Quarter-Million Gone Up in Flames in Leadville—Several Persons Missing.

LEADVILLE, Col., May 19.—A fire broke out on the south side of East Chestnut street this morning, about 3:30, and before it was got under control had destroyed the buildings on that side of the First National bank, including the Windsor Hotel, Academy of Music, Palace of Fashion, and a large dry goods store. Several buildings on the opposite side of the street were charred. Loss, about $250,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an incendiary. One dead unidentified body was found, and several persons are missing. The wind was very light, otherwise the fire would undoubtedly have destroyed a large portion of the city.

A Corner that was not a Corner.

CHICAGO, May 19.—The testimony taken before the Arbitration committee which is fixing the price of the cornered April wheat, develops the fact that G. C. Walker was the chief holder of that wheat, having about $14,000,000 bought. Mr. Walker held that the operation was in no sense a corner, and only became such after the bears had largely oversold the market, in hopes of breaking it. His story was so straightforward that one of the chief defaulters has already settled, and it is likely that the committee will fix the settling price at $1.40.

Business Failures Last Week.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Failures throughout the country during the past 7 days, 124. Of these 17 were in the Eastern States, 35 in the Western, 36 in the Southern, 21 in the Middle, and 12 in the Pacific States and Territories. There were only 3 in New York city. This is an increase of 7 over last week. The failures in the city of New York are not significant. Business troubles were seldom fewer than now.

Suicide in a Church.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Adrian C. Renaudin, a Frenchman, aged 22, entered the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Annunciation during the service this evening, drew a pistol from his pocket and deliberately shot himself. The services were continued to the close, the clergyman not hearing the report of the pistol shot, and not being informed of the suicide.

General Rosecrans Not to Lose His Foot.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Representative Rosecrans says that his physicians give him hope of recovering the use of his lame foot. Amputation was a long time suggested, but the doctors said that if he would have the patience to wait for a year, and not use his foot more than necessary, he would recover.

The Presbyterian Assembly.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 20.—The Presbyterian General Assembly occupied most of to-day's session in hearing reports and doing routine work. Saratoga was selected as the place for holding the next meeting. Adjourned to this evening.

No Mollie Maguire Outrages.

CHICAGO, May 19.—Inquiry by specials and by Associated Press develops the fact that there are no unusual outrages by the Mollie Maguires at Shamokin and thereabouts. The special reporting them was bogus news.

Destructive Fire.

OLYMPIA, W. T., May 19.—A fire here this morning destroyed a number of business houses. The total loss will reach $75,000, but the insurance will cover two-thirds of that amount.

A Prominent Man Suicides.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 19.—Charles M. Morton, a well-known business man here, suicided here to-day, by shooting.

People Who Want to be Driven Like Sheep.

DURBAN, May 19.—The elections resulted in a majority for the party opposed to responsible government.

Horrible Death of a Condemned Man.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Augustus D. Leighton, colored, was hanged at 8:47 this morning, for the murder of his mistress, Mary Dean. When the trap was sprung the noose failed, slipped under his ears, and caught under his chin. Then commenced sickening struggles which showed that Leighton was strangling to death. His fingers were clenched convulsively, his legs were drawn up, and the victim's agonized, heavy breathing was awful to hear. In seven minutes he was pronounced dead by the official physician, but as the body was partially lowered convulsive heavings of the chest were plainly discernible. Another physician declared him dead eight minutes after the first announcement. The body was removed to Evergreen Cemetery for burial.

The Cause of the Tronble.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—A letter from Wrangell, dated May 4, and telegraphed from Seattle, says that the recently reported troubles are caused by Auck Indians, living near the Janeau, attempting to exclude the Stickeen Indians from their country. About one hundred armed white men interfered in behalf of the Stickeens, and compelled the Aucks to refrain from their purposes.

English Investments in American Railway Bonds.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The five million six per cent collateral trust bonds of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe have all been taken by Baring Bros., who offered them in London for public subscription at 1.05, flat, and all were taken inside of two hours. It is rumored that the Barings have taken another five millions. Negotiations are pending.

