Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. Sold by all druggists.

Local Happenings.

W. G. Hutchinson has bought the W. D. Kelley livery and feed stable.

Arnold Miller came up election day to see how the cats were jumping, and found they jumped low.

Heber Sharp and wife of St. Anthony, visited their daughter Mrs. Grant Hopkins, the first of the week.

Will Hopkins has the contract of quarrying rock for M. J. Kerr of Ora, and will start to work the coming week.

Wonder if the Democratic constable at Edmunds don't feel lonely these days. He ought to be spiteful and resign.

Dr. Young was called to Farnum Sunday to attend Mr. Van Sickle, who is suffering from a broken leg done some time ago.

Arthur Gifford, constable elect, was smoking election cigars all last week while the democrats were smelling the smoke.

Claude Cusick was shaking hands with his many friends in Marysville. Claude always was a favorite with the young people here.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson returned home from Utah the past week, having enjoyed their trip immensely, but are glad to be at home.

Roy Brower has moved into the Gifford house near the North Fork, and Mr. Hutchinson has moved to the Chambers residence northwest of town.

Mr. Hopkins has just returned from a trip to Omaha where he went some time ago with a couple of cars of sheep. He says there is no place like Fremont county.

J. G. Wood has been around selling the farmers onions and cabbage for J. Baker. Mr. Baker raised about three hundred bushels of onions on a little over an acre of ground.

Pete Wilson has every man he can get who can drive a nail, at work on his house, as he wants to get it finished while the weather is nice. Pete does his share of hustling too.

Mr. Gess started his herd of cattle down to the lower country Friday. He has had them up to the Porcupine country all summer. They were certainly a fine lot of fat cattle.

Gail Bishop was around town election day, but failed to vote. He is rounding up his cattle preparatory to delivering them to the owners. He has had the cattle on Shot Gun creek.

Alma Larsen, of Salem, came up Friday to find a winter location for the Wilson mill. He and Pete Wilson succeeded in getting a good location near town, if Jim Fogg does not claim it as a reserve.

There was a civil action to have come off in Judge Wood's court: Coleman and Gunter vs. C. Christensen. All parties concerned agreed to settle out of court. The trouble arose over the threshing done at Egin and Fall river.

The Reynolds hotel is nearing completion and will add materially to the south part of town, and will also add to the comfort of the travelers. Mr. Reynolds will have a livery and feed stable in connection with the hotel if the council does not make the license too high.

George Simpson, who has been away all summer at Buffalo Hump county working on his prospects, returned home in time to vote. He brought some fine samples of quartz bearing rock with him. He expects to bond some of his claims in the near future. He says he has some very rich prospects out there and is quite elated about his finds but is glad to be at home.

Election day passed very quietly, no disagreements and but very little intoxicants. It was one of the most orderly elections ever held here, and the result apparently was satisfactory to all, the Republicans carrying the precinct offices.

John Hendricks has opened up a loan agency in Marysville, no need to go to St. Anthony to get money on your property now. Who says we are not metropolitan? If we had one of St. Anthony's numerous attorneys that is all we would need to be a city.

The town board met last Monday but did not succeed in getting through with all the business, consequently had to adjourn for one week. There are a few petitions to come before the board for their consideration relative to the licensing of hotels, restaurants, etc.

It begins to look as though our school house would not be finished in time for school this winter. There are plenty of good carpenters in the county, why can't they be got and make a rush with the building. If the contractor bid so low he cannot afford to pay for help, let's turn in and help him. By all means let's have school.

The members of the Sabbath School Union board came up from Rexburg Sunday eight strong to attend union meeting and were somewhat disappointed in not being able to secure suitable rooms to hold their meeting in, consequently held their meeting after services on Sunday afternoon, leaving here about 5:30 to return to Rexburg.

It looks as though our city dads would have to take up the cemetery question, as we need some one in charge of the "City of the Dead" in order to keep stock from destroying those sacred spots and to keep those evilly disposed from destroying those little tokens of love left there by loving friends; and again to have a uniform price placed on all lots sold that the public may be protected.

W. J. Saulsbury and Miss Lucy Harris will be married Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple, and will be at home to their friends in Marysville after November 20th. Lucy was an accomplished clerk at Mr. Barrett's store, and Will—well he is one of our boys, has grown to manhood here and will always be our boy, at least Lucy's and ours. We join with the people of Marysville in wishing them every joy and prosperity through life.

The well borers are at work at Swen Johnson's and expect to reach water the coming week. T. W. Whittle dug 65 feet and has at this time 55 feet of water on his place. The steam well driller is at work on the McGavin place near the North Fork and they expect to reach water soon. They are to be at Mr. Heseman's Tuesday morning. This is the third machine that has pulled on his place this summer. He has four feet of water at 27 feet deep but thinks he will do better by going deeper. L. L. says he will have to have water if the Republicans are elected.

Heseman & Egbert's grain grinder commenced work Thursday. They had some trouble with belts and gearing at first, but now are doing first rate. This machine and the grist mill on Fall river will be able to supply chop feed for the people here the coming winter and will save the travel to St. Anthony. The grist mill has done some grinding and are making a very good class of flour, but the bolting cloths are too fine causing too much flour to go with the shorts. Mr. Darling has sent for coarser cloth and the mill will soon be turning out all the flour for the people's needs; another labor saver to the people of eastern Fremont.

Charles, the 12-year-old son of Chas. McOmber, was kicked on the head by a horse Monday, and seriously injured. When picked up his brains were oozing out and it was found that his skull was fractured. He was unconscious, but regained consciousness Tuesday morning. The doctor has very little hopes of the boy's recovery.

Mr. Johnson while logging for Pete Wilson had the misfortune to slip down and both wheels of a heavily loaded wagon passed over both his legs bruising them very badly. Fortunately he escaped without breaking any bones. Your scribe visited him and found that he was doing very well under the circumstances, and we hope to see him around again in about a week.

Judge Kelly of Fremont, who has moved his daughters to Marysville for the winter, in order that Miss Kate may attend school and that they may be with Miss Wood, our school teacher, has accepted a position as attorney for the International Harvester Co., and will be away the most of the winter. He returned home from Utah to vote and to attend to a case before the district court.

The funeral of Bishop P. R. Cutler of Vernon, was largely attended by his many friends from Marysville, Wednesday. This was the largest funeral that was ever seen in Marysville. President T. E. Bassett came up from Rexburg to attend the funeral and others from Chester, Fall River, Wilford, Ora and Farnum. The discourse delivered by President Bassett was listened to with deep interest. The Marysville choir attended and sang some very sweet strains. Mrs. Nell Price Loosli sang a very pretty and pathetic solo assisted by members of the choir.

A. Stone has a cat load of Idaho apples which will arrive next week. Get prices before you buy elsewhere. Every box guaranteed full weight with six pounds more to the box than Oregon boxed apples. Apples are carefully selected before being boxed and are thought to be absolutely free from insects.

The Big Boston store pays the highest cash prices for hides, pelts and furs.
