TELEGRAPHIC AMERICA.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY TIMES.

UNITED STATES.

Modest Roscoe.

NEW YORK, June 11.—General George H. Sharp, speaking of the candidacy of Conkling for the United States Senate last year, and in reply to the statement made by Conkling that he was not a candidate of his own choice and that his friends did not urge him to withdraw as had been previously charged by certain newspapers, says, among other things, that Mr. Conkling resigned for the purpose of being a candidate for re-election. That he sought to introduce into American politics the English method, of obtaining re-endorsement from his constituents, in order that he might wage war upon the Administration, untrammelled by party obligations; and that his friends in Albany were informed by the most expeditious methods of his desires. A special messenger was sent from Washington to Albany, bearing the letters of resignation, and from that messenger it was ascertained that Conkling expected immediate steps would be taken by his friends to insure his re-election. I was myself informed from Washington that he was to be re-elected. I was also asked to invite him by telegram to meet his friends in New York, to consult about the steps that should be taken. I refrained from sending any such telegrams. Others were urged by telegrams of like purport, and at least one other prominent friend of Conkling's also refrained from doing so. It was notorious in Albany that the messenger who brought the resignation stated without reserve that re-election was expected by the resigned members. General Sharp states most positively that every possible effort was made to induce ex-Senator Conkling to withdraw, but he would not listen to them. He wanted it to appear that his re-election was unsolicited, and at the same time he was using every means in his power to secure support.

A Foul Deed.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Herald says of the Irish assassination that there was a card upon the place of business of Thomas J. Bourke, at 518 Hudson street, yesterday morning, carrying the notice: "Closed in consequence of the death of Walker M. Bourke." When the brother of the murdered man read the announcement of the death he was entirely overcome. Being interviewed, he said his murdered brother had been educated at Clong and Wood College, in Ireland. After graduation at Trinity College, Dublin, where he received the first gold medal, he was admitted to the Irish bar, and after a short practice went to India, where he was made Advocate to the High Court of Calcutta. He amassed a fortune in India, and returning to Ireland in 1878, his possessions consisted of the Curragh-leigh estate, in the county of Mayo, the rental of which was £2,000 a year, and the Rahasane estate in Galway, which he had purchased in 1872 for £25,500, whose rental was £1,200 per year. During the famine he gave employment to sixty or seventy men, when in reality he had nothing for them to do. "I may safely say he spent more than his entire income in endeavoring to relieve sufferings caused by famine, and yet in that very spot, where he had done his best to keep the people, he was basely murdered. Up to the time I left Ireland, there was not a single eviction nor a single raise of rent. Where he found a man unable to pay his rent, I have known him to entirely forgive as much as three years' back rent."

Advance in Freight Rates.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The trunk lines agreed to advance freight rates to the West nearly double the present rates, to take effect on July 1. It is also stated that lake and canal rates will be advanced to conform with the prescribed rates.

California Democrats Assembling.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—A large proportion of the delegates to the Democratic State Convention are now in this city. Careful comparison shows that Hearst's strength is about sixty short of enough to nominate. The forces of Johnson, Taylor, Berry and Stoneman are combining against him. Knowing ones claim to be in possession of information justifying the conclusion that Hearst's strength has reached its maximum—at least fifty short of the nomination. The same high authority claims to be prepared to say that the great prize lies between Johnson and Stoneman. Arrangements are being made to combine the strength of Berry and Stoneman, giving all to the one having the best chance of success. Practically the Convention is now in session here. Clay W. Taylor has rooms at the Palace, Hearst at No. 60 Nevada Block, and Johnson at large. It is said here that if Hearst is beaten in the Convention he will make a record of submission to the will of the majority certain to place him in the lead for United States Senator, if the Democrats have the call in the Legislature of 1885.

The Brookfield Bank Robbers Captured.

ST. LOUIS, June 10.—A dispatch from Brookfield says the special train with the bank robbers, in charge of Marshal McArthur and fifty men, arrived at that place to-day. A great crowd was at the depot, but no demonstration was made. The prisoners were identified as three men that (brothers) formerly lived in this county. The fourth is a stranger. They are all rough looking men. The prisoners taken this forenoon will plead guilty.

Later advices from Brookfield says the bank robbers were taken to Linneus, the county seat, and are in jail. They have employed counsel, which indicates that they will not plead guilty when arraigned.

New Telegraph Company.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The announcement will be made to-morrow that a new telegraph company with a capital of $21,000,000 has been organized, and that work has actually been begun on its lines in the east, and that they are to be pushed rapidly west, connecting with the principal cities. The principal stockholder are Hon. George D. Roberts and S. B. White, of New York; Hon. John B. Alley and ex-collector Baird, of Boston, and Governor Foster, of Ohio; who with their friends hold the largest amount of the stocks. The line is to be operated with instruments of the Gray patent, and to be known as the Postal Telegraph Company. $70,000 has already been paid in for preliminary work.

"Rather Be in Hell."—Trial of Strikers.

CHICAGO, June 10.—This afternoon Mrs. Maggie Langien fell from a 3d-story window to the sidewalk, a distance of 40 feet, striking on her head and shoulders. She died on the way to the hospital. From the fact that her husband and brother had quarreled in the room a few minutes before, and she was heard to say she would "rather be in hell" than there, the supposition is that it was a case of suicide.