Liberal Bequests of a Dead Statesman.

LACROSSE, Wis., May 19.—The will of ex-Governor C. C. Washburne was opened to-day. Its contents are not all known, but among the bequests are one of $50,000 for a public library. He leaves $37,000 for a Memorial Orphan Asylum at Minneapolis, as a tribute to his mother. The bequests aggregate over $500,000. The estate aggregates $2,500,000.

Strange Illusion Ending in Death.

CHICAGO, May 20.—A Sandwich (Ill.) special says: Mrs. James A. Lay died here to-day, having fasted four weeks. She labored under the delusion that she was encircling, and that if she fasted till the child's birth, which she believed would occur in a few days, it would be a second prophet Elijah! The verdict rendered after the post mortem examination was that "it was a case of complete illusion."

A Body-Snatcher Killed.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 19.—Dr. Henry W. Kendall was found in a meadow near the county poor-house cemetery this morning, with a bullet-hole between the eyes. As a full kit of resurrectionists' tools was found near the body, it is supposed that he was engaged in body-snatching. He cannot live.

Another Cyclone.

LITTLE ROCK, May 19.—Reports of a cyclone in the southwestern corner of the State, though it occurred last week, have just been received. Much damage was done, houses, fences, and forests were leveled in its track, and a number of persons injured, but none killed.

A Man's Head Partly Cut Off.

DETROIT, May 19.—Sterling France, employed in a shingle mill at Grand Haven, Mich., was killed this morning. A slab struck him in the back, pushing him against a buzz-saw in such a way as to cut off the back of his head.

A Typical Texas Murder.

DENISON, Texas, May 19.—Steve Ryan, while intoxicated, killed Mrs. Jno. Robinson by pushing a counter over on her, because she would not sell him liquor. He first drew a revolver and threatened to shoot, but she disarmed him.

Shipper to Have Another Hearing.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—It is generally believed to-night that the House Committee on Foreign Affairs will grant Shipper another hearing and let him give such testimony as he chooses.

A Foul Murder.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 19.—Levi Preston, a farmer, was shot dead on the road home last night. John Clark and James Cochrane have been arrested on suspicion of being the perpetrators.

Wah! Wah! Bloody Wah!

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The people of Washington this morning joyfully hailed the prospect of a reported impending duel between Senator Williams, of Kentucky, and Representative Joe Blackburn, of the same State, as a relief from the dullness of Congress. It leaked out that these two sensitive and chivalrous gents had a difficulty. The Frankfort (Ky.) Yeoman gave Blackburn credit for securing the passage of a bill to build a public building at Frankfort, and neglected to state that Williams had got the bill through the Senate. Williams wrote to a friend in Kentucky disparaging Blackburn, and the latter hearing of it, addressed a note to Williams, calling him a liar. Old "Cerro Gordo" put on his war-paint, and called in Senators Hampton and Cutler, of South Carolina, to act for him. Blackburn summoned Representative Carlisle to his assistance. Peaceable explanations were made and rejected.

THE DIRE CALAMITY AVERTED.

About this time the story got out, and the principals, having had time for deliberation, concluded to "make up." Blackburn went over to Williams's residence this morning, and had a long and serious talk with Williams. The whole difficulty ended amicably.

A Charitable Work Closing.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The American association of the Red Cross is about closing up its work in the Mississippi valley. Money and clothing has been distributed to hundreds of suffering and destitute families. The agent of the Association reports that the first largest contribution came from Newton Edmunds, of Yankton, Dakota, and the next largest from Charles S. Neal, Secretary of the San Francisco Stock Exchange Board.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

Helen M. Slocum, a well-known public speaker and leader on woman suffrage, is dead.

By the explosion of giant powder at Copenhagen, Thursday, six persons were killed and many injured.

In Chicago, Thursday, Hugh Clancy, of California, was confided out of all his money, and is now penniless.

