

Stories of Street and Town

M. W. McGraw, of Lookout, is in the city.

Eugene Bonhore was a Pottlach visitor yesterday.

Ben L. Schultz, of Nezperce, was in the city this week.

J. N. Scott, of Pullman, is a business visitor in the city.

Ellis Small was in the city last week from Gilbert, Idaho.

L. Wolf, a cigar manufacturer of Spokane, is in the city.

Chas. Smith was in the city yesterday from Billie Creek.

D. A. Johnston, of Moscow, was visiting in the city last week.

A. L. Bridgman, of Kooakia, was a guest at the Bollinger Saturday.

Mrs. G. W. Temple has returned from a visit with friends in Spokane.

E. E. DeAtley, principal of the Ah-sahka schools, was in the city Saturday.

Francis Lawler, of Kamiah, was transacting business in the city yesterday.

Born Thursday, April 13, to J. L. Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong, a daughter.

Professor Joseph Magee, of the Orofino public schools, was a visitor in Lewiston, Saturday.

George F. Loeb and Mrs. Loeb have returned from a few weeks visit with friends in Portland.

F. M. Burke left last night for a business trip to Lewiston and Asotin, says the Walla Walla Union.

Mrs. Lizzie Robinson, mother of Mrs. R. A. Quarles, left for her home in Colorado last Friday morning.

Gardner and Mrs. Phoebe Kelly have gone to Lewiston with the idea of locating there, says the Boise News.

E. W. Oliver and Mark Howe are in the city from Grangeville to be present at the funeral of Henry Wax.

L. Lequime has gone to Los Angeles as a delegate from the local Woodman lodge to the meeting of the head camp.

I. D. Cleek, who has been in the city a few days on a mining deal, returned to his home in Pierce City yesterday.

Mrs. F. L. Armstrong left for Lewiston this afternoon, where she will spend the summer, says the Boise News.

N. C. Naylor has gone to Culesac to put a force of men at work on the Culesac grade which will be repaired for the county.

A. Binnard, general manager for the Kirkwood Distilling company, of Spokane, was in the city transacting business last week.

L. F. Williams, of this city, has received the appointment of assistant in charge of the Idaho mining exhibit at the Portland fair.

Warren Auchinvole and wife are planning to go to Lewiston in the near future to make that place their home.—Grangeville Standard.

P. F. Chadwick, a prominent hardware man of Colfax, is in the city. Mr. Chadwick is a brother of Superior Judge Chadwick, of Whitman county.

G. W. Goode, Frank Reed and Jones Fuller, representatives of the Grangeville lodge of Eagles, are in the city to attend the funeral of Henry Wax.

Mrs. Grace Damm, who has been visiting during the winter with her sister, Mrs. R. A. Quarles, will leave this week for her home at Wallace, Idaho.

The Woodmen of the World holds in its equalization fund $28,000 of the bonds of the Lewiston water department, also $24,000 Boise City refunding bonds.

Gus Thiering, accompanied by his family, left yesterday morning for Spokane. From there they expect to return to their former home in Minneapolis.

Dr. E. E. Brooks will leave the first of next week for Spokane, Lewiston and Twin Falls, intending to be absent about a week or ten days, says the Wardner News.

P. J. Zimmerman, the east end barber, has temporarily closed his shop, and in a few days will leave for his homestead on Orofino creek, where he will see to putting in the spring crop.

Frank Burke has gone to Grangeville where he will make an expert examination of the county records. The work will employ him for several weeks as the books have not been experted for several years.

W. A. Wellman, a former resident of Lewiston, who has been engaged in the hotel business at Orofino for the past two years, has sold his interest to his partner, Jos. Payne. Mr. Wellman will probably remain at Orofino.

Vic Smith, of Spokane, has been employed by the county commissioners to expert the books of the various county officers. As compensation he is to receive $10 per day and expenses together with railroad fare to and from Spokane.

H. C. Myers has sold the fair commission 50 photographs of Idaho waterfalls, mountains and other scenes to be exhibited in the Idaho building at Portland. They will make an attractive and interesting feature of the Idaho display, says the Boise News.

F. H. Gilbert has returned from Spokane.

Mrs. T. D. Barton has returned to her home in Lapwai.

T. M. Mockler, of Nezperce, is registered at the Bollinger.

John Kambitch, of Uniontown, is visiting among old friends in the city.