The men arrested for complicity in the Brighton riots, some days ago, in which Judge Pillsbury was wounded, had a further hearing in the Justice's court to-day, but the cases were not concluded.

Explosion of a Powder Magazine.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, June 10.—The Magazine of the Oriental Powder Company here was struck by lightning last night, and exploded with terrific force. Stones were hurled in every direction. One weighing 80 pounds was hurled a quarter of a mile. A horse was killed at a distance by another stone. Windows were broken a mile away. The report and jar were noticed miles off.

Strike Ended.

CINCINNATI, June 10.—President Jarrett, of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers' Association, met with the striking workmen of this city last evening, and after hearing the case as presented by the men declares, as his opinion, that the strike was not justifiable, and the men are bound to continue at work under the terms of the contract of last October with the manufacturers. The meeting agreed with Jarrett's views. To-morrow he will confer with the mill-owners, and it is expected the mills will be running on Monday.

After the conference this morning the men in the iron mills agreed to go to work on Monday with prices the same as when they quit work, and so remain until a scale has been fixed at Pittsburg, which will be adopted here.

Malignant Reports.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Post says that the malignant reports circulated yesterday, to the effect that the prominent banking house of Woerriehoeffer & Co. was in trouble, appears to have been part of a concerted plan to break the stock market. From all parts of the country telegraph inquiries came about this house, and to make the story more plausible, bets were offered that the house would fail; and also large blocks of stocks in which Woerriehoeffer & Co. have been identified were thrown on the market. This kind of warfare in critical times may be productive, directly or indirectly, in much damage, and the Stock Exchange should investigate the matter, and lead the way in such prosecution as the law warrants.

Hung by Vigilantes.

LAWRENCE, Kan., June 10.—Peter Vinegar, George Robinson and Ike King were taken from the jail here this forenoon, at 10 o'clock, by a crowd of Vigilantes and hanged from the bridge. Robinson plead for his life and fell on his knees three times. King said when he was about to drop, "Boys, let me down easy." Men behind him replied, "Did you let Bandsman down easy?" and gave the plank a shove. Vinegar and Robertson's necks were broken almost off. The colored people say that the punishment was deserved.

Indians Stealing Stock.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 10.—Governor Hoyt received a telegram to-day from Fort McKinny, stating that the Crow Indians were scattered all over the country, killing cattle and stealing horses, and that the Crows should be ordered back to their reservation or trouble would be the result. The Crows are supposed to be peaceable, but are stealing stock from the settlers continually.

Don't Like It.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A London telegram says that Frelinghuysen's Panama dispatch does not improve the English estimate of the diplomatic abilities of the author, nor the soundness of American views. One journal stigmatizes his language as impertinent, and another says it is peremptory in manner and shallow in argument.

Prize Fighters Arrested.

CONY ISLAND, June 10.—James Murray and Benjamin Green, of Providence, Rhode Island, this forenoon commenced a prize fight for $300 a side and the light-weight championship of Rhode Island. The police appeared after the third round, and captured them and the seconds. The rest escaped.

No War of Rates.

CHICAGO, June 10.—A private telegram received here says: "Assurance positive that no war of rates will occur between the Union Pacific and the Burlington railroads on Colorado business." This information is not official, but from a reliable source.

A Despondent Mother Poisons Herself and Four Children.

CHICAGO, June 10.—A Mr. and Mrs. Seyboldt, of this city, did not live in entire harmony, and since the birth of their last child, Mrs. Seyboldt has not been in good health and was subject to fits of despondency. Yesterday she poisoned her children, and then committed suicide herself.

From a number of notes written by the oldest daughter, aged 12, it appears that Mrs. Seyboldt talked the matter over with her and got her consent to the terrible tragedy. Several of these notes are addressed to her schoolmates on childish matters, and to her father. One says, "Forgive me. We leave you. Mamma thought it was best we should die." The other asks him to bury them decently, and tells him where she leaves money to buy flowers. One addressed to a schoolmate says: "Mother was always sick, you know, and thought of dying often, and how we would be treated, and thought it best that all of us should die at once and bought something to kill us—baby first, Annie second, Tony third, I next, and then mother. We did not suffer much, and now we are out of trouble."

Assassinated.

SAN JOSE, June 9.—Mrs. Guadalupe Flores was assassinated on the street at Los Gatos last night. Her former husband, John Warsley, recently released from the penitentiary, is the supposed murderer, in revenge for having obtained a divorce and remarried during his incarceration.

Standing in with the Strikers.

CUMBERLAND, Md., June 10.—This morning the train men on the Eckhart railroad refused to transport coal mined by imported labor. The company have one engine to work this forenoon, and say the positions on the railroad will be supplied with willing men on Monday.

Declines.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A Post special from Malone, N. Y., says ex-Vice-President Wheeler declines the appointment on the Tariff Commission, for the reason that his health will not permit the task.

Got the Advance.

WAREHAM, Mass., June 10.—The striking employes of the South Wareham Nail Company received a 10 per cent advance, and will return to work on Monday.

CANADA.

Trying to Capture the Oriental Trade.
OTTAWA, Ont., June 10.—Information has been received here that a chief engineer and 52 assistant engineers have reached Honolulu, and are building a marine tramway. This is the initiative step toward the establishment of a Canadian line to the Sandwich Islands and China.
