PHILHARMONIC LADY QUARTET OF CHICAGO.

Friday, March 20, 1903.

Seldom in the history of amusements in St. Anthony is the announcement of so pleasing an event possible as the appearance of the celebrated Philharmonic Lady Quartet of Chicago in the opera house on Friday, March 20. The Philharmonics are touring West to the coast and had an open night to fill in. Mr. Bartlett saw an opportunity to give the patrons of the opera house a rare musical treat, and has given the company a substantial cash guarantee. These artists come here for the first time heralded by the most flattering press and public comment, and are cited everywhere as the strongest lady quartet now before the public.

It is a praiseworthy effort to secure a company of this sort, and one which we feel sure will receive the hearty support of the community.

A large number of tickets were sold by subscription which will undoubtedly give these talented artists a representative audience on Friday evening. Tickets on sale at Watson & Moore's, the St. Anthony Druggists.