The steamship "British Crown," just arrived at Philadelphia, was fruitlessly searched for the Dublin assassins.

In consequence of anonymous Fenian threats, the guards at the Government establishments at Plymouth have been doubled.

THE SHOTS HEARD SATURDAY.

Did They Mean Business, or Were They Only a Bluff?

About 11 o'clock last Saturday evening the report of two discharges of a firearm brought a crowd to the Merchants' Hotel, who expected that a tragedy had occurred. This proved not to be the case, and the general belief soon prevailed that the whole matter was simply a farce, possibly in the nature of a bluff, to scare a supposed fighter out of the small shed-room recently occupied by Dr. Swain, the dentist. It appears that Hess, the auctioneer, had, for services rendered, been given permission to hold his sales in front of the place and use the room as an office. But during his absence a man named Smith had been given possession by the doctor's son, and he refused to give up possession when summoned to do so by Hess. Hence the supposition, generally accepted, that Hess did the shooting with blank cartridges to scare Smith off. Half an hour later a third shot was fired, evidently with a revolver of small calibre, into the shed-room, but no one was hurt. A diligent search by the night watchman failed to supply any evidence that could throw light leading to the identification of the person who did the shooting. Hess has disappeared.

Friedman Happy.

S. J. Friedman is a happy man to-day, five wagonloads of his new goods having arrived via Blackfoot. Let's see! This is the 22d of May. The first freight received here via Kelton came in April 3. Difference in favor of Kelton, 49 days. The Union Pacific had better complete that Oregon Short line to the Kelton road—and be quick about it, or it won't get any freight at all.

The Last Day!

On account of previous engagements, Mr. E. J. Stoltz, agent for Friedlander's San Francisco Palace of Fashion, announces that to-morrow (Tuesday) must necessarily be his last day in town. Therefore call on him at once, and give your measure for a good fitting suit. Room No. 9, Merchant's Hotel.

Bullion—Look Out for Him!

Mr. E. J. Stoltz, traveling agent for Friedlander, the popular tailor of San Francisco, will arrive in Bullion on Wednesday. Don't fail to call on him and give him an order for a good fitting suit of clothes. Be sure to examine his elegant line of samples.

Speculations About the Assassins.
CORK, May 19.—The steamship Wisconsin, which arrived at New York on the 17th instant, sailed from Queenstown at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, May 7. All the passengers, including Turner, who was taken into custody at New York, reported at the company's office the previous evening, hence it was impossible for the assassin to have been on board.

GERMANY.

The Germans to Attempt to Reach the North Pole.

BERLIN, May 19.—Von Moltke has been ordered to embark the German South Polar expedition at Montevideo, and land them on the island South Georgia. Von Moltke will return soon to take the expedition away.

HE LIKES HAILEY.

A Gentleman Who Talks Well and Freely on all Subjects but One.

Mr. Jackson, foreman of the Mayflower mine, at Bullion, came to Hailey last Sunday for the first time since he went to Bullion—four months ago. He said that he was taking a rest, and thought he would come and see how our town looked. He was very favorably impressed with its appearance, noticed that several new business houses had been erected recently, and so pleased with the appearance of the people that he made up his mind to bring his family out from Colorado, and have them live in Hailey.

Mr. Jackson spoke freely of the mining outlook of this section, in which he believed that there would in time be several small Leadvilles, and predicted a prosperous future for Hailey. On all subjects but one he was outspoken, and this one was the rumored change impending in the ownership of the principal Bullion mines. About this matter he knew nothing, and had not the remotest idea of the truth or falsity of the reports.

Largest Brewery in the World.

The Phil Best Brewing Co., Milwaukee, Wisconsin, manufactured and sold twice the quantity of beer in the year 1881 of that sold by any other brewery in the United States, as attested by the Internal Revenue Department.

Sales from September 1, 1880, to September 1, 1881, were three hundred and two thousand three hundred and ninety-seven barrels. It is the largest brewery in the world.
