 The Marysville Republican has suspended publication. It was a newsy little sheet and the merchants and citizens of Marysville made a serious mistake in not giving the paper the support it deserved. But the expense of a newspaper is beyond the comprehension of the average man.

 All the resources of science and the entire range of the pharmacopoeia have failed to provide or discover a remedy for the "blues," but if there are any people in this city who are subject to attacks of melancholy, they may proceed to lift up their voices in a glad Hosanna of thankfulness that at last an infallible panacea has been found, a pantamorphis cure, which never fails to banish dull care, and this sovereign specific is that merry melange of mirth and melody, coming in all its effulgent completeness, the bright and diverting farce comedy, "Maloney's Wedding Day," at the opera house, Nov. 16th, is the date set for this laughing carnival.
WANTED.—Butter and Eggs.
 SKALET & SHELL.
 No one seems to know who "Ben Davis" was, or where he lived or died, yet the apple has given pleasure and dollars to thousands. It came into favor with farmers and orchard planters in the Southwest, and the name went along with the tree. The quality is not good, but it is pretty, a good keeper, and is therefore a money maker.

The Christmas Delineator.

The December Delineator, with its message of good cheer and helpfulness, will be welcomed in every home. The fashion pages are unusually attractive illustrating and describing the very latest modes in a way to make their construction during the busy festive season a pleasure instead of a task and the literary and pictorial features are of rare excellence. A selection of Love Songs from the Wagner Operas, rendered into English by Richard de Gallienne and beautifully illustrated in colors by J. C. Leyendecker, occupies a prominent place, and a chapter in the Composers' Series, relating the Romance of Wagner and Cosima, is an interesting supplement to the lyrics. A very clever paper entitled "The Court Circles of the Republic," describes some unique phases of Washington social life is from an unnamed contributor, who is said to write from the inner circles of society. There are short stories from the pens of F. Hopkinson Smith, Robert Grant, Alice Brown, Mary Stewart Cutting and Elmore Elliott Peake, and such interesting writers as Julia Magruder, L. Frank Baum and Grace MacGowan Cooke hold the attention of the children. Many Christmas suggestions are given in needlework and the Cookery pages are redolent of the Christmas feast. In addition, there are the regular departments of the magazine, with many special articles on topics relating to woman's interests within and without the home.
 The big musical farce comedy, "Maloney's Wedding Day," now in its 6th successful season will be the attraction at the opera house on Wednesday, Nov. 16th. Countless thousands have laughed themselves into hysterics at its funny situations, ludicrous happenings and the comical actions of famous Dan Maloney. The skit is one jumble of genuine jokes, fine scenery, beautiful costumes, calcium lights and surprises brought forward without any attempt or excuse. The piece is totally lacking in anything like a complicated plot, but who cares. It is a premium laughing carnival, an excellent evening's entertainment, a dispeller of the blues and the worries of every day life and has been stamped a success as such.
 —Three crown raisins 12 pounds for $1 at Thompsons.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
 No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It also is a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.

 There are still men who think that fattening cattle need no grain, any man will feed nothing but corn to a bunch of steers is just finding out. Even wheat straw is better than nothing and alfalfa hay will save about a third of the cost. But these are "practical" feeders. So have no use for "book-learnin'".