The steamer Spokane last night brought from Riparia 90 tons of freight.

E. W. Gibson and Frank Burch, of Pomeroy, were in the city on business this week.

Mr. Sam Goldstone, of Cottonwood, is in the city to attend the funeral of Henry Wax.

The Lewiston Grocery and Bakery has added a new delivery wagon to their business.

T. M. Mockler, of Nezperce, arrived in the city last evening from the Big Bend country.

William Hye expects to leave soon for the Warrens mining district where he will spend the summer.

A. O. Staab has repapered and enlarged the O. R. & N. lunch counter and put in boxes for ladies.

E. C. Piggott, recently of Stewart, Idaho, has purchased two and one-half acres of fruit land in Vineland.

C. W. Mount, general agent of the O. R. & N. Co., has gone to Nezperce and Camas prairie points in the interest of his company.

Crutcher & Loeb have purchased a handsome delivery wagon and horse and will deliver Hazelwood ice cream and other goods to all parts of the city.

H. C. Cullen, of the local land office, "was the lucky man" and drew the meal ticket at the Grand restaurant Saturday night. The lucky number was 1606.

It is estimated that the railroads will spend $300,000,000 this year for improvements. Just what part of this is intended for construction in the Clearwater country is not stated.

J. L. Coan, an up-to-date job compositor, of Dayton, Ohio, is now employed in the job rooms of the Lewiston Inter-State News. Those wishing "The Best Printing" can always get it at this shop.

E. H. Clark, the well known Pendleton wool buyer, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Clark is now looking after the wool which he contracted through the country. He left for Pendleton Sunday.

The county commissioners paid the semi-annual interest on the refunding bonds Friday and authorized the county auditor to draw a warrant in the sum of $2,250. The refunding bonds are in the amount of $85,000.

The excursion on the Mountain Gem and band concert given at Asotin by the Lewiston Military Band is reported to have been a most delightful affair. The band hope to arrange another excursion at a later date.

S. W. Dowell, of the Clearwater meat market, is building an addition to his shop and otherwise improving the same. He is also erecting a new slaughter house east of town and will hereafter do a wholesale and retail business.

The room vacated at the city hall by the removal of the library to the Carnegie building will be occupied by the city clerk when it has been refitted for that purpose, but the change will hardly be made till after the coming election.

A census of Wallace, taken by the city clerk of that city, has greatly surprised the people by showing a population of only 1639 when they have been claiming 3500. The census of 1900 gave the place 2265. The census just taken shows that there are 1542 males in the town and only 1097 females.

Governor Gooding has arranged for the purchase from M. H. C. Myers, the photographer, of 50 Idaho scenes to be placed in the Idaho building at the Portland Exposition. The series will include some of the choicest scenery of the state, together with agricultural, irrigation scenes and mining scenes.

Mrs. Crooke, of Thunder City, is here looking for Mrs. Jack Weering, whose husband was shot three months ago at Thunder mountain. Weering's condition is critical, blood poison having set in. He is not expected to live, says the Boise News. Mrs. Crooke has been unable to locate Mrs. Weering and will return to Thunder mountain.

The state pure food and dairy commission has chosen J. Shirley Jones, of Grant, Cal., as state chemist. His headquarters may be either Boise or at Moscow with the state university. The board has adopted a uniform stencil for high grade butter and cheese and for high grade butter and cheese and per showing name and location of where manufactured.

The orator to represent the Lewiston high school was chosen Friday night at a contest at the Methodist church. The candidate chosen was Dana Murdock, who will compete in the oratorical contest at Pullman, on May 12 when all the four year high schools of eastern Washington will be represented. The candidates in the contest Friday night were Edgar Stanton, Dana Murdock, Edna Driscoll, Verna Garby, Lena Irwin and Kathryn Cadwell.

V. H. Brown, of Spokane, is in the city.

Tom Beall is in town from his reservation farm.

F. B. Prine, of Lapwai, is spending a few days in the city this week.

D. J. Wyatt and family, of Webb Ridge, were in the city yesterday.

Born, to S. W. Dowell and Mrs. Dowell, April 15, an 11 pound son.

