Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It also is a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.

W. A. Denecke, of Lincoln, Nebraska, was in our city Tuesday looking up the farming and stock interests of this section of Idaho. He is representing several interests and if this country proves to be what he is looking for, a large number of people whom he represents, are coming to this part of Idaho. Mr. Denecke is thoroughly infatuated with what he has seen of the country and thinks it is almost useless to look further, although he will continue his trip of investigation to the coast.
