C. C. Moore, of the St. Anthony Druggists, is thoroughly in love with Fremont county, or as Mr. Moore would say, "the Banana Belt of Idaho," and in consequence of this fact he spent several days last week scouring the Squirrel creek country for a piece of land.

A. K. Steunenberg, president of the First National Bank of St. Anthony, came over from Caldwell last Friday on business, and to enjoy the fine weather which we happened to be having just at that time, but immediately after Mr. Steunenberg left it snowed.

David Osborne, proprietor of the Osborne House at Rexburg, was doing business in the county seat Monday and was a pleasant caller at this office. Mr. Osborne said they were putting in the poles and wires and Rexburg will be lighted with electricity within ten days.

We neglected to mention last week the occasion of Elmer Ramsopher's dignified and fatherly appearance, but it is not too late yet. Mother and babe are doing fine but Elmer couldn't hold up under the strain and he has been confined to his room for several days with stomach trouble.

6 bars of Silk soap for 25c at Thompson's.

B. M. Wood, nephew of R. T. Drollinger, arrived in St. Anthony the first of the week from Hillsboro, Ind. Mr. Wood is a barber and has taken charge of a chair in W. W. John Holbrook and his wife, Gopher-sack, came up from the Pocatello agency last week to visit with Mrs. Ed. Criswell. Probate Judge Donaldson has been very busy with probate and other work for the last few weeks and it is gratifying to republicans to observe the interest which Mr. Donaldson takes in the work. He is always at his post during business hours, and it is safe to say that he is the first probate judge Fremont county has had for several years that understood the law sufficient to intelligently perform the duties of this important office.

The home of Rudolph Naef of Teton City was blessed on Tuesday by the arrival of an eight pound girl. The neighbors are looking after Mr. Naef, and some of them say that he is in a critical condition. They have been married five years and this is their first child, and it is attributed to the fact that all these years, until the last, they had lived on a "dry-land" farm. Dr. Middleton is looking after Mrs. Naef, and says the mother and baby are getting along very nicely.

The sale of the Idaho Falls Times a short time ago, so we are informed, was not consummated, but Mr. Deihl, the editor, made a deal last week whereby he at last got rid of the Times. The new proprietor is F. A. Dare of Anoka, Minn. We are reliably informed that in the transfer there also takes place another important change which is that of the politics of the paper. It will hereafter be known as republican in principles instead of democratic.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP
Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter, the second one, I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by Watson & Moore Druggists.