T. H. Brewer and Mrs. Brewer, of Genesee, were visitors here yesterday.

L. Ben Howard, of the mercantile company, has gone to the Camas prairie country.

Mrs. M. Alexander has returned from Kendrick where she visited her daughter, Mrs. F. S. Beckwith.

Frank W. Kettenbach, president of the Idaho Trust company, arrived in the city last evening from a business trip to Portland.

Mockler & Schultz, of Nezperce, this morning shipped from here 13 carloads of cattle and one of hogs to their Big Bend stock ranch.

The candidate for city office is now considering seriously the idea of putting himself in the hands of his friends. This is the next step always after counting noses and figuring out that you have a chance.

Miss Lizzie Kettenbach entertained the Normal faculty people at cards at the home of Mrs. W. F. Kettenbach last evening. The game was whist and the honors of the evening fell to Mrs. Black and Mr. Hibbard.

F. Glen Mattoon, Indian agent, of Lapwai, was in the city yesterday.

The Spokane league team, which played two games of baseball here last week, has returned to Spokane, having won a series of five games played during its tour.

The seventeenth of April has arrived and the time has come for the merger to unmerge. Shortly after this date the railroads have promised the people of the Clearwater country that they would hear something drop, and the people have their ears to the ground.

Wesley Steele is building an addition to his brick block opposite the Temple theater which will be occupied as a retail candy store for the Pring candy company. It will also be headquarters for the sale of all tickets to the Temple theater. R. E. Elvers, formerly manager of the Temple theater, will be in charge of the store.

D. C. Higdon, manager of the I. N. & C. stage line between Stites and Elk City, was in Lewiston Saturday on his way to Portland, where he will confer with officials of the company in regard to increased facilities for handling the traffic into the Elk district the coming season, which promises to be the heaviest in several years.

The local land office has received official advices from the department at Washington accepting the relinquishment from the state of Idaho of the 45,000 acres of lands filed on by the state July 6, 1902. The lands are located in the Salmon river country and are now open to settlement. The state still retains 15,000 acres in this district.

Ray Nannes was taken before Judge Hanlon yesterday and examined and adjudged insane. He will be sent to Blackfoot as soon as an attendant from that institution can reach the city. Mr. Nannes is a recent arrival in the west and is the man who was held up by practical jokers at Waha a few weeks ago. His friends claim that he was just recovering from a severe illness and that the shock unsettled his mind. A few days ago he brought suit in the district court against the men who perpetrated the fake hold-up.

Few pioneers are left in the country that date their arrival here in 1861 and of these few Hank Trimble is best known. "If there any other person in Lewiston now except myself that arrived as early as 1861," said Mr. Trimble yesterday. "I can't name him, and Tom Beall is all I know of in the country at present." Mr. Trimble walked here from Walla Walla on his way to the Orofino diggings. At that time there was not a house in the town but a few people were living here in tents. Next year was the grand rush to the mines and the town grew up like a mushroom.

Elmer Waldrip has returned from a trip to Spokane.

W. A. White, of White Bros & Crum Co., visited Moscow Saturday.

C. C. Fuller, editor of the Orofino Optimist, returned home yesterday.

A. A. Campbell has returned from a business trip to the Palouse country.

Robert McKinley, of Spokane, is in the city visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. A. Ford.

Mrs. C. A. Allard, of Walla Walla, is in the city visiting her brother, Dr. R. V. Kuhn.

The city is constructing a cinder path from the Fifth street crossing to the Carnegie library building.

Dolph Coolidge, of Colfax, was an arrival in the city Saturday to visit with his parents in Clarkston for a few days.

Mrs. W. P. Hurlbut has gone to St. Paul where she will meet Mr. Hurlbut who is now en route home from New York.

C. W. Mount, general agent of the O. R. & N. Co., visited the Palouse country the latter part of last week in the interests of the company.

Mc. H. Harbaugh has received his appointment from Governor Gooding as deputy game warden for Nezperce county and has entered upon the duties of his office.

The young child of Ransom Coburn this morning fell from the porch at the family residence and sustained a fracture of the right arm just above the wrist, splintering the bone badly. Dr. Phillips set the break.

The jury in the case of John Risse and wife vs. O. M. Collins, brought in a verdict in the district court awarding damages to the plaintiff in the sum of $150. The plaintiff asked for damages of $2,000. The suit was the outgrowth of alleged damage to plaintiff's lands by sheep said to belong to Mr. Collins.

