Cause of Lockjaw.
Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. Sold by all druggists.

Local Happenings.

G. H. B. Harris was in Marysville Friday.

The city council met Monday and adjourned until next Wednesday.

A. D. Miller and Howard Hale were visiting around among the voters Friday.

Did you see the grand display of millinery at the Barrett-McHendricks new store?

Hon. C. C. Moore, of St. Anthony expounded the principles of Republicanism at the Ward house last night, Nov. 7th, to an attentive audience. His talk was clean, manly and convincing.

J. G. Wood and J. Hendricks went to Parker Saturday returning the same day. On their return they stopped at Vernon and called on Bishop Roy Cutler. They were shocked Monday to hear of his death.

A petition was circulated here Monday asking the city dads to impose a license on all livery and feed stables, and all hotels, lodging houses and restaurants. It will probably be acted upon at their next meeting.

Word reached here early Monday morning to the effect that Bishop Roy Cutler had passed away after a few days' illness. He took sick on the preceding Tuesday with typhoid-pneumonia. He leaves a loving wife and five little ones, also a father and mother, and a host of people who had become endeared to him by his good and amiable disposition.

Mrs. Lundy Loosli presented her liege lord with a very pretty Democratic girl Sunday morning, but Lundy don't get excited like Jim as he is used to these things. This is his—well we will have to call the roll.

The marshal was called out Monday morning to see what was the matter at Jim Harris'. When he arrived he was quietly informed that it was only Jim celebrating the advent of a young lady's arrival at his home and Jim says she is a Democrat too.

Mr. K. Sellars of Idaho Falls and Miss Rachel Arizona Shultz were quietly married by Judge Wood Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, where a few friends had met to witness the ceremony. They left for their home in Idaho Falls Monday, where they will be at home to their friends after November 10th. The best wishes of their friends here go with them to their new home.

A few ladies from Rexburg, Chester and Vernon met with Miss Lucy Harris Saturday night. There was so much laughter and noise that James Harris went over to Justice Wood's to inquire if it was a Republican or Democratic rally, or if there was a bond meeting or a county seat fight on. He was informed that a few of the "Old Maids" had met. He went home but not to sleep, for the next morning his ear was quite red and carried the impression of a key hole.

Tested Recipes

SOFT GINGERBREAD—One cupful of sugar, one cupful of New Orleans molasses, one half cupful of butter, one half cupful of lard, three eggs, three cupfuls of sifted flour, one cupful of boiling water in which two level teaspoonfuls of soda have been dissolved, one teaspoonful of ginger and one teaspoonful of cinnamon. This mixture is very thin.

CHOCOLATE PIE—First line a deep pie pan with rich pie crust, and bake in a quick oven. After your crust is baked, grate one half cupful of chocolate, and put into a pan with one cupful of hot water, butter the size of an egg, one tablespoonful of vanilla, one cupful of sugar, the beaten yolks of two eggs, and two tablespoons of corn starch dissolved in a little water; mix well, and cook in a double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Pour into the pie shell, and let cool; beat the whites of two eggs to a stiff froth, add two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, spread on top of pie, and brown in the oven. If prepared correctly it will be thick and firm, like jelly when cool, and will not run when cut.

MAPLE FILLING—A delicious maple filling for a layer cake is made with the whites of eggs beaten stiff, with enough grated maple sugar to make it of the proper consistency. Just before it is spread between the layers add about a teaspoonful of melted butter. Maple frosting for any loaf is made by mixing a gill each of rich cream and grated maple sugar. Cook in a double boiler and thicken as it touches the boiling point with the beaten white of an egg. Spread on cake when it begins to cool.

TOMATO SALAD—Take six good-sized tomatoes; skin them whole and cut a hole in the top of each; fill this with chopped celery and mayonnaise dressing. Arrange each tomato on a leaf of lettuce and serve. This makes a dainty looking dish for lunch or tea, the green of the lettuce contrasting well with the red of the tomato and the yellow mayonnaise dressing.

CHOCOLATE SAUCE FOR ICE CREAM—Grate four tablespoonfuls of sweet chocolate into six tablespoonfuls of cream and rub to a smooth paste. Add two cups of boiling water and cook in a double boiler, stirring steadily for ten minutes after the mixture begins to boil. Remove from the fire and, when cold, flavor with vanilla. Just before pouring over the cream beat hard.

CHICKEN AND-NUT SALAD—Cut the white meat of a chicken into small pieces, and add to it a half cup of English walnut meat chopped rather coarsely, and a cup of finely cut celery or four or five lettuce leaves torn in shreds. If the latter sprinkle with celery salt, dust lightly with pepper, marinate with just a little vinegar or lemon juice, and add half a cupful of chicken stock or gravy and the same amount of mayonnaise. Toss lightly with a fork. Line a salad bowl—or the little individual paper cases—with the white leaves of lettuce, curling each one to form a cup or nest. Fill these with a salad mixture and crown each with a teaspoonful of mayonnaise.

JELLIED CHICKEN—Boil a chicken as for soup, putting with it an onion, a few stalks of celery, a bay leaf and several sprigs of parsley. Cook a well crushed knuckle of veal in the same way. Let the soup cool on the bones. When it is cold enough to take the fat from the top, do this, and put back over the fire as much of the soup as you will need for your jelly, with one tablespoonful of gelatine, which has been soaked in a little cold water, to every quart of the stock. When it comes to a boil, throw in the white and crushed shell of an egg, skim off the scum that rises to the surface, and strain the soup. Season it to taste if the seasoning with which it has been cooked leaves it insipid. A few drops of onion juice, a little celery salt, one tablespoonful of white wine vinegar and twice as much sherry can usually be added to advantage. Wet small molds, and pour a little of the jelly into them. When the jelly begins to form, put into it some of the chicken cut into dice, a slice or two of hard boiled egg in each mold, and a little minced olive. Fill the mold with jelly, and set the forms aside to become cold and hard.
