold his load of corn and got back before twelve o'clock, covering a distance of sixty miles. This trip would require a day and a half for a team to cover the ground. Carl found a ready market for his produce because it was fresh.

The Misses Daisy and Alpha Pierson of Myrtle spent Sunday in Kendrick.

Mr. A. M. Davis and daughter returned to their home in Spokane Tuesday after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Organ, of Potlatch Ridge.