County Surveyor Briggs and Commissioner Watson made an inspection of the Bessie Crockett grade from Orofino to the Russell ridge yesterday, and accepted the contract. About $2,300 has been expended there jointly by the county and the citizens of Orofino, each bearing half the cost. The balance due by the county, amounting to $700, was ordered paid.

Ben Stone is making an exhibit of sandstone from his new quarries at the Means property at the corner of Fourth and D streets. The rock makes an excellent showing both in texture and appearance. Mr. Stone has used a hydraulic and uncovered about twenty acres of the rock on the Washington side near the Swallows Nest. The stone will be in great demand for building purposes.

A. D. McKinley, of Wallace, a member of the city council of that place, was in the city last week inspecting the plant of the Lewiston Gas company. Mr. Aldrich, of Spokane, is now endeavoring to secure a franchise in Wallace and Mr. McKinley is investigating the nature of the plant that is proposed for installation in Wallace. Mr. McKinley represented Shoshone county in the last legislature.

Frank Martin, of Boise, Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. lodge for Idaho, is in the city and will institute a new lodge of the order here this afternoon, and this evening will meet in regular session the old Lewiston lodge when a reception will be tendered him in the lodge rooms and he will deliver an address. All Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families are invited to the banquet that will follow the ceremonies.

Dell Stimson, convicted on the charge of conducting a gambling game, was sentenced yesterday morning by Judge Carey to serve one year in the penitentiary at Walla Walla, says the Spokane Review. His attorneys have given notice of an appeal of the case to the state supreme court. Pending the appeal Judge Carey fixed the defendant's bond at $1,000. The bond was not furnished and Stimson is still confined in jail.

E. W. Oliver, owner of the North Star mining claim in the Clearwater country near Harpster, is in the city from Grangeville, accompanied by his attorney, George W. Goode. Mr. Oliver is endeavoring to have his mining claim patented and L. Kaelin has filed a protest with the local land office against the issuance of the patent he having filed a homestead on land covered by the North Star claim and a number of other mining claims. The case is now being heard before the officials of the local land office.

Notice!

Open for Settlement
20,000 Acres of Extra Choice State Land

will be open to entry April 25, 1905, a part, the only large body of choice land left in the arid states.

Perfect Climate
Water in Abundance

In the American Falls Canal. You can make final proof without living on the land.

Buy your tickets to American Falls, Idaho, on main line of the Oregon Short Line railway.

Snake River Valley Improvement Co.

American Falls, Idaho

BINNARD OPERA HOUSE

I. M. BINNARD, Manager
TONIGHT

The Keith Stock Company

In the Sparkling "YOUNG MRS. WINTHROP" Followed by The Society Drama "Man of Mystery"

Apple Eating Contest Friday Night.
Matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30
Evening prices: 10c, 20c and 30c. Seats on sale at the (l)wl Drug Store

UNIQUE THEATRE

Polite Vaudeville for Ladies, Gentlemen and Children.
This theater is on the circuit of the Pacific Coast Amusement Association, booking artists from Chicago to San Francisco. Open every evening at 7:15. Three shows every night.

E. F. Barnum, Mgr. - 400 Main Street

GEO. H. LAKE Jewelry, Watches, Silver-ware, Engraving and Repairing
316 MAIN STREET

J. H. BETHEL'S

FOR
Railroad Watches, Jewelry, Cut Glass, Silver-wear, Clocks and Art Goods.

Full Line of Haviland China. N. P. R. R. Watch Inspector
Phone 2004, Lewiston, Idaho

THE Fishing Tackle

we sell was selected by an experienced angler. It Gets the Fish

Ours is the only place that can handle Spaulding Bros. sporting goods in Lewiston.

DENT & BUTLER

We carry a nice, clean, up-to-date Stock of Groceries in connection with our Men's Furnishing Goods. Drop in and let us make you Prices. We will deliver them in a minute

W. R. WYATT
No. 450 Main Street

Lewiston-Clarkston Co.

(Succeeding Lewiston Water and Power Co.)

Clarkston, Wash. : : : Lewiston, Idaho

Water-electric power, all purposes
Electric Lights in Seven Towns
Manufacturing Sites
Lewiston-Clarkston Bridge
Clarkston Water Works
Irrigated Fruit Lands
Residence and Business Sites